ITEM 1. Security and Issuer

Common stock of Scott's Liquid Gold-Inc. ("the company"), 4880 Havana Street, Denver, CO 80239.

ITEM 2. Identity and Background

The reporting person, Timothy J. Stabosz, 1307 Monroe Street, LaPorte, IN 46350, a natural person and United States citizen, is engaged as a private investor. He has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or other similar misdemeanors) in the last 5 years, and has not been a party to any proceedings, or subject to any judgements, enjoined, decrees, et al., related to violations of state or federal securities laws, in his lifetime.

ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Personal funds in the aggregate amount of $141,314.78 have been used to effect the purchases. No part of the purchase price represents borrowed funds.

ITEM 4. Purpose of Transaction

The reporting person believes he is the largest outside shareholder of Scott's Liquid Gold. He has acquired the shares for investment purposes.

Under the current CEO, Mr. Goldstein, who ascended to the top executive position in August of 1990, sales of the signature Scott's Liquid Gold household product line have been thoroughly decimated, peaking at $22.5 million in 1992, and plunging to $4.9 million in 2012...a staggering 78% decline. (Adjusted for inflation, as measured by the CPI, the decline is a mind numbing 87%.) Mr. Goldstein has, by any honest measure, ravaged and destroyed the company's namesake, 60 year old brand...with no chagrin or accountability. Moreover, a do-nothing board, subjugated to Mr. Goldstein's will, has, astonishingly, looked the other way, allowing Goldstein to continue to "cannibalize" the company, for the sake of the founding family scion's $400K annual employment sinecure. The reporting person believes the board has breached its fiduciary responsibility, by making Mark Goldstein's continued employment as CEO a "given," merely because the board is too timid and cowardly to "hurt Mr. Goldstein's feelings," and because the board's primary loyalty, collectively, is to the Goldstein family. The board has, therefore, countenanced the virtual destruction of a once great brand, hiding behind the "business judgement rule," and facilitating the maintenance of Mr. Goldstein's outrageous 22 year record of wanton value destruction, incompetence, nepotism, cronyism, and self-entrenchment.

Because of the above, the reporting person has made a number of proposals, as indicated in his previous 13D filings. He has asked the company to put itself up for sale. He has asked the company to make a broad-based tender offer to all of the shareholders, at 50 cents per share, that want a "divorce" from Mr. Goldstein's imperious control of SLGD. He has offered to buy out Mr. Goldstein's interest at 50 cents a share. And he has demanded that, if the board insists on continuing to kowtow to Mr. Goldstein and keep him in charge, that the board require Goldstein to raise the capital to take the company private, at a fair price.

The reporting person intends to review his investment in the company on a continual basis and engage in discussions with management and the Board of Directors concerning the governance, business, operations, and future plans of the company. Depending on various factors, including, without limitation, the company's financial position and investment strategy, the price levels of the common stock, conditions in the securities markets, and general economic and industry conditions, the reporting person may, in the future, take such actions with respect to his investment in the company as he deems appropriate including, without limitation, communicating with other stockholders, seeking Board representation, making proposals to the company concerning the capitalization and operations of the issuer, purchasing additional shares of common stock or selling some or all of his shares, or changing his intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4.

Other than as indicated in this and previous 13D filings, the reporting person has no plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any matters referred to in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

ITEM 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As of the close of business on June 14, 2013, the reporting person has sole voting and dispositive power over 616,662 shares of Scott's Liquid Gold, Inc.'s common stock. According to the company's 1st quarter 2013 Form 10-Q, as of May 13, 2013 there were 11,201,622 common shares outstanding. The reporting person is therefore deemed to own 5.5% of the company's common stock. Transactions effected by the reporting person, since the previous 13D Amendment #5, were performed in ordinary brokerage transactions, and are indicated as follows:

06/14/13 sold 190,000 shares @ $.45

ITEM 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

None

ITEM 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits

None
