Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 8, 2016, Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc. (the Company) entered into amendments extending the term of employment (i) under the Employment Agreement between the Company and Todd Taylor, the Company's Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective as of January 1, 2014, as amended (the CFO Employment Agreement) and (ii) under the Employment Agreement between the Company and Ron Morrison, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel (GC), effective as of January 1, 2014, as amended (the GC Employment Agreement).

The terms of employment under the CFO Employment Agreement and GC Employment Agreement (collectively, the Employment Agreements) previously ended on December 31, 2015. The parties to the Employment Agreements have entered into amendments whereby the terms of employment under the Employment Agreements have been extended and will expire on December 31, 2017 (the Amendments), which is the same date on which the employment agreements of each of Joseph Tomkinson, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and William Ashmore, the Company's President, also expire. In light of the termination dates of these employment agreements and to ensure a possible leadership succession seamless in nature, the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) is reviewing and discussing possible succession plans and potential successors to certain key executive positions, which may or may not include the Company's current executive officers. Specifically, the Board and Mr. Tomkinson have had discussions wherein each has indicated a desire that Mr. Tomkinson continue with the Company after the current term of his employment agreement. It is currently expected that, conditioned on each of the Board's and Mr. Tomkinson's approval, upon the expiration of his current employment agreement on December 31, 2017, Mr. Tomkinson would either continue in a lesser executive role while maintaining certain oversight functions and responsibilities or retain his current position.

Summary of Terms of Employment Agreements

The CFO Employment Agreement and the GC Employment Agreement were originally entered into on February 25, 2014 and March 11, 2014, respectively. The Employment Agreements were each effective as of January 1, 2014, and pursuant to the Amendments, will expire on December 31, 2017, unless terminated earlier, and may be extended by mutual written consent.

Under the terms of the Employment Agreements, the base salary for the CFO and the GC is $360,000 and $390,000 per year, respectively. Each are eligible to receive a bonus of up to 65%, in the case of the CFO, and up to 50%, in the case of the GC, of their respective base salary if mutually agreed upon management objectives are achieved (the Incentive Bonus). The Incentive Bonus is paid quarterly within 30 days of each calendar year quarter end. Each officer (a) may elect to defer any portion of his base salary, bonuses, or incentive compensation into an approved Company-sponsored deferred compensation plan, (b) is eligible to receive stock options, paid vacation, an automobile allowance of $500 per month, and to be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary business and entertainment expenses, (c) may participate in the Company's health and other benefit plans, and (d) may receive other benefits at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Each officer is prohibited, without approval from the Board, from receiving compensation, directly or indirectly, from any company with whom the Company or any of its affiliates has any financial, business, or affiliated relationship. Any amounts paid under the employment agreements are subject to any claw back policy that the Company is required to adopt pursuant to listing standards of any national securities exchange or as otherwise required under applicable law.

If either officer's employment is terminated (a) by the Company for cause, (b) voluntarily by the officer, (c) as a result of death, (d) by mutual agreement of the parties, or (e) because the officer is declared legally incompetent or he has a mental or physical condition that can reasonably be expected to prevent him from carrying out his essential duties for more than six months, then such officer will be entitled to receive the following:

Edgar Filing: IMPAC MORTGAGE HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K

- (i) base salary earned through the termination date;
- (ii) Incentive Bonus through the last consolidated quarter;
- (iii) any expense reimbursements due and owing for reasonable and necessary business and entertainment expenses; and
- (iv) the dollar value of accrued and unused paid time off.

If either officer is terminated (a) without cause or (b) resigns with good reason, in addition to the foregoing compensation, such officer will also receive the following severance payments:

- (i) additional payments of (A) the lesser of 12 months of base salary or the balance through the contract term, and (B) six months of base salary paid over the six-month period from the termination date, in each case to be paid after the officer executes a waiver and release agreement within 52 days of the termination date;
- (ii) 100% of the unpaid portion of earned Incentive Bonus and the prorated Incentive Bonus for the current calendar year quarter as of and paid on the termination date; and
- (iii) health insurance benefits for 12 months following the termination date.

Each officer has agreed that if he is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason, he will not compete with the Company during the 12 months after termination or the balance of the employment contract term, if shorter, provided that the agreement not to compete will be waived if the officer foregoes the severance compensation.

Termination with cause, which will be determined only by an affirmative majority vote of the Board (not including the officer if he is a director), includes (a) conviction of, or entry of plea of nolo contendere to a crime of dishonesty or a felony leading to incarceration of more than 90 days or a penalty or fine of $100,000 or more, (b) material and substantial failure by such officer to perform his duties after notice (and given a reasonable time to correct any failures, if possible), (c) willful misconduct or gross negligence that causes material harm, or (d) material breach of the terms of the employment agreement or any other obligation.

Good reason includes (a) material changes to such officer's duties without his prior written consent, (b) relocation, without his prior written consent, of the place of principal performance of his responsibilities and duties to a location more than 65 miles away, (c) a material breach by the Company of the terms of the employment agreement, including a material reduction in base salary, without such officer's consent, or (d) failure by the Company to obtain from any acquirer of the Company an agreement to assume the employment agreement prior to an acquisition. Each officer may terminate his employment for good reason upon providing the Company at least 90 days prior written notice and the Company has a reasonable time to cure any event constituting good reason.

The Employment Agreements will not be terminated by merger, an acquisition by another entity, or by transferring of all or substantially all of the Company's assets. In the event of any such change of control, the surviving entity or transferee would be bound by the employment agreements.

The foregoing summary of the material terms of the Employment Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendments which are included as Exhibit 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2 hereto and incorporated by reference herein and to the terms of the Employment Agreements.
