Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosures.

In connection with the private offering described below, Navistar International Corporation (the Company) disclosed the following information:

In September, 2013, the Company secured nearly 5,900 Class 6-8 truck orders, making it the Company's highest order receipt month since December 2011. The Company's orders for the month include more than 2,100 Class 6/7 trucks with the Cummins ISB 6.7 liter engine. Navistar Class 6/7 order share is estimated at 31.7 percent for September, up from 18.8 percent in August. For Class 8, order share is an estimated 17.4 percent for September, up from 16.6 percent in August. The Company has received more than 11,500 orders for Cummins ISX engines since December 1, 2012, and more than 6,000 orders for MaxxForce 13 engines with SCR since March 1, 2013.

Navistar Financial Corporation will incur approximately $200 million of third-party borrowings to fund in part an intercompany loan to a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Company of $270 million.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 7, 2013, the Company, issued a press release announcing the Company's proposed private offering of approximately $200 million principal amount of senior subordinated convertible notes due 2018 pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

This report shall not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, these securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction. Any offer of the convertible notes will be made only by means of a private offering memorandum.

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Information provided and statements contained in this report that are not purely historical fact are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including those regarding the proposed offering of the securities and the anticipated use of proceeds therefrom. Such forward-looking statements only speak as of the date of this report and the company assumes no obligation to update the information included in this report. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of the company's business strategy. These statements often include words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, plan, estimate, or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of performance or results and they involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. For a further description of these factors, see the risk factors set forth in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2012 and quarterly reports for fiscal 2013. Although the company believes that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are many factors that could affect actual financial results or results of operations and could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. All future written and oral forward-looking statements by the company or persons acting on its behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to above. Except for its ongoing obligations to disclose material information as required by the federal securities laws, the company does not have any obligations or intention to release publicly any revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances in the future or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
