Items 1 through 9; Item 11.

In the Summary Term Sheet the second paragraph under the question Have you discussed this Offer with Gentiva? is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

On June 30, 2014, Gentiva issued a press release and filed a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 with the SEC in connection with the Original Offer, announcing the recommendation of the board of directors of Gentiva (the Gentiva Board) that holders of Shares reject the Original Offer and not tender any of their Shares pursuant to the Original Offer. On July 17, 2014, Gentiva announced that the Gentiva Board had determined to recommend that holders of Shares reject the Amended Offer and not tender their Shares pursuant to the Amended Offer. Gentiva also announced that the Gentiva Board had received on July 17, 2014 a proposal from a recognized owner, operator and investor in the sector to acquire all of the outstanding Shares for $17.25 per share in cash (the Alternative Proposal). Gentiva indicated that the Gentiva Board would review this Alternative Proposal, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, in due course. See The Offer Section 11 Background of the Offer; Other Transactions with Gentiva.

The Offer Section 11 Background of the Offer; Other Transactions with Gentiva is hereby amended by inserting the following before the caption Other Transactions with Gentiva :

On July 14, 2014, Gentiva issued a press release and amended its Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 with the SEC, urging holders of Shares to take no action in response to the Amended Offer.

On July 17, 2014, Gentiva announced that the Gentiva Board had determined to recommend that holders of Shares reject the Amended Offer and not tender their Shares pursuant to the Amended Offer. Gentiva also announced that the Gentiva Board had received on July 17, 2014 a proposal from a recognized owner, operator and investor in the sector to acquire all of the outstanding Shares for $17.25 per share in cash (the Alternative Proposal), which was based on publicly available information and subject to financing and due diligence, as well as final internal approvals and the execution of a definitive transaction agreement. Gentiva indicated that the Gentiva Board would review this Alternative Proposal, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, in due course.

Following Gentiva's announcement, representatives of Kindred's financial advisors contacted representatives of Gentiva's financial advisors to seek to understand what steps, if any, Gentiva was considering taking with respect to the Alternative Proposal and with respect to Kindred's continued interest in pursuing an acquisition of Gentiva.

Gentiva's financial advisors indicated that Gentiva was likely to engage in discussions with and provide confidential information to the party that had made the Alternative Proposal, subject to that party entering into an acceptable confidentiality and standstill agreement. They further advised that Gentiva likely would be prepared to engage in discussions with and provide confidential information to Kindred on a basis similar to the engagement with the other party if Kindred would submit an updated proposal to the Gentiva Board to acquire all of the Shares for at least $17.25 per Share and indicate a willingness to enter into a confidentiality and standstill agreement. No confidential information regarding Gentiva has been provided to Kindred or its financial advisors in the course of these discussions.

Dear Rod and Tony:

I am writing following the recent discussions among our respective financial advisors in response to the press release issued by Gentiva on July 17, 2014, which stated that an unnamed party has submitted a proposal to acquire the company for $17.25 per share in cash, subject to financing, due diligence, internal approvals and other conditions.

As you know, for the last several months we have sought to engage with Gentiva in order to negotiate mutually acceptable transaction terms for Kindred to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Gentiva.

We have indicated our willingness to structure a transaction so that Gentiva shareholders can receive all cash or a mix of cash and stock, which would allow them to participate in the combined company's substantial upside potential.

Additionally, we have been clear that we are willing to consider further increasing our offer if you engage in good faith and permit us to conduct due diligence. Specifically, we confirm that Kindred would be prepared to enter into a negotiated agreement to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Gentiva for $17.25 per share, provided that we are permitted to conduct diligence to confirm such additional value is warranted.

As requested by your financial advisors, we also confirm that Kindred is willing to enter into appropriate confidentiality and standstill agreements, in order to facilitate discussions to combine our two companies.

This letter is not intended to create or constitute any legally binding obligation, liability or commitment by us regarding a transaction or any other matter. There will be no legally binding agreement between us regarding a transaction unless and until a definitive agreement is executed.

We look forward to combining our two businesses and pursuing what we think is an incredibly compelling opportunity for our collective shareholder groups, patients and employees.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Yours truly,

Paul J. Diaz
