On October 29, 2010, Bridgeline Digital, Inc. (“Bridgeline Digital” or the “Company”) appointed Erez Katz to the newly-created position of Chief Operating Officer.

Erez Katz has been with the Company since June of 2007 and has been the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Company’s Atlanta Business Unit where he has consistently delivered the highest gross profit margins and above average profitability when compared to the Company’s other six business units. Prior to joining Bridgeline Digital, from 1996 to 2007, Mr. Katz was the founder, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Atlanta based Objectware, Inc., a rapidly growing web application development company. Objectware was acquired by Bridgeline Digital in June 2007. In October 2010 the Company and Mr. Katz entered in to a one year employment agreement. The employment agreement provides Mr. Katz with a base salary of $225,000 and the opportunity to earn $100,000 in additional bonus when certain positive operating results are achieved. The employment agreement provides that in the event Mr. Katz’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or if Mr. Katz terminates his employment for good reason, he is entitled to receive severance benefits. The severance benefits include (i) payment of a sum equal to three months salary plus an amount equal to the quarterly bonus paid to Mr. Katz for the preceding quarter immediately prior to his termination; (ii) the continuation of health insurance coverage for a period of three months; and (iii) the acceleration of all stock options held by Mr. Katz which are unvested as of the date of termination.
