Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Automotive Finance Corporation (AFC), a subsidiary of KAR Holdings, Inc. (KAR Holdings), sells the majority of its U.S. dollar denominated finance receivables and related rights on a daily basis and without recourse to AFC Funding Corporation, a wholly owned, bankruptcy remote, consolidated, special purpose subsidiary (AFC Funding). AFC and AFC Funding are parties to that certain Third Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement, dated as of April 20, 2007, by and among AFC, AFC Funding, Fairway Finance Company, LLC (Fairway Finance), Monterey Funding LLC (Monterey Funding), Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch and BMO Capital Markets Corp. (as amended, the Receivables Purchase Agreement), pursuant to which AFC Funding sells an undivided ownership interest in the receivables and related rights it purchases from AFC to Fairway Finance and Monterey Funding (collectively, the Purchasers). On January 30, 2009, AFC and AFC Funding entered into an amendment to the Receivables Purchase Agreement with the other parties named therein (the RPA Amendment).

The following provides a brief description of the terms and conditions of the RPA Amendment that are material to KAR Holdings. Certain of the provisions described below are subject to an order from the Securities and Exchange Commission granting confidential treatment to certain of the information amended by the RPA Amendment.

The aggregate maximum commitment of the Purchasers was reduced from $600 million to $450 million;

The calculation of the Purchasers' participation was amended, reducing the amount received by AFC Funding upon the sale of an interest in the receivables to the Purchasers; and Certain of the covenants in the Receivables Purchase Agreement that are tied to the performance of the finance receivables portfolio were modified.

The overall economy and in particular the automotive and automotive finance industries have and continue to face severe pressures. Over the last several months, AFC has implemented a number of strategic initiatives designed to tighten credit standards and reduce risk and exposure in its portfolio of finance receivables. As a result of these initiatives along with the current market conditions, the size of AFC's managed portfolio of finance receivables has decreased significantly over the past year from $847.9 million at December 31, 2007 to $506.6 million at December 31, 2008. AFC's utilization of the committed liquidity under the Receivables Purchase Agreement has decreased accordingly.

Undivided interests in finance receivables totaling $298.0 million and $522.0 million were sold by AFC Funding to the Purchasers at December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively. As of January 30, 2009, undivided interests in finance receivables sold by AFC Funding to the bank conduit facility decreased further to $251.0 million. AFC believes the current aggregate maximum commitment of the Purchasers totaling $450 million will be adequate to meet its lending requirements until April 20, 2012, the expiration date of the bank conduit facility.

Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch, BMO Capital Markets Corp. and their respective affiliates have from time to time provided financial and other services to KAR Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries and affiliates, for which they received customary compensation.

The above description of the RPA Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the RPA Amendment, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to KAR Holdings, Inc.'s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2008.
