TF FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2010 (unaudited) and December 31, 2009 and for the three month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 (unaudited) include the accounts of TF Financial Corporation (the Company) and its wholly owned subsidiaries Third Federal Bank (the Bank), TF Investments Corporation and Penns Trail Development Corporation. The Company's business is conducted principally through the Bank. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

NOTE 2 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with instructions for Form 10-Q and, therefore, do not include all of the disclosures or footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP). In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring accruals, necessary for fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements have been included. The results of operations for the period ended March 31, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results which may be expected for the entire fiscal year or any other period. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009.

NOTE 3 - CONTINGENCIES

The Company, from time to time, is a party to routine litigation that arises in the normal course of business. In the opinion of management, the resolution of this litigation, if any, would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 4 - OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Comprehensive income is the change in equity of a business enterprise during a period from transactions and other events and circumstances from non-owner sources. The components of other comprehensive income are as follows for the three months ended:

	Before tax amount	March 31, 2010 Tax (expense) (in thousands)	Net of tax amount
Unrealized gains on securities

The Company also holds stock in the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh ( FHLB ) totaling $9.9 million as of March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009. The Company is required to maintain a minimum amount of FHLB stock as determined by its borrowing levels. FHLB stock can only be repurchased by the FHLB or sold to another member, and all sales must be at par. The Company holds FHLB stock as a long term investment based on the ultimate recoverability of the par value. During the fourth quarter of 2008, the FHLB suspended the repurchase of stock and dividend payments which prompted the Company to give consideration to evaluating the potential impairment of the investment. The Company evaluates potential impairment of its investment in FHLB stock quarterly and considers the following :1) the magnitude and direction of the change in the net assets of the FHLB as compared to the capital stock amount and the duration of this condition, 2) the ability of the FHLB to make payments required by law or regulation and the level of such payments in relation to the operating performance of the FHLB, 3) the impact of regulatory changes on the FHLB and on its members, and 4) the liquidity position of the FHLB. After evaluating these factors the

Edgar Filing: TF FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q

Company has concluded that the par value of its investment in FHLB stock is recoverable and no impairment has been recorded during the three months ended March 31, 2010 or year ended December 31, 2009.

The table below indicates the length of time individual securities, both held to maturity and available for sale, have been in a continuous unrealized loss position at December 31, 2009:

Description of Securities	Number of Securities	Less than 12 months		12 months or longer		Total
		Fair Value	Unrealized Loss	Fair Value	Unrealized Loss	Fair value	Unrealized Loss

Total temporarily impaired securities	13	$ 16,919	$ (363)	$ 1,511	$ (63)	$ 18,430	$ (426)

On a quarterly basis, investment and mortgage-backed securities are evaluated to determine the presence of other-than-temporary impairment ( OTTI ). This evaluation involves consideration of the length of time and the amount, by which the fair value has been lower than amortized cost, the financial condition and credit rating of the issuer, the changes in fair value in relation to the change in market interest rates and other relevant information. The Company also evaluates its intent to hold, intent to sell or need to sell the securities in light of its investment strategy, cash flow needs, interest rate risk position, prospects for the issuer and all other relevant factors. With respect to investments in debt securities, if the Company does not intend to sell the security and concludes that it is more likely than not will not be required to sell the security before recovering the carrying value, which may be maturity, the OTTI charge is separated into the credit and other components. The other component of the OTTI is included in other comprehensive loss, net of the tax effect, and the credit component of the OTTI is included as a reduction to non-interest income in the consolidated statement of income. OTTI impairment of equity securities is recognized as a reduction to non-interest income in the consolidated statements of income.

Accordingly, the Company has performed this evaluation and has determined that the unrealized losses at March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively are not considered other-than-temporary and are therefore reflected in other comprehensive income.

NOTE 8- FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The following table presents information about the Company's assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2010. Fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. A fair value measurement hierarchy has been established for inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The fair value hierarchy levels are summarized below:

Table of Contents

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 inputs are inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable and contain assumptions of the party fair valuing the asset or liability.

Determination of the appropriate level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement for the instrument or security. Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis segregated by fair value hierarchy level are summarized below (dollars in thousands):

At March 31, 2010	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Balance as of March 31, 2010

Forward loan sales	$	$	$ 4	$ 4

Active listed equities are classified within Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. Investment securities available for sale and mortgage-backed securities available for sale are valued primarily by a third party pricing agent. U.S. Government and federal agency and corporate debt securities are primarily priced through a multi-dimensional relational model, a Level 2 hierarchy, which incorporates dealer quotes and other market information including, defined sector breakdown, benchmark yields, base spread, yield to maturity, and corporate actions. State and political subdivision securities are also valued within the Level 2 hierarchy using inputs with a series of matrices that reflect benchmark yields, ratings updates, and spread adjustments. Mortgage-backed securities include the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ( FHLMC ), Government National Mortgage Association ( GNMA ), Federal National Mortgage Association ( FNMA ) and privately issued real estate mortgage investment conduits which are valued under a Level 2 hierarchy using a matrix correlation to benchmark yields, spread analysis, and prepayment speeds.

Impaired loans are evaluated and valued at the time the loan is identified as impaired, at the lower of the recorded investment in the loan or market value. The loans identified as impaired are real estate secured. Real estate acquired through foreclosure is initially valued at the lower of the recorded investment in the loan or market value at foreclosure and subsequently adjusted for further decreases in market value, if necessary. Market value is determined by using the value of the collateral securing the loans and is therefore classified as a Level 3 hierarchy. The value of the real estate securing impaired loans and real estate acquired through foreclosure is based on appraisals prepared by qualified independent licensed appraisers contracted by the Company to perform the assessment.

The Company initially recognizes and measures servicing assets based on the fair value of the servicing right at the time the loan is sold. The Company uses the amortized cost method for subsequent measurement of its servicing assets and evaluates the recorded value for impairment quarterly. The Company retains a qualified valuation service to calculate the amortized cost and to determine the fair value of the mortgage servicing rights. The valuation service utilizes discounted cash flow analyses adjusted for prepayment speeds, market discount rates and conditions existing in the secondary servicing market. Hence, the fair value of mortgage servicing rights is deemed a Level 2 hierarchy. At March 31, 2010, the amortized cost basis of the Company's mortgage servicing rights was $821,000 and the fair value of $755,000 was included in Other Assets in the consolidated balance sheet.

The fair values of forward loan sales are determined at the time the underlying loan is identified as held for sale with changes in fair value correlated to the change in secondary market loan pricing. The value is adjusted to reflect the Company's historical loan fallout experience which incorporates such factors as changes in market rates, origination channels and loan purpose.

The following table presents additional information about assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis for which the Company has utilized Level 3 inputs to determine fair value (in thousands):

NOTE 9- FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

For the Bank, as for most financial institutions, the majority of its assets and liabilities are considered financial instruments. However, many such instruments lack an available trading market as characterized by a willing buyer and willing seller engaging in an exchange transaction. Also, it is the Company's general practice and intent to hold its financial instruments to maturity or available for sale and to not engage in trading or significant sales activities. For fair value disclosure purposes, the Company substantially utilized the fair value measurement criteria as explained in Note 8- Fair Value Measurements. Additionally, the Company used significant estimations and present value calculations to prepare this disclosure.

Changes in the assumptions or methodologies used to estimate fair values may materially affect the estimated amounts. In addition, there may not be reasonable comparability between institutions due to the wide range of permitted assumptions and methodologies in the absence of active markets. This lack of uniformity gives rise to a high degree of subjectivity in estimating financial instrument fair values.

Edgar Filing: TF FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q

Fair values have been estimated using data which management considered the best available, as generally provided by estimation methodologies deemed suitable for the pertinent category of financial instrument. The estimation methodologies, resulting fair values and recorded carrying amounts are as follows:

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents equals historical book value. The fair value of investment and mortgage backed securities is described and presented under fair value measurement guidelines as amended.

NOTE 10- STOCK BASED COMPENSATION

The Company has stock benefit plans that allow the Company to grant options and restricted stock to employees and directors. The awards, which have a term of up to 10 years when issued, vest over a three to five year period. The exercise price of each award equals the market price of the Company's stock on the date of the grant. At March 31, 2010, there was $125,800 of total unrecognized compensation cost, net of estimated forfeitures, related to non-vested awards under the Plan. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of 21.6 months. Option activity under the Company's stock option plan as of March 31, 2010 was as follows:

	Number of shares	Weighted average exercise price per share	Weighted average remaining contractual term (in years)	Aggregate intrinsic value ($ 000)

Table of Contents

The aggregate intrinsic value in the table above represents the total pre-tax intrinsic value (the difference between the Company's closing stock price on the last trading day of the first quarter and the exercise price, multiplied by the number of in-the-money options).

The aggregate intrinsic value of options exercised during the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 was $27,000 and $14,000, respectively. Exercise of stock options during the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 resulted in cash receipts of $72,000 and $101,000, respectively.

Stock-based compensation expense included in net income related to stock options was $13,000 and $14,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009 respectively, resulting in a tax benefit of $5,000 for each of the periods.

Stock-based compensation expense included in net income related to stock grants was $4,000 for both three month periods ended March 31, 2010 and 2009. Stock-based compensation expense included in net income related to the Company's employee stock ownership plan totaled $45,000 and $40,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

There was no employer contribution for the three months ended March 31, 2010 and 2009.

NOTE 12- SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued. The Company is not aware of any subsequent events which would require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

NOTE 13 ACCOUNTING STANDARDS UPDATE

In January 2010, the FASB added new requirements for disclosures of fair value measurements. The new requirements include disclosure about transfers in and out of Levels 1 and 2 and separate disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements relating to Level 3 measurements. The guidance includes new disclosures and changes to clarify existing disclosure requirements. The guidance is effective for the first reporting period (including interim periods) beginning after December 15, 2009, except for the requirement to provide Level 3 activity of purchases, sales, issuances, and settlements on a gross basis, which will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010, and for interim periods within those years. Early adoption is permitted. The required additional disclosures are contained in Note 8-Fair Value Measurements.

In February 2010, FASB amended the subsequent events disclosure guidance. The amendment includes a definition of a Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ) filer, requires an SEC filer to evaluate subsequent events through the date the financial statements are issued, and removes the requirement for an SEC filer to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated. The amendment was effective upon issuance and is included in Note 12-Subsequent Events.

TF FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL POSITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

GENERAL

The Company may from time to time make written or oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (including this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the exhibits thereto), in its reports to stockholders and in other communications by the Company, which are made in good faith by the Company pursuant to the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, such as statements of the Company's plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions that are subject to change based on various important factors (some of which are beyond the Company's control). The following factors, among others, could cause the Company's financial performance to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements: the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the local economies in which the Company conducts operations; the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, inflation, interest rate, market and monetary fluctuations; the timely development of and acceptance of new products and services of the Company and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users, including the features, pricing and quality compared to competitors' products and services; the willingness of users to substitute competitors' products and services for the Company's products and services; the success of the Company in gaining regulatory approval of its products and services, when required; the impact of changes in financial services laws and regulations (including laws concerning taxes, banking, securities and insurance); technological changes, acquisitions; changes in consumer spending and saving habits; and the success of the Company at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

The Company cautions that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. The Company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the Company.

Financial Position

The Company's total assets at March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009 were $715.9 million and $714.1 million, respectively, representing an increase of $1.9 million, or 0.3% during the three-month period. Investment securities available for sale increased $7.1 million due to purchases of municipal and federal agency bonds of $7.0 million as well as a $0.1 million increase in the fair value of the securities. Cash and cash equivalents increased by $3.5 million due to continued high deposit levels combined with decreases in mortgage-backed securities and loans as discussed herein. Mortgage-backed securities available for sale decreased by $3.4 million due to principal repayments received of $6.5 million, offset by purchases of $3.0 million, and an increase in the fair value of the securities of $0.1 million. Mortgage-backed securities held to maturity decreased by $0.1 million mainly as a result of principal repayments. Loans receivable, net decreased by $5.6 million during the first three months of 2010. Principal repayments of loans receivable totaled $20.9 million and were offset by originations of consumer and single-family residential mortgage loans of $12.3 million and commercial loans of $4.0 million. The Company increased the allowance for loan losses by $1.0 million. Loans receivable held for sale decreased by $0.2 million, mainly the net result of loans originated for sale of $6.1 million, less $6.3 million in proceeds from the sale of loans in the secondary market.

Total liabilities increased by $1.3 million during the first three months of 2010. Advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank increased by $1.5 million, the net result of an $8.0 million increase in long-term borrowings offset by scheduled amortization and maturities of $6.5 million.

Deposits grew by $0.7 million due to an increase in money market, non-interest checking and savings accounts of $8.9 million less a decrease in interest checking accounts of $1.0 million and a decrease in retail certificates of deposit of $7.2 million.

Total consolidated stockholder's equity of the Company was $72.4 million or 10.1% of total assets at March 31, 2010. During the first three months of 2010, the Company issued 5,095 shares of common stock as a result of stock option exercises. At March 31, 2010, there were approximately 102,000 shares available for repurchase under the previously announced share repurchase plan.

(1) Included in this category of non-performing loans at March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2010 are three trouble debt restructuring with combined balances of $843,000 and $844,000, respectively. There were no trouble debt restructurings at March 31, 2009.

(2) Included in this category of non-performing loans at March 31, 2010 and December 31, 2010 is one trouble debt restructuring with a loan balance of $560,000. There were no trouble debt restructurings at March 31, 2009.

(3) Loans delinquent 30-89 days are performing assets and continue to accrue interest.

Non-performing assets included a construction loan with a balance of $2.4 million, secured by a largely completed and partially occupied commercial office building, and the personal guarantee of the borrowers. At March 31, 2010, this loan was impaired and the Bank had allocated $637,000 of the allowance for loan losses equal to the difference between the loan balance plus other acquisition costs, and the fair value based upon a recent appraisal. The Bank has initiated foreclosure proceedings.

Edgar Filing: TF FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-Q

Non-performing assets also included a construction loan with a balance of $1.5 million secured by two contiguous parcels of commercial real estate and a contested first-position lien on the guarantor's personal residence. At March 31, 2010, this loan was impaired and the Bank had allocated $592,000 of the allowance for loan losses equal to the difference between the loan balance plus other acquisition costs, and the fair value based upon a recent appraisal. The Bank is in the midst of foreclosure proceedings and the borrower has filed for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

Non-performing assets included two loans with a combined balance of $5.9 million to a single borrower, secured by undeveloped commercial real estate and personal guarantees of several individuals. The borrower has informed the Bank that it will not be able to continue to make the loan payments in full. The Bank has placed these loans on non-accrual status and is negotiating with the borrower in order to resolve the matter. A recent appraisal of the property indicated an appraised value in excess of the loan balances.

Not included in non-performing assets at March 31, 2010 are four loans with a combined balance of $2.4 million to a single borrower, secured by 35 residential rental properties located in the greater Philadelphia area, and the personal guarantees of the borrowers. The borrower has experienced financial difficulties and informed the Bank that it will not be able to continue to make the loan payments in full at the present time. Only one loan with a balance of $706,000 was 89 days delinquent at March 31, 2010. However subsequent to quarter end, the Bank has placed these loans on non-accrual status and is negotiating with the borrower in order to resolve the matter.

With respect to each of the remaining non-performing loans, all of which are real estate secured, the Bank is taking appropriate steps to resolve the individual situations.

Foreclosed property at March 31, 2010 comprised three parcels of real estate with a combined carrying value of $1,150,000 that are included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet. The Bank has accepted offers to purchase two of the properties, which would result in estimated net proceeds of $1,067,000. The Bank established a valuation allowance of $145,000 against the assets by means of a charge to earnings during the first quarter of 2010.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The Bank provides valuation allowances for estimated losses from uncollectible loans. The allowance is increased by provisions charged to expense and reduced by net charge-offs. On a quarterly basis the Company prepares an allowance for loan losses (ALLL) analysis. In the analysis, the loan portfolio is segmented into groups of homogeneous loans that share similar risk characteristics: commercial real estate, commercial construction, commercial business, single family residential, and consumer which is predominately real estate secured junior liens and home equity lines of credit. Each segment is assigned reserve factors based on quantitative and qualitative measurements. In addition, the Bank reviews its internally classified loans, its loans classified for regulatory purposes, delinquent loans, and other relevant information in order to isolate loans for analysis as potentially impaired loans.

Quantitative factors include an actual expected losses factor based on historical loss experience over a relevant look-back period. Quantitative factors also include the Bank's actual risk ratings for the commercial loan segments as determined in accordance with loan review and loan grading policies and procedures, and additional factors as determined by management to be representative of additional risk due to the loan's geographic location, type, and other attributes. These quantitative factors are adjusted if necessary, up or down, based on actual experience and an evaluation of the qualitative factors.

Qualitative factors are based upon: (1) changes in lending policies and procedures, including but not limited to changes in underwriting standards and collection, charge-off, and recovery practices not considered elsewhere in estimating credit losses; (2) changes in international, national, regional, and local economic and business conditions and developments that affect the collectability of the portfolio, including the condition of various market segments; (3) changes in the nature and volume of the portfolio and in the terms of loans; (4) changes in the experience, ability, and depth of lending management and other relevant staff; (5) changes in the volume and severity of past due loans, the volume of nonaccrual loans, and the volume and severity of adversely classified or graded loans; (6) changes in the quality of the loan review system; (7) changes in the value of underlying collateral for collateral dependent loans; (8) the existence and effect of any concentration of credit, and changes in the level of such concentrations; and (9) the effect of other external factors such as competition and legal and regulatory requirements on the level of estimated credit losses in the existing loan portfolio.

Potentially impaired loans selected for individual evaluation are reviewed in accordance with US GAAP which governs the accounting for impaired assets, and consideration of regulatory guidance regarding treatment of troubled, collateral dependent loans. Each potentially impaired loan is evaluated using all available information such as recent appraisals, whether the loan is currently on accrual or non-accrual status, discounted cash flow analyses, guarantor financial strength, the value of additional collateral, and the loan's and borrower's past performance to determine whether in management's best judgment it is probable that the Bank will be unable to collect all contractual interest and principal in accordance with the loan's terms. Loans deemed impaired are generally assigned a reserve derived from the value of the underlying collateral. Loans deemed not to be impaired are assigned a reserve factor based upon the segment from which they were selected.

The ALLL needed as a result of the foregoing evaluations is compared with the unadjusted amount, and an adjustment is made by means of a provision charged to expense for loan losses. Recognizing the inherently imprecise nature of the loss estimates and the large number of assumptions needed in order to perform the analysis, the required reserve may be less than the actual level of reserves at the end of any evaluation period, and thus there may be an unallocated portion of the ALLL. Management adjusts the unallocated portion to an amount which management considers reasonable under the circumstances.

The following table sets forth the allocation of the loan loss allowance by loan category for the periods indicated (in thousands):

The following table presents, for the periods indicated, the change in interest income and interest expense (in thousands) attributed to (i) changes in volume (changes in the weighted average balance of the total interest earning asset and interest bearing liability portfolios multiplied by the prior year rate), and (ii) changes in rate (changes in rate multiplied by prior year volume). Changes attributable to the combined impact of volume and rate have been allocated proportionately based on the absolute value of changes due to volume and changes due to rate.

- (1) Tax equivalent adjustments to interest on investment securities were $136,000 and $102,000 for the quarters ended March 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. Tax equivalent interest income is based upon a marginal effective tax rate of 34%.

Total Interest Income. Total interest income, on a taxable equivalent basis, decreased by $608,000 or 6.5% to $8.8 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2010 compared with the first quarter of 2009. Interest income from loans receivable decreased by $353,000, the result of a decrease in the average balance of loans outstanding of $15.3 million, plus a decrease in the yield on loans of 11 basis points. The decrease in the yield was the result of the prepayment of higher yielding loans, and, an increase in non performing loans between the periods which reduced interest income in loans by $56,000. Also, new loans added to the portfolio during the intervening period have been at market interest rates which were lower than the overall portfolio rates. Interest income from mortgage-backed securities was lower in the first quarter of 2010 in comparison to the same period of 2009 mainly because of principal repayments of $32.4 million in excess of purchases of $13.6 million during the intervening period. Interest income from investment securities was higher as a result of purchases of $21.7 million in excess of $2.9 million in sales and maturities of investments during the intervening period.

Total Interest Expense. Total interest expense decreased by $955,000 to $2.8 million during the three-month period ended March 31, 2010 as compared with the first quarter of 2009. Although the average balance of deposits increased by $54.3 million between the two quarters, the interest rates paid on the Bank's deposits were 59 basis points lower in 2010. Interest expense associated with borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank and the Federal Reserve Bank decreased $437,000 between the first quarter of 2010 and 2009. During the intervening period, the Bank reduced its average outstanding borrowings by $75.4 million, mainly by reducing low cost short-term advances. Thus, the remaining fixed rate, term advances outstanding during the first quarter of 2010 have a higher rate than those that were combined with the short-term borrowings available through the Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank accessed in the first quarter of 2009.

Non-interest income. Total non-interest income was $616,000 for the first quarter of 2010 compared with $935,000 for the same period in 2009. Gain on sale of investment securities during the first quarter of 2009 was $190,000 while there was no such gain during the first quarter of 2010. Also, losses on foreclosed real estate totaled $145,000 in 2010 and there were no such losses in 2009.

During 2010, the gain on sale of loans held for sale decreased by $88,000 as residential loan sales activity was lower in the first quarter of 2010. Income associated with the servicing of mortgages sold increased by $56,000 in the first quarter of 2010 as the amortization of servicing rights declined and the valuation allowance was adjusted to reflect an increase in fair value during this period.

Non-interest expense. Total non-interest expense increased by $168,000 to $4.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2010 compared to the same period in 2009. FDIC insurance premiums increased by $173,000 between the two quarters due to increased deposit base, an increased assessment rate and the exhaustion of a credit the Company has been entitled to apply against the quarterly billed insurance premium. Occupancy and equipment costs increased $49,000 mainly due to higher costs associated with the Company's banking software and increased snow removal costs in the first quarter of 2010. Other operating expense included an increase in loan expense of $67,000 as appraisals, inspections and other loan costs increased. Offsetting the increase between the quarters was robbery and deposit related losses of $50,000 included in other operating expense in 2009 as there were no such losses in 2010.

Income tax expense. The Company's effective tax rate was 19.9% for the quarter ended March 31, 2010 compared to 25.3% for the quarter ended March 31, 2009. These effective tax rates are lower than the Company's marginal tax rate of 34% largely due to the tax-exempt income associated with the Company's investments in tax-exempt municipal bonds and bank-owned life insurance.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Liquidity

The Company's liquidity is a measure of its ability to fund loans, pay withdrawals of deposits, and other cash outflows in an efficient, cost-effective manner. The Company's short-term sources of liquidity include maturity, repayment and sales of assets, excess cash and cash equivalents, new deposits, broker deposits, other borrowings, and new borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank and the Federal Reserve Bank. There has been no material adverse change during the three-month period ended March 31, 2010 in the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to fund their operations.

At March 31, 2010, the Company had commitments outstanding under letters of credit of $1.2 million, commitments to originate loans of $12.6 million, and commitments to fund undisbursed balances of closed loans and unused lines of credit of $48.9 million. At March 31, 2010, the Bank had $2.4 million in outstanding commitments to sell loans. There has been no material change during the three months ended March 31, 2010 in any of the Company's other contractual obligations or commitments to make future payments.

Capital Requirements

The Bank was in compliance with all of its capital requirements as of March 31, 2010.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Certain critical accounting policies of the Company require the use of significant judgment and accounting estimates in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements and related data of the Company. These accounting estimates require management to make assumptions about matters that are highly uncertain at the time the accounting estimate is made. Management believes that the most critical accounting policy requiring the use of accounting estimates and judgment is the determination of the allowance for loan losses. If the financial position of a significant amount of debtors should deteriorate more than the Company has estimated, the present allowance for loan losses may be insufficient and additional provisions for loan losses may be required. The allowance for loan losses was approximately $6.2 million at March 31, 2010.
