(e) CONMED Corporation (the Company) has entered into retention letter agreements (the Retention Letters) with certain members of the Company's senior management, including its named executive officers (other than Mr. Hartman and Mr. Darling). The Retention Letters provide for a cash bonus in the amount of the executive's annual base salary, payable on June 30, 2015, subject to the executive's continued employment with the Company through that date or earlier termination of employment by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason (as each term is defined in the Retention Letters). In the event of the executive's termination due to death or disability (as defined in the Retention Letters) prior to June 30, 2015, such bonus becomes payable, and is subject to proration. The Retention Letters also provide, in the event of an employment termination by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason, in either case prior to June 30, 2016, for a special severance payment equal to one and one-half times the sum of the executive's annual base salary plus target annual bonus, and for accelerated vesting of outstanding equity awards (other than stock appreciation rights granted in 2014, which will be cancelled upon such termination), subject in each case to a release of claims in favor of the Company. In addition, as a condition to eligibility for benefits thereunder, the Retention Letters provide that each covered executive thereby waives any claim that a change in control has occurred or may occur in the future under the Company's equity compensation plans and such executive's respective Change in Control Severance Agreement with the Company relating (in any way) to the changes in the Company's Board of Directors in 2014.

The above description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Form of Retention Letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
