Cypress and Spansion Announce Effectiveness of SEC Registration Statement and

Approval from the Japan Fair Trade Commission

Companies Schedule Respective Shareholder Meetings for March 12, 2015

SUNNYVALE, Calif. and SAN JOSE, Calif., February 9, 2015 Cypress Semiconductor Corp. (NASDAQ: CY) and Spansion Inc. (NYSE: CODE) announced today that the registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ) by Cypress on December 19, 2014, and as subsequently amended, which includes a joint proxy statement/prospectus of Cypress and Spansion, was declared effective by the SEC on February 5, 2015.

The companies also announced that the Japan Fair Trade Commission has granted clearance of their proposed merger. With this clearance from Japan, all requisite antitrust government approvals have been received, including from Germany and the United States as previously announced.

Cypress and Spansion have each scheduled special shareholder meetings for March 12, 2015, in order to seek shareholder approval of the proposed merger. Cypress' s special meeting of shareholders will be held at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Standard Time at Cypress headquarters, located at 198 Champion Court in San Jose, California. Spansion' s special meeting of shareholders will be held at 8:00 a.m. Pacific Standard Time at 915 DeGuigne Drive, MS 176, Sunnyvale, California. Each company' s shareholders of record at the close of business on February 5, 2015, will be entitled to vote at their respective meetings.

On February 6, 2015, Cypress filed a revised joint proxy statement/prospectus pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in order to make available the document that will be mailed to the shareholders of each of Cypress and Spansion in connection with the respective special meetings. The joint proxy statement/prospectus is available through the SEC's website at www.sec.gov and via Cypress's IR website and Spansion's IR website. Cypress and Spansion will begin mailing the joint proxy statement/prospectus to their respective shareholders to provide additional information and instructions for voting by February 10, 2015.

We are pleased to have passed these milestones in the process of closing our merger with Spansion, said T.J. Rodgers, Cypress President and CEO. Our teams have been working diligently to complete the regulatory process quickly. With final approval at the shareholder meetings, and with all closing conditions satisfied, we will be in a position to close the merger in time to include Spansion shareholders in the distribution of our next quarterly dividend.

The closing of the merger remains subject to approval by Cypress and Spansion shareholders. As previously announced, the merger agreement was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both companies, and Cypress and Spansion expect the deal to close promptly after the shareholder approval.

On December 1, 2014, Cypress and Spansion entered into a definitive agreement to merge in an all-stock, tax-free transaction valued at approximately $4 billion. The post-merger company will generate more than $2 billion in revenue annually and create a leading global provider of microcontrollers and specialized memories needed in today's embedded systems. Under the terms of the agreement, Spansion shareholders will receive 2.457 Cypress shares for each Spansion share they own. The shareholders of each company will own approximately 50 percent of the post-merger company.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including with respect to the anticipated timing, completion and effects of the proposed merger between Cypress and Spansion. These statements are based on management's current expectations and beliefs, and are subject to a number of factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may contain words such as will be, will, expected, anticipate, continue, or similar expressions, and include the assumptions that underlie such statements. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements: failure of the Cypress or Spansion shareholders to approve the proposed merger; failure to achieve regulatory approval; the challenges and costs of closing, integrating, restructuring and achieving anticipated synergies; the ability to retain key employees, customers and suppliers; and other factors, including those set forth in the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by Cypress with respect to the proposed merger, and the most current Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and 8-K reports filed by Cypress and Spansion, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). All forward-looking statements are based on management's estimates, projections and assumptions as of the date hereof, and Cypress and Spansion are under no obligation (and expressly disclaim any such obligation) to update or revise their forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

No Offer or Solicitation

This communication does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval with respect to the proposed merger or otherwise. No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
