RISK FACTORS

An investment in any securities offered pursuant to this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement involves risks. You should carefully consider the risk factors incorporated by reference to our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and any subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or Current Reports on Form 8-K we file after the date of this prospectus, and all other information contained or incorporated by reference into this prospectus, as updated by our subsequent filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and the risk factors and other information contained in the applicable prospectus supplement before acquiring any of such securities. The occurrence of any of these risks might cause you to lose all or part of your investment in the offered securities.

If the selling stockholder sells all or a portion of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus, it could cause our common stock price to decline.

The sale by the selling stockholder of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus could depress the market price for our common stock. Such sales may also make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate to raise funds through future equity offerings of our common stock.

New factors emerge from time to time and it is not possible for management to predict all of such factors, nor can it assess the impact of each such factor on the business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of common stock sold from time to time by the selling stockholder under this prospectus. SELLING STOCKHOLDER

We are registering for resale by the selling stockholder 10,835,145 shares of our common stock. As previously described in reports filed with the SEC, on October 20, 2015, GE Medical Holding AB, a private limited company (privat aktiebolag) organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Sweden (Reg. No. 556648-9315) (“GE Medical”), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with us and NeoGenomics Laboratories. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, NeoGenomics (through NeoGenomics Laboratories) acquired from GE Medical all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Clariant, Inc. (“Clariant”), a wholly owned subsidiary of GE Medical, for a purchase price consisting of (i) cash consideration of approximately $74.0 million, (ii) 15,000,000 shares of our common stock (“Common Shares”) and (iii) 14,666,667 shares of our Series A convertible preferred stock (“Preferred Shares”) (collectively, the “Transaction”). The Transaction closed on December 30, 2015. As permitted by the Purchase Agreement, GE Medical transferred its right to receive the Common Shares and the Preferred Shares issued in the Transaction to its parent company, GE Medical Systems Information Technologies, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation (“GE InfoTech”).

On December 30, 2015, in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement and concurrent with the closing of the Transaction, we entered into an Investor Board Rights, Lockup and Standstill Agreement (the “Investor Rights Agreement”) with GE InfoTech and General Electric Company (“General Electric”). Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, GE InfoTech is entitled to appoint a designee to our board of directors (the “Board”), provided that such designee meets the director qualification requirements set forth in the Investor Rights Agreement. Thereafter, for so long as GE InfoTech, General Electric and the subsidiaries of General Electric (collectively, the “GE Parties”) continue to beneficially own in the aggregate at least 10% of our then-outstanding voting stock, GE InfoTech is entitled to designate for nomination one director for election at each annual or special meeting of our stockholders at which directors of the Board are to be elected and at which the seat held by GE InfoTech’s designee is subject to election. Subject to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement, we are required to support the election of such nominee and GE InfoTech is required to vote all of our voting stock beneficially owned by it in favor of the director slate nominated by management. Stephen Kanovsky is currently the GE Info Tech designee on our Board.

On December 30, 2015, in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement and concurrent with the closing of the Transaction, we and GE InfoTech entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the “Registration Rights Agreement”). Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, we are required to file a shelf registration statement for the offer and sale of the Common Shares acquired in the Transaction and any shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Preferred Shares. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides GE InfoTech with customary demand and piggyback registration rights with respect to such shares. NeoGenomics is required to pay all registration expenses relating to any shelf, demand or piggyback registration, including the fees and expenses of one counsel for the GE Parties, but not including underwriting fees, discounts or commissions. The Registration Rights Agreement also contains customary cross-indemnification provisions. We are filing the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement.

On December 22, 2016, we redeemed directly from GE InfoTech 8,066,667 Preferred Shares at a redemption price of approximately $6.8182 per share. In December 2017, the Company issued 264,000 additional shares of Preferred Stock as a PIK dividend resulting in a balance of 6,864,000 shares outstanding as of December 31, 2017. On June 25, 2018, NeoGenomics redeemed from GE InfoTech the remaining 6,864,000 Preferred Shares at a redemption price of $7.30 per share. Such redemptions and the PIK dividend occurred pursuant to the terms of the Preferred Shares. After the redemption on June 25, 2018, there were no Preferred Shares outstanding. On November 9, 2018, GE InfoTech sold 4,164,855 of the Common Shares at a price per share of $16.75 pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The table below is based on information provided to us by the selling stockholder. The following table sets forth the name of the selling stockholder, the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned by the selling stockholder as of the date of this prospectus, and the number of shares that may be offered by the selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to our common stock. We do not know when or in what amounts the selling stockholder may sell or otherwise dispose of the shares covered hereby and therefore cannot estimate the number of the shares that will be held by the selling stockholder after completion of the offering. We have, therefore, assumed for the purposes of the following table, that the selling stockholder will sell all of the shares owned beneficially that are covered by this prospectus.

We believe, based on information supplied by the selling stockholder, that the selling stockholder and its affiliates have sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the common stock reported as beneficially owned.

There can be no assurance that the selling stockholder will sell any or all of the shares of common stock registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling stockholder and any other person participating in such distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of common stock offered hereby by the selling stockholder and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of common stock offered hereby to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock offered hereby. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of common stock offered hereby and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock offered hereby.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Subsection (1) of Section 78.7502 of the Nevada General Corporation Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgment, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to be the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Subsection (2) of Section 78.7502 of the Nevada General Corporation Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth in subsection (1) enumerated above, against expenses (including amounts paid in settlement and attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation except that no indemnification may be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought determines that in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnify for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Subsection (3) of Section 78.7502 of the Nevada General Corporation Law provides that to the extent a director, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in subsection (1) and (2) or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, that person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonable incurred by him or her in connection therein.

Our articles of incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent that limitations on the liability of directors and officers are permitted by the Nevada Revised Statutes, no director or officer of the Company shall have any liability to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages. The Nevada Revised Statutes provide that a corporation's charter may include a provision which restricts or limits the liability of its directors or officers to the corporation or its stockholders for money damages except: (1) to the extent that it is provided that the person actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received, or (2) to the extent that a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the person is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the person's action, or failure to act, was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding. Our articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that we shall indemnify and advance expenses to our currently acting and former directors to the fullest extent permitted by the Nevada Revised Statutes and that we shall indemnify and advance expenses to our officers to the same extent as our directors and to such further extent as is consistent with law.

The articles and bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers and may indemnify its employees or agents to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which they may be involved because of their offices with us. However, nothing in our articles of incorporation or bylaws protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director has been successful in defense of any proceeding, the Nevada Revised Statutes provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy and is, therefore, unenforceable.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
