SUBJECT: Spartan Stores and Nash Finch sign definitive agreement

DATE: July 22, 2013

Just moments ago, we announced that Spartan Stores has agreed to combine with Nash Finch to create one of the leading grocery wholesale and retail operators in the U.S. A copy of the news release is provided for your reference.

This is an exciting combination bringing together two highly complementary companies with industry leading distribution services and strong retail banners which we believe will provide significant long term benefits to all of our stakeholders, our associates, our independent customers, our consumers, and our shareholders. As a combined company we will have the enhanced ability to leverage our size and geographic reach to enable us to compete effectively in the evolving grocery industry.

For those of you who are not familiar with Nash Finch, it is a Fortune 500 company and the largest food distributor serving military commissaries and exchanges in the United States. Nash Finch's core businesses include distributing food to military commissaries and exchanges and independent grocery retailers located in 37 states, the District of Columbia, Europe, Cuba, Puerto Rico, the Azores, Bahrain and Egypt. The Company also owns and operates a base of retail stores, primarily supermarkets under the Family Fresh Market®, Econofoods®, Family Thrift Center®, No Frills®, Bag 'n Save®, AVANZA®, and Sun Mart® trade names. Importantly, like Spartan, Nash Finch has a strong heritage and passion for integrity, teamwork, innovation and dedication to the customers we serve.

As the news release states, I will serve as President and CEO of the combined company, Craig Sturken will serve as chairman of the Board of Directors, and Nash Finch's President and CEO Alec Covington will remain in an advisory role to help ensure a smooth transition. The combined company's Board of Directors will be made up of current board members from each organization.

Following the completion of the merger, the combined company will retain a presence in Grand Rapids and Minneapolis, and Nash Finch's military business will continue to be based in Norfolk, Virginia. We will also maintain a comprehensive portfolio of strong private label brands including Spartan's private brands and Nash Finch's private brands.

The next step in the process is regulatory review and shareholder approval. While there is no defined timetable in place, completion of the merger could occur by the end of calendar year 2013. Until closing, our two companies will continue to operate as independent entities, and for us, it is business as usual. It is important that we continue to do everything to ensure that our customers remain our number one priority.

I'm sure many of you will have questions over the coming days and weeks, and while we may not be able to answer all of them right now, we will do our best to keep you informed as we move through the process.

Edgar Filing: SPARTAN STORES INC - Form 425

Today's announcement represents a significant opportunity for our company – an opportunity that would not be possible without all of your hard work. While there's still much to be done before the merger is completed, I know I can count on you to maintain focus and continue to deliver on our commitments to our customers.
