CHRISTOPHER & BANKS CORPORATION

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-Q have been prepared by Christopher & Banks Corporation and subsidiaries (the Company) pursuant to the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed, or omitted, pursuant to such rules and regulations. These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 25, 2006.

The results of operations for the interim periods shown in this report are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the fiscal year. In the opinion of management, the information contained herein reflects all adjustments necessary to make the results of operations for the interim periods a fair statement of such operations. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature.

NOTE 2 STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

General

Effective February 26, 2006, the Company adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 123R, Share-Based Payment (SFAS 123R) using the modified prospective transition method. Under this transition method, stock-based compensation expense recognized for share-based awards during the three and nine month periods ended November 25, 2006 includes: (a) compensation expense for all stock-based compensation awards granted prior to, but not yet vested as of, February 25, 2006, based on the grant date fair value estimated in accordance with the original provisions of SFAS 123, and (b) compensation expense for all stock-based compensation awards granted subsequent to February 25, 2006, based on the grant date fair value estimated in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123R. In accordance with the modified prospective transition method, results for the prior period have not been restated. Prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R, the Company recognized stock-based compensation expense in accordance with Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees (APB 25) and related Interpretations, as permitted by SFAS 123.

Under various plans, the Company may grant options to purchase common stock to employees and non-employee members of its Board of Directors at a price not less than 100% of the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the option grant date. In general, options granted to employees vest over two to five years and are exercisable up to ten years from the date of grant. In prior fiscal years, options granted to Directors vested immediately upon grant and were exercisable up to five years from the date of grant. Beginning in fiscal 2007, options granted to Directors vest immediately and are exercisable up to ten years from the grant date.

The Company may also grant shares of restricted stock to its employees and non-employee members of its Board of Directors. Restricted stock awards are independent of option grants and are subject to forfeiture if employment or service terminates prior to the lapse of the restrictions. In addition, certain of the Company's restricted stock awards are performance based and are subject to forfeiture if the performance conditions are not met. The Company holds the certificates for such shares in safekeeping during the vesting period and the grantee cannot transfer the shares before the respective shares vest. Shares of nonvested restricted stock are considered to be currently issued and outstanding. Restricted stock grants to employees vest over three to seven years, while restricted grants to Directors fully vest after six months. The Company expenses the cost of the restricted stock awards, which is determined to be the fair market value of the shares at the date of grant, on a straight-line basis over the vesting period. For these purposes, the fair market value of the restricted stock is determined based on the closing price of the Company's common stock on the grant date.

The total compensation expense related to all stock-based awards for the three and nine month periods ended November 25, 2006, reflecting the impact of the implementation of the modified prospective transition method in accordance with SFAS 123R, was $1.6 million and $3.9 million, respectively. Stock-based compensation expense in the third quarter and first nine months of fiscal 2007 was included in merchandise, buying and occupancy expenses for the Company's buying and distribution employees and in selling, general and administrative expense for all other employees.

Effective February 26, 2006 the Company began recognizing stock-based compensation costs net of a forfeiture rate for only those shares expected to vest on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period of the award. The Company estimated the forfeiture rate for the third quarter and first nine months of fiscal 2007 based on its historical experience.

As a result of adopting SFAS 123R, the impact to the consolidated statement of income for the three and nine month periods ended November 25, 2006 was a reduction in income before income taxes of $674,000 and $2.5 million, respectively, and a reduction in net income of $412,000 and $1.5 million, respectively, from what would have been presented if the Company had continued to account for stock-based compensation awards under APB 25. The impact on both basic and diluted earnings per share was $0.01 for the three months ended November 25, 2006 and $0.04 for the nine months ended November 25, 2006, from what would have been reported under APB 25.

Prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R, the Company presented all tax benefits related to deductions resulting from the exercise of stock options as cash flows from operating activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows. SFAS 123R requires that cash flows resulting from tax benefits attributable to tax deductions in excess of the compensation expense recognized for those options (excess tax benefits) be classified as financing cash flows. As a result, the Company classified approximately $5.7 million of excess tax benefits as financing cash flows for the nine months ended November 25, 2006.

The pro forma table below illustrates the effect on net income and earnings per share as if the Company had applied the fair value recognition provisions of SFAS No. 123, as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure, to all stock-based employee compensation for the three and nine month periods ended November 26, 2005:

	Three Months Ended November 26, 2005	Nine Months Ended November 26, 2005

As reported	$ 0.24	$ 0.66

Methodology Assumptions

As part of its SFAS 123R adoption, the Company examined its historical pattern of option exercises in an effort to determine if there were any discernable activity patterns attributable to certain optionees. From this analysis, the Company identified two distinct populations of optionees, employees and non-employee directors. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option-pricing model to value the Company's stock options for grants to its employees and non-employee directors. Using this option-pricing model, the fair value of each stock option award is estimated on the date of grant. The fair value of the Company's stock option awards, which are generally subject to pro-rata vesting, is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the stock options. The expected volatility assumption is based on the historical volatility of the Company's stock over a term equal to the expected term of the option granted.

The expected term of stock option awards granted is derived from historical exercise experience for the Company's employees and non-employee directors under the Company's stock option plans and represents the period of time that stock option awards granted are expected to be outstanding for each of the two identified populations. The expected term assumption incorporates the contractual term of an option grant, which for previously issued grants is ten years for employees and five or ten years for non-employee directors, as well as the vesting period of an award, which is most commonly pro-rata vesting over three years for employees and immediate vesting for non-employee directors. The risk-free interest rate is based on the implied yield on a U.S. Treasury constant maturity with a remaining term equal to the expected term of the option granted.

The weighted average assumptions relating to the valuation of the Company's stock options for the three and nine months ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005 were as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	November 25, 2006		November 26, 2005		November 25, 2006		November 26, 2005
Expected dividend yield	0.86	%	0.80	%	0.83	%	0.80	%
Expected volatility	48.40	%	41.50	%	46.77	%	39.42	%
Risk-free interest rate	4.71	%	4.08	%	4.95	%	3.84	%
Expected term in years	3.87		3.32		3.51		2.71

Stock-Based Compensation Activity

The following table presents a summary of the Company's stock option activity for the nine months ended November 25, 2006:

	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Aggregate Intrinsic Value	Weighted Average Fair Value	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Life
Outstanding, beginning of period	3,745,166	$ 18.40	$ 13,140,927	$ 6.75
Vested	3,076,666	18.39	10,893,946	6.65
Unvested	668,500	18.43	2,246,981	7.18
Granted	137,700	27.08		10.15
Exercised	(1,685,574)	17.81	16,142,711	6.83
Canceled - Vested	(5,000)	18.33	17,100	7.57
Canceled - Unvested (Forfeited)	(71,900)	18.28	249,764	7.28
Outstanding, end of period	2,120,392	19.44	6,227,361	6.89	5.75

Unvested	658,300	20.35	1,653,127	7.77	8.26
Exercisable, end of period	1,462,092	19.03	4,574,234	6.49	4.63

The aggregate intrinsic value in the table above represents the total pretax intrinsic value (the difference between the Company's closing stock price on the last trading day of the third quarter of fiscal 2007 and the exercise price, multiplied by the number of in-the-money options) that would have been received by the option holders had all option holders exercised their options on November 25, 2006.

As of November 25, 2006, there was approximately $2.4 million of total unrecognized compensation expense related to unvested stock options granted under the Company's share-based compensation plans. That expense is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately one year.

The following table presents a summary of the Company's restricted stock activity for the nine months ended November 25, 2006:

	Number of Shares	Aggregate Intrinsic Value	Weighted Average Fair Value
Unvested, beginning of period	54,867	$ 1,193,357	$ 18.35
Granted	293,383	6,381,080	28.68
Vested	(9,333)	202,993	15.98
Canceled - Unvested (Forfeited)	(2,300)	50,025	19.45
Unvested, end of period	336,617	7,321,420	27.41

The total fair value of shares of restricted stock that vested during the nine months ended November 25, 2006 was $149,181. As of November 25, 2006, there was approximately $7.9 million of unrecognized stock-based compensation expense related to nonvested restricted stock awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately two years.

The following is a reconciliation of the number of shares and per share amounts used in the basic and diluted EPS computations:

	Three Months Ended November 25, 2006		November 26, 2005
	Shares	Net Income Per Share	Shares	Net Income Per Share

NOTE 12 RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN No. 48), which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes by prescribing the minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. Additionally, FIN 48 provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest, penalties, accounting in interim periods and disclosure related to uncertain income tax positions. FIN No. 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting FIN No. 48, but does not anticipate the adoption will have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS No. 157). SFAS No. 157 defines fair value, established a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 does not require any new fair value measurements, rather it is applicable under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements. The provisions of SFAS No. 157 are to be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which it is initially applied, with any transition adjustment recognized as a cumulative-effect adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings. The provisions of SFAS No. 157 are effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting SFAS No. 157, but does not anticipate it will have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS
(Unaudited)

The following management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations (MD&A) should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in Item 1 of this Form 10-Q.

Executive Summary - Key Performance Indicators

The Company's management evaluates the following items, which are considered key performance indicators, in assessing the Company's performance:

Same-store sales

The Company's same-store sales data is calculated based on the change in net sales for stores that have been open for more than 13 full months and includes stores, if any, that have been relocated within the same mall, though the Company typically does not expand or relocate stores within a mall. Stores where square footage has been changed by more than 25 percent are excluded from the same-store sales calculation. Stores closed during the year are included in the same-store sales calculation only for the full months of the year the stores were open.

Management considers same-store sales to be an important indicator of the Company's performance. Same-store sales results are important in achieving leveraging of costs, including store payroll, store occupancy, depreciation and other general and administrative expenses. Positive same-store sales contribute to greater leveraging of costs while negative same-store sales contribute to deleveraging of costs. Same-store sales also have a direct impact on the Company's total net sales, cash and cash equivalents and working capital.

Merchandise, buying and occupancy costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization

Merchandise, buying and occupancy costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization, measure whether the Company is appropriately optimizing the price of its merchandise. Merchandise, buying and occupancy costs include the cost of merchandise, markdowns, shrink, freight into and out from the Company's distribution center, buyer and distribution center salaries, buyer travel, rent and other occupancy related costs, various merchandise design and development costs, miscellaneous merchandise expenses and other costs related to the Company's distribution network. Any inability to obtain acceptable levels of initial markups or any significant increase in the Company's markdowns could have an adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

Operating income

The Company's management views operating income as a key indicator of the Company's success. The key drivers of operating income are same-store sales, merchandise, buying and occupancy costs and the Company's ability to control operating costs.

Store productivity

Store productivity, including sales per square foot, average unit retail price, number of transactions per store, number of units per transaction and average retail per transaction, is evaluated by management in assessing the operational performance of the Company.

Inventory turnover

The Company's management evaluates inventory turnover as a measure of how productively inventory is bought and sold. Inventory turnover is important as it can signal slow moving inventory, which can be critical in determining the need to take markdowns on merchandise.

Cash flow and liquidity

Management evaluates cash flow from operations, investing activities and financing activities in determining the sufficiency of the Company's cash position. Cash flow from operations has historically been sufficient to cover the Company's uses of cash. The Company expects its cash and short-term investments, combined with cash flows from operations, to be sufficient to fund anticipated capital expenditures, working capital and other requirements for liquidity for the balance of fiscal 2007 and throughout fiscal 2008.

Management's discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based upon the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. On an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates its estimates, including those related to customer product returns, inventories, income taxes, medical and workers' compensation claims and contingencies. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. There have been no material changes in the Company's critical accounting policies during the nine months ended November 25, 2006.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, certain items from the Company's condensed consolidated statement of income expressed as a percentage of net sales:

Net income	6.6	%	6.7	%	7.7	%	6.5	%

Three Months Ended November 25, 2006 Compared to Three Months Ended November 26, 2005

Net Sales. Net sales for the three months ended November 25, 2006 were $139.3 million, an increase of $8.8 million or 7%, from $130.5 million for the three months ended November 26, 2005. The increase in net sales was due to an increase in the number of stores operated by the Company, partially offset by a 1% decline in same-store sales. The Company operated 778 stores at November 25, 2006, compared to 707 stores at November 26, 2005. The 1% decrease in same-store sales resulted from soft customer response to the Company's merchandise assortment in October and November. For the quarter, same-store sales increased by 4% for stores opened by the Company in fiscal 2004, 2005 and 2006, while the mature base of 427 stores, opened in fiscal 2003 and earlier, reported a 3% decline in same-store sales.

The Company's same-store sales data is calculated based on the change in net sales for stores that have been open for more than 13 full months and includes stores, if any, that have been relocated within the same mall, though the Company typically does not expand or relocate stores within a mall. Stores where square footage has been changed by more than 25 percent are excluded from the same-store sales calculation. Stores closed during the year are included in the same-store sales calculation only for the full months of the year the stores were open.

Merchandise, Buying and Occupancy Costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization. Merchandise, buying expenses and occupancy costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization, were $84.6 million, or 60.8% of net sales, during the third quarter of fiscal 2007, compared to $78.1 million, or 59.8% of net sales, during the same period in fiscal 2006. The approximate 90 basis point increase in merchandising, buying and occupancy costs as a percent of net sales was a result of approximately 70 basis points of negative leverage due to a higher level of markdowns, approximately 50 basis points of negative leverage related to rent expense and approximately 40 basis points of negative leverage due to distribution, utilities, maintenance and other expenses. This negative leverage was offset by approximately 70 basis points of positive leverage related to the reversal of approximately $1.0 million of accrued bonus expense for the merchandise staff.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended November 25, 2006 were $35.8 million, or 25.7% of net sales, compared to $33.8 million, or 25.9% of net sales, for the three months ended November 26, 2005, resulting in 20 basis points of positive leverage. A reversal of approximately $1.5 million of accrued bonus expense contributed approximately 110 basis points of positive leverage. In addition, approximately 50 basis points of positive leverage was gained from lower self-insured medical costs. Offsetting this positive leverage was approximately 110 basis points of negative leverage related to stock-based compensation expense and approximately 30 basis points of negative leverage related to other selling, general and administrative expenses that could not be leveraged with the 1% decline in same-store sales.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization was $5.1 million, or 3.6% of net sales, in the third quarter of fiscal 2007, compared to $4.7 million, or 3.6% of net sales, in the third quarter of fiscal 2006. The increase in the amount of depreciation and amortization expense was a result of capital expenditures made during the past year. The Company opened 77 new stores in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and 69 new stores in all of fiscal 2006.

Operating Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating income for the three months ended November 25, 2006 was $13.7 million, or 9.9% of net sales, compared to operating income of $13.9 million, or 10.7% of net sales, for the three months ended November 26, 2005.

Interest Income. For the quarter ended November 25, 2006, interest income increased to approximately $1.4 million from $449,340 for the quarter ended November 26, 2005. The increase resulted from higher interest rates on short-term investments, combined with a larger balance of cash equivalents and short-term investments in the third quarter of fiscal 2007 compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2006. As of November 25, 2006, the Company had $113.2 million of cash, cash-equivalents and short-term investments, compared to $69.6 million at November 26, 2005.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense in the third quarter of fiscal 2007 was $5.8 million, with an effective tax rate of 38.8%, compared to $5.6 million, with an effective tax rate of 39.1%, in the third quarter of fiscal 2006.

Net Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, net income for the three months ended November 25, 2006 was $9.2 million, or 6.6% of net sales, and $0.24 per diluted share, compared to $8.7 million, or 6.7% of net sales, and $0.24 per diluted share, for the three months ended November 26, 2005.

Nine Months Ended November 25, 2006 Compared to Nine Months Ended November 26, 2005

Net Sales. Net sales for the nine months ended November 25, 2006 were $413.3 million, an increase of $49.4 million or 14%, from $363.9 million for the nine months ended November 26, 2005. The increase in net sales was due to an increase in the number of stores operated by the Company combined with a 4% increase in same-store sales. The Company operated 778 stores at November 25, 2006, compared to 707 stores at November 26, 2005. The 4% increase in same-store sales resulted from strong customer acceptance of the Company's merchandise assortment from March through August, offset by softer performance in October and November.

The Company's same-store sales data is calculated based on the change in net sales for stores that have been open for more than 13 full months and includes stores, if any, that have been relocated within the same mall, though the Company typically does not expand or relocate stores within a mall. Stores where square footage has been changed by more than 25 percent are excluded from the same-store sales calculation. Stores closed during the year are included in the same-store sales calculation only for the full months of the year the stores were open.

Merchandise, Buying and Occupancy Costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization. Merchandise, buying expenses and occupancy costs, exclusive of depreciation and amortization, were $242.0 million, or 58.5% of net sales, during the first nine months of fiscal 2007, compared to $216.9 million, or 59.6% of net sales, during the same period in fiscal 2006. The decline in merchandising, buying and occupancy costs as a percent of net sales was mainly attributable to a decreased level of markdowns as customers reacted strongly to the Company's merchandise assortment in the first and second quarters of the year. This was offset in the third quarter by increased markdowns as customer demand for the Company's merchandise softened in October and November.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses for the nine months ended November 25, 2006 were $108.0 million, or 26.1% of net sales, compared to $95.7 million, or 26.3% of net sales, for the nine months ended November 26, 2005, resulting in approximately 20 basis points of positive leverage. The Company gained positive leverage from controlling store level costs. In addition, a lower level of self-insured medical claims also contributed to achieving positive leverage. These gains were substantially offset by stock-based compensation expense which accounted for approximately 80 more basis points of selling, general and administrative expenses in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 than in the first nine months of fiscal 2006.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization was $15.1 million, or 3.7% of net sales, in the first nine months of fiscal 2007, compared to $13.7 million, or 3.8% of net sales, in the first nine months of fiscal 2006. The increase in the amount of depreciation and amortization expense was a result of capital expenditures made during the past year. The Company opened 77 new stores in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and 69 new stores in all of fiscal 2006.

Operating Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating income for the nine months ended November 25, 2006 was $48.3 million, or 11.7% of net sales, compared to operating income of $37.5 million, or 10.3% of net sales, for the nine months ended November 26, 2005.

Interest Income. For the nine months ended November 25, 2006, interest income increased to approximately $3.6 million from $1.2 million for the nine months ended November 26, 2005. The increase resulted from higher interest rates on short-term investments, combined with a larger balance of cash equivalents and short-term investments in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 compared to the first nine months of fiscal 2006. As of November 25, 2006, the company had $113.2 million of cash, cash-equivalents and short-term investments, compared to $69.6 million at November 26, 2005.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 was $20.1 million, with an effective tax rate of 38.8%, compared to $15.0 million, with an effective tax rate of 38.8%, in the first nine months of fiscal 2006.

Net Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, net income for the nine months ended November 25, 2006 was $31.8 million, or 7.7% of net sales, and $0.84 per diluted share, compared to $23.7 million, or 6.5% of net sales, and $0.66 per diluted share, for the nine months ended November 26, 2005.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's principal on-going cash requirements are to finance the construction of new stores and the remodeling of certain existing stores, to purchase merchandise inventory and to fund other working capital requirements. Merchandise purchases vary on a seasonal basis, peaking in the fall. As a result, the Company's cash requirements historically reach their peak in October or November. Conversely, cash balances reach their peak in January after the holiday season is completed.

Net cash provided by operating activities totaled $22.9 million for the first nine months of fiscal 2007, a decrease of $7.9 million from $30.8 million for the first nine months of fiscal 2006. The decrease in net cash provided by operating activities was primarily a result of a $17.6 million increase in merchandise inventory in the first nine months of fiscal 2007 compared to a $2.4 million increase in merchandise inventory in the first nine months of fiscal 2006, partially offset by increased net income and stock-based compensation expense in fiscal 2007 compared to fiscal 2006. Net cash used in investing activities included $24.2 million of capital expenditures and net purchases of short-term investments of approximately $23.8 million. The Company opened 77 new stores and completed eight store remodels during the nine months ended November 25, 2006.

Net cash of $22.2 million was provided by financing activities during the first nine months of fiscal 2007. The Company paid three quarterly cash dividends together totaling $5.2 million, repurchased 366,000 shares of its common stock at a total cost, including commissions, of approximately $8.4 million, and received approximately $30.0 million in cash as certain of the Company's officers, directors and key employees exercised stock options during the first nine months of fiscal 2007.

The Company plans to fund approximately $4 million of capital expenditures during the last three months of fiscal 2007, most of which will relate to stores scheduled to open in the first quarter of fiscal 2008. The Company currently plans to open approximately 80 new stores in fiscal 2008. The Company expects its cash and short-term investments, combined with cash flows from operations, to be sufficient to meet its capital expenditure, working capital and other requirements for liquidity during the remainder of fiscal 2007 and throughout fiscal 2008.

The Company maintains an Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Facility with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (the Wells Fargo Revolver) which expires on June 30, 2008. The Wells Fargo Revolver provides the Company with revolving credit loans and letters of credit of up to $50.0 million, subject to a borrowing base formula based on inventory levels.

Loans under the Wells Fargo Revolver bear interest at Wells Fargo's floating rate, 8.25% as of November 25, 2006, plus 0.25%. Interest is payable monthly in arrears. The Wells Fargo Revolver carries a facility fee of 0.25% based on the unused portion as defined in the agreement. Facility fees totaled $3,685 for the nine months ended November 25, 2006. The credit facility is collateralized by the Company's equipment, general intangibles, inventory, inventory letters of credit and letter of credit rights. The Company had no revolving credit loan borrowings under the Wells Fargo Revolver during the first nine months of fiscal 2007. Historically, the Wells Fargo Revolver has been utilized by the Company only to open letters of credit to facilitate the import of merchandise. The borrowing base at November 25, 2006 was $42.8 million. As of November 25, 2006, the Company had outstanding letters of credit in the amount of $16.0 million. Accordingly, the availability of revolving credit loans under the Wells Fargo Revolver was $26.8 million at November 25, 2006.

The Wells Fargo Revolver contains certain restrictive covenants including restrictions on incurring additional indebtedness and limitations on certain types of investments, as well as requiring the maintenance of certain financial covenants. As of November 25, 2006, the most recent measurement date, the Company was in compliance with all covenants of the Wells Fargo Revolver.

Merchandise Sourcing

The Company directly imported approximately 77% of its total merchandise purchases during the first nine months of fiscal 2007. Substantially all of the remaining merchandise purchases were made from domestic importers. This reliance on sourcing from foreign countries may cause the Company to be exposed to certain risks. Import restrictions, including tariffs and quotas, and changes in such restrictions, could affect the import of apparel and might result in increased costs, delays in merchandise receipts or reduced supplies of apparel available to the Company, and could possibly have an adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Company's merchandise flow could also be adversely affected by political instability in any of the countries where its merchandise is manufactured or by changes in the United States' governmental policies toward such foreign countries. In addition, merchandise receipts could be delayed due to interruptions in air, ocean and ground shipments.

Substantially all of the Company's directly imported merchandise is manufactured in Southeast Asia. The majority of these goods are produced in China, Hong Kong, Indonesia and Singapore. The Company is not currently importing merchandise produced in the Middle East.

The Company purchased approximately 17% and 30% of its merchandise from its largest overseas supplier during the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and 2006, respectively. Although the Company believes that its relationship with this particular vendor is good, there can be no assurance that this relationship can be maintained in the future or that the vendor will continue to supply merchandise to the Company. If there should be any significant disruption in the supply of merchandise from this vendor, management believes that it can shift production to other suppliers so as to continue to secure the required volume of product. Nevertheless, there is some potential that any such disruption in supply could have a material adverse impact on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

Quarterly Results and Seasonality

The Company's sales reflect seasonal variation as sales in the third and fourth quarters, which include the fall and holiday seasons, generally have been higher than sales in the first and second quarters. Sales and merchandise margins generated during the fall and holiday seasons have a significant impact on the Company's annual results of operations. Quarterly results may fluctuate significantly depending on a number of factors including adverse weather conditions, shifts in the timing of certain holidays, timing of new store openings and customer response to the Company's seasonal merchandise mix.

Inflation

Although the operations of the Company are influenced by general economic conditions, the Company does not believe that inflation had a material effect on the results of operations during the quarters and nine month periods ended November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

The market risk inherent in the Company's financial instruments and in its financial position represents the potential loss arising from adverse changes in interest rates. The Company's results of operations could be negatively impacted by decreases in interest rates on its short-term investments.

The Company is potentially exposed to market risk from changes in interest rates relating to its Wells Fargo Revolver. Loans under the Wells Fargo Revolver bear interest at Wells Fargo's floating rate, 8.25% as of November 25, 2006, plus 0.25%. However, the Company had no revolving credit loan borrowings under the Wells Fargo Revolver during the first nine months of fiscal 2007 and, given its existing liquidity position, does not expect to utilize the Wells Fargo Revolver in the near future except for its continuing use of the import letter of credit facility.

All of the Company's purchase obligations and letters of credit with foreign suppliers are denominated in U.S. dollars. Therefore, the Company has only minimal exposure to foreign currency exchange risks. The Company does not hedge against foreign currency risks and believes that its foreign currency exchange risk is not significant.

The Company does not have any derivative financial instruments and does not hold any such instruments for trading purposes.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

Under the supervision and with the participation of its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the Company's management has evaluated the effectiveness and design of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information required to be included in the Company's periodic reports to the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Exchange Act is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in applicable rules and forms and (ii) accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Internal Control Over Financial Reporting.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are no material legal proceedings pending against the Company.

ITEM 1A.
RISK FACTORS

The Company's ability to open new stores as planned in fiscal 2008 is subject to various risks and uncertainties including the limited availability of sites meeting the Company's criteria, difficulties arising in lease negotiations and delays in the build-out of new stores. In addition to these risk factors, and others set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors, in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended February 25, 2006 should be carefully considered as they could materially affect the Company's business, financial condition or future results. The risks described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K are not the only risks facing the Company. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to the Company or that the Company currently deems to be immaterial may also materially adversely affect the Company's future business, financial condition and/or results of operations.
