The following is a press release issued by Reliant Energy, Inc. on April 18, 2006.

For Immediate Release

RELIANT ENERGY REACHES AGREEMENT WITH SENECA CAPITAL

Houston - April 18, 2006 Reliant Energy, Inc. (NYSE:RRI) today announced that it has reached an agreement with stockholder Seneca Capital, L.P. (Seneca) under which Seneca will cease its efforts to run a slate of three director nominees for election to Reliant's board of directors at its 2006 annual meeting of stockholders.

Under the terms of the agreement, Reliant will appoint a director to the board who is a representative of a substantial institutional stockholder of the company. The director shall be selected at the sole discretion of the board upon the recommendation of the nominating and corporate governance committee. The agreement provides that the director will be appointed on or before September 1, 2006. Pursuant to the agreement, Seneca has withdrawn its director nominees and agreed to vote in favor of the election of each of the board's nominees at the 2006 annual meeting.

Commenting on the agreement, Joel Staff, chairman and chief executive officer of Reliant, stated, "We have maintained an open dialogue with Seneca, both prior to and following notification of its intent to nominate a slate of directors. We believe that the agreement that we have reached is in the best interest of the company and all of our stockholders."

Staff continued, "The Reliant board had previously announced its intention to add two new independent members to the board before the end of the year. The board intends to conduct a thorough and fulsome search for the best qualified candidates, including candidates suggested by stockholders. The agreement reached with Seneca will enable Reliant's board to proceed with that plan."

Reliant Energy filed its definitive proxy materials for its 2006 annual meeting of stockholders on April 13, 2006 and mailed the materials to its stockholders of record at the close of business on March 22, 2006 on April 17, 2006.

Attn: Douglas A. Hirsch

Dear Mr. Hirsch:

Reference is made to the submission (the "Advance Notice Submission") by Seneca Capital, L.P. ("Seneca") of its intention to nominate three candidates to stand for election to the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Reliant Energy, Inc. (the "Company") at the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "2006 Annual Meeting") and Seneca's stated intention to solicit proxies in support of its nominees (the "Proxy Contest").

As we have discussed, subject to Seneca's agreement to the terms and conditions set forth in this letter agreement (this "Letter Agreement"), the Company agrees that on or before September 1, 2006, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will recommend the appointment, and the Board will appoint, to the Board as a director a representative of a substantial institutional stockholder of the Company (based on such stockholder's stock ownership as of the date of such appointment), the particular identity of such individual to be determined by the Board in its sole discretion. It being the intent of the parties that representative means an officer, employee or former executive of that substantial institutional shareholder or a person who represents the interests and objectives of a substantial institutional shareholder of the Company. The Company further agrees to issue a press release announcing this settlement and the terms thereof no later than 5:30 P.M. EDT on Tuesday, April 18, 2006. Effective upon execution of this Letter Agreement, Seneca irrevocably withdraws its Advance Notice Submission and agrees to terminate the Proxy Contest. Seneca further agrees that it shall vote, and shall cause each of its affiliated entities and individuals, described in the Advance Notice Submission or otherwise, to vote, all shares of the Company's common stock which they are entitled to vote at the 2006 Annual Meeting in favor of the election of each of the Board's nominees.
