Promotion of Stephen C. Young

Stephen C. Young, currently the Company's Vice President of Operations, has been promoted to serve as 21st Century Holding Company's (the "Company") President effective June 1, 2007. Mr. Edward J. Lawson, who has served as the Company's President since its inception will remain as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board and will provide support to Mr. Young in the transition of duties.

Mr. Young (age 32) has served as Vice President of Operations of the Company since the middle of 2006 and President of Federated Premium Finance, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, since January 1998. Mr. Young will maintain the latter position, as well as assuming the new duties as the Company's President. There are no related party transactions between the Company and Mr. Young.

The agreements that will be in force between the Company and Mr. Young effective June 1, 2007 will be an Employment Agreement and an Indemnification Agreement. These agreements have not yet been approved or executed by the parties.

Mr. Young currently owns options to purchase 500 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $16.00, vesting 20% per year and expiring December 5, 2011. Additional stock option grants may be awarded to Mr. Young at the authorization of the Compensation Committee.
