Edgar Filing: TRI-CONTINENTAL CORP - Form DEFA14A

Tri-Continental Corporation

an investment you can live with

August 26, 2008

Dear Tri-Continental Stockholder:

Enclosed is a proxy statement seeking your vote to approve a new Investment Management Services Agreement ("Advisory Agreement") between Tri-Continental Corporation and RiverSource Investments, LLC ("RiverSource") and to elect ten new directors. The proxy statement contains important information, and we urge you to read it carefully.

This proxy statement is being sent, and your vote requested, because J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated ("Seligman"), Tri-Continental's manager, has agreed to be acquired by RiverSource in a transaction that is likely to close in the fourth quarter of 2008. Consummation of the acquisition of Seligman will result in an assignment and automatic termination of Tri-Continental's current management agreement with Seligman. Tri-Continental's Board of Directors approved the Advisory Agreement as being in the best interests of Tri-Continental, and recommended it to stockholders for their approval, after careful consideration.

A certain group of stockholders (the "Group") declared their intent to vote against the approval of the Advisory Agreement and to solicit other stockholders to vote against approval. Given the holdings of these stockholders and the voting patterns in previous proxy contests, the Board believed that it would be very difficult, if not impossible, for Tri-Continental to obtain approval of the Advisory Agreement absent the agreement of these stockholders.

Tri-Continental and the Group entered into a settlement agreement on August 19, 2008 under which the Group agreed to vote in accordance with your Board's recommendations to approve the Advisory Agreement and to elect ten new directors. Tri-Continental agreed that following the acquisition of Seligman by RiverSource, and subject to certain conditions, it would conduct two tender offers provided that the Advisory Agreement is approved by stockholders at the upcoming special meeting. The terms of the agreement, including the terms of the proposed tender offers, are summarized in the enclosed proxy statement on pages 10 and 11.

This agreement meets a number of important goals: First, in recognition of the strong preference of many long-term stockholders, Tri-Continental would continue to operate as a closed-end fund, as it has since 1929; Second, Tri Continental's investment objective would remain unchanged; and Third, the Group and other stockholders would be provided with an opportunity to reduce or eliminate their holdings at a small discount to net asset value, although the first tender offer will not be attractive to most individual stockholders for the reasons discussed in the proxy statement.

There will be no obligation to participate in either tender offer. If no action is taken on your part, the number of shares you own of Tri-Continental will remain unchanged. The terms and conditions of the tender offers will be described in the tender offer documents.

Stockholders have repeatedly indicated their support for Tri-Continental's closed-end structure. The Board believes that the closed-end structure of Tri-Continental will be maintained as a result of the measures described above and in the enclosed proxy statement.

Sincerely,

The tender offers referred to herein, if made, will be made only by the Offers to Repurchase and related Letters of Transmittal. Stockholders should read these documents carefully when they become available, free of charge, at the website of the Securities and Exchange Commission (www.sec.gov). The Offers to Repurchase will not be made to, nor will tenders be accepted from or on behalf of, holders of shares in any jurisdiction in which making or accepting the Offers to Repurchase would violate that jurisdiction's laws.
