Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

In connection with the solicitation by Alere Inc. (the "Company") of consents from the holders of its outstanding 7.250% Senior Notes due 2018, its 8.625% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2018 and its 6.500% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2020 that will, among other things, permit the Company to proceed with its previously announced transaction involving BBI Diagnostics Group Plc ("BBI Diagnostics"), the Company is making available the following information.

The Company expects that, based on its current plans to sell a 25% interest in BBI Diagnostics, the estimated proceeds of the sale of ordinary shares of BBI Diagnostics, the £60 million of estimated gross proceeds from a new credit facility for BBI Diagnostics and the Company's existing cash and cash equivalents, after deducting estimated underwriting commissions and transaction expenses (including fees and expenses expected to be incurred in connection with the amendment of the Company's secured credit facility and the solicitation of consents from holders of the Company's senior notes and senior subordinated notes) and estimated taxes arising from the foregoing transactions (including the transfer to BBI Diagnostics of its previously disclosed constituent businesses), and after giving effect to the translation of foreign currencies at estimated exchange rates, the Company would repay indebtedness outstanding under its senior secured credit facilities in the amount of approximately $200 million. The Company currently expects that it would use the first $100 million of such amount to pay down term loans thereunder, the next $70 million to pay down any revolving credit loans thereunder and any remaining amount to pay down further term loans thereunder. This estimate is based in relevant part on the mid-point of the currently anticipated price range of shares to be sold and the mid-point of the range of the Company's cash and cash equivalents that may be used. The actual price could be above or below that range and the amounts of indebtedness to be repaid could change based on the actual price and amount of cash used.

BBI Diagnostics generated revenue of £19.3 million and £17.3 million for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2014, respectively. BBI Diagnostics' total assets as of March 31, 2014 were approximately $575 million, including approximately $215 million of goodwill and $170 million of acquired intangible assets, with goodwill allocable to BBI Diagnostics under GAAP subject to finalization. Included in profit for the period and Adjusted EBITDA for the years ended December 31, 2011, 2012 and 2013 and March 31, 2014 and the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2014 were profits from BBI Diagnostics' investment in SPD Swiss Precision Diagnostics GmbH and US CD LLC (which are joint ventures with affiliates of The Procter & Gamble Company) of £3.5 million, £6.0 million, £10.5 million, £9.9 million, £2.5 million and £1.9 million, respectively.

Adjusted EBITDA and Alere Adjusted EBITDA are not standard financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP or IFRS, as they exclude amounts required by GAAP and IFRS to be reflected in net income or profit for the period, respectively. They should not be considered as alternatives to net income or profit for the period under GAAP and IFRS, respectively, or as indicators of operating performance or any measure of performance derived in accordance with GAAP or IFRS. In addition, all companies do not calculate non-GAAP or non-IFRS financial measures in the same manner and, accordingly, Adjusted EBITDA and Alere Adjusted EBITDA presented in this report may not be comparable to similarly named measures used by other companies. The Company is presenting this information to holders of its senior notes and senior subordinated notes because it believes these measures are commonly used by holders of such notes to evaluate an issuer's ability to meet its financial obligations.

This report contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. For example, forward-looking statements include statements regarding the previously announced transaction involving BBI Diagnostics, the reorganization to create BBI Diagnostics, the anticipated BBI Diagnostics debt facility, the amount and use of proceeds of the transaction and the BBI Diagnostics debt facility, the estimated amount of fees, expenses and taxes and the estimated effects of foreign currency translation. The actual results achieved could differ materially from the statements made in this report. Factors that might cause these differences include, but are not limited to, conditions in the UK and global equity and debt markets, adverse changes in the BBI Diagnostics business (such as the loss of a significant customer, regulatory issues or supply problems), adverse reaction to the proposed transaction from customers, suppliers or others, the extent and duration of regulatory review, the need for consents to the proposed transaction from its lenders, holders of its notes and other third parties, changes in the Company's assessment of the tax consequences of the transaction, and unanticipated legal or other obstacles to the transaction. Any of these factors could reduce the price range of the shares to be sold or the amount of debt to be raised by BBI Diagnostics and could reduce the net proceeds anticipated to be received by the Company. The Company does not assume any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect new information and developments.
