LNB Bancorp, Inc. is holding a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on the proposals necessary to complete the merger between LNB Bancorp, Inc. and Northwest Bancshares, Inc. If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is subsequently completed, LNB Bancorp, Inc. will merge with and into Northwest Bancshares, Inc. LNB Bancorp, Inc.'s separate corporate existence will cease and Northwest Bancshares, Inc. will continue as the surviving corporation.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding share of LNB Bancorp, Inc. common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. common stock, $18.70 in cash, or a mix of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. common stock and cash, subject to certain agreed adjustment and allocation procedures that will result in 50% of LNB Bancorp's common stock being converted into Northwest Bancshares, Inc. common stock and 50% of LNB Bancorp's common stock being converted into cash. For more information, see Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Consideration to be Received in the Merger.

On December 15, 2014, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed merger, the closing price of Northwest Bancshares, Inc.'s common stock was $12.35, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $18.04 per share. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the merger, an LNB Bancorp, Inc. shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $18.37 per share. As of _____, 2015, the most reasonably practicable date prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the closing price of Northwest Bancshares, Inc.'s common stock was $ _____, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $ _____ per share. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the merger, an LNB Bancorp, Inc. shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $ _____ per share.

The maximum number of shares of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. common stock estimated to be issuable upon completion of the merger is _____. Following the completion of the merger, former LNB Bancorp, Inc. shareholders will hold approximately _____% of Northwest Bancshares, Inc.'s common stock.

Your board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the merger are in the best interests of LNB Bancorp, Inc. and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, and FOR the advisory, non-binding proposal to approve the merger-related executive compensation to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers. The merger cannot be completed unless holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of LNB Bancorp, Inc. vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger, FOR the advisory, non-binding proposal to approve merger-related executive compensation to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers and FOR the approval of an adjournment of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the approve the merger-related executive compensation to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers. If you fail to vote, or you do not instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in street name, it will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger agreement and the merger, but it will have no effect on the advisory, non-binding proposal to approve merger-related executive compensation to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers or on the proposal to approve an adjournment of the special meeting.

The accompanying document is being delivered to LNB Bancorp, Inc. shareholders as Northwest Bancshares, Inc.'s prospectus for its offering of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. common stock in connection with the merger, and as a proxy statement for the solicitation of proxies from LNB Bancorp, Inc. shareholders to vote for the approval of the merger agreement and the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the Merger and the special meeting. We urge you to read carefully the remainder of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus because the information in this section may not provide all the information that might be important to you in determining how to vote. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference in, this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

GENERAL QUESTIONS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: WHY AM I RECEIVING THIS DOCUMENT?

A. Northwest Bancshares, Inc. (Northwest Bancshares) and LNB Bancorp, Inc. (LNB Bancorp) have agreed to merge under the terms of a Merger Agreement by and between Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp, dated as of December 15, 2014 (the Merger Agreement), that is described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Appendix A. In order to complete the Merger of LNB Bancorp into Northwest Bancshares (the Merger), the shareholders of LNB Bancorp must vote to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and the Merger. LNB Bancorp will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus contains important information about the Merger, the Merger Agreement, the special meeting, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully.

Q: WHO IS BEING ASKED TO APPROVE THE MERGER?

A: LNB Bancorp shareholders are being asked to vote to approve the Merger. Under Ohio law, which governs mergers involving LNB Bancorp, the Merger cannot be completed unless LNB Bancorp shareholders vote to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger. By this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, LNB Bancorp's board of directors is soliciting proxies from LNB Bancorp's shareholders to obtain this approval at the special meeting of LNB Bancorp shareholders discussed below.

Q: WHAT WILL LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS RECEIVE IN THE MERGER?

A: If the Merger proposal is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of LNB Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive either:

1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares; or $18.70 in cash, without interest.

The above consideration is subject to an allocation process that requires 50% of LNB Bancorp's shares of common stock to be exchanged for cash and 50% of LNB Bancorp's common stock to be converted into Northwest Bancshares common stock. Accordingly, allocations of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash that you receive will depend on the elections made by other LNB Bancorp shareholders.

On December 15, 2014, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, Northwest Bancshares' common stock price was $12.35, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $18.04 per share. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $18.37 per share. As of _____, 2015, the most reasonably practicable date prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Northwest Bancshares' common stock price was $ _____, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $ _____. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $ _____ per share.

For more information, see Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Consideration to be Received in the Merger.

Q: HOW DOES THE ALLOCATION PROCESS WORK?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, LNB Bancorp shareholders may elect to convert their shares into cash, Northwest Bancshares common stock or a mixture of cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock. All elections are further subject to the allocation and proration procedures described in the Merger Agreement, which provide that the number of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock to be converted into Northwest Bancshares common stock must equal 50% of the total number of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger and that the number of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock to be converted into cash in the Merger must equal 50% of the total number of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger. Neither Northwest Bancshares nor LNB Bancorp makes any recommendation as to whether LNB Bancorp shareholders should elect to receive cash, Northwest Bancshares common stock or a mixture of cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock in the Merger. Each holder of LNB Bancorp common stock must make his or her own decision with respect to such election.

It is unlikely that elections will be made in the exact proportions provided for in the Merger Agreement. As a result, the Merger Agreement describes procedures to be followed if LNB Bancorp shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive more or less of the Northwest Bancshares common stock than Northwest Bancshares has agreed to issue. These procedures are summarized below.

If Stock Is Oversubscribed: If LNB Bancorp shareholders elect to receive more Northwest Bancshares common stock than Northwest Bancshares has agreed to issue in the Merger, then all LNB Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive cash or who have made no election will receive cash for their LNB Bancorp shares and all shareholders who elected to receive Northwest Bancshares common stock will receive a pro rata portion of the available Northwest Bancshares shares plus cash for those shares not converted into Northwest Bancshares common stock.

If Stock Is Undersubscribed: If LNB Bancorp shareholders elect to receive fewer shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock than Northwest Bancshares has agreed to issue in the Merger, then all LNB Bancorp shareholders who have elected to receive Northwest Bancshares common stock will receive Northwest Bancshares common stock and those shareholders who elected to receive cash or who have made no election will be treated in the following manner:

If the number of shares held by LNB Bancorp shareholders who have made no election is sufficient to make up the shortfall in the number of shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock that Northwest Bancshares is required to issue, then all LNB Bancorp shareholders who elected cash will receive cash, and those shareholders who made no election will receive both cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock in such proportion as is necessary to make up the shortfall.

If the number of shares held by LNB Bancorp shareholders who have made no election is insufficient to make up the shortfall, then all LNB Bancorp shareholders who made no election will receive Northwest Bancshares common stock and those LNB Bancorp shareholders who elected to receive cash will receive cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock in such proportion as is necessary to make up the shortfall.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amounts of cash and/or stock you elect. As a result of the allocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this document and the Merger Agreement, you may receive Northwest Bancshares common stock or cash in amounts that vary from the amounts you elect to receive.

Q: WHAT ARE THE MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS?

A: Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp have received a legal opinion that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, the federal tax consequences of the Merger to an LNB Bancorp shareholder will depend primarily on whether a shareholder exchanges the shareholder's LNB Bancorp common stock solely for Northwest Bancshares common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares solely for Northwest Bancshares common stock should not recognize a gain or loss except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Northwest Bancshares common stock. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares solely for cash should recognize a gain or loss on the exchange. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares for a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash may recognize a gain, but not any loss, on the exchange. The actual federal income tax consequences to LNB Bancorp shareholders of electing to receive cash, Northwest Bancshares common stock or a combination of cash and stock will not be ascertainable at the time LNB Bancorp shareholders make their election because it will not be known at that time how, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

For a more detailed discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the transaction, please see the section "Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Material Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 62.

The consequences of the Merger to any particular shareholder will depend on that shareholder's particular facts and circumstances. Accordingly, you are urged to consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO LNB BANCORP AS A RESULT OF THE MERGER?

A: If the Merger is completed, LNB Bancorp will merge into Northwest Bancshares, and LNB Bancorp will cease to exist. Following the Merger, The Lorain National Bank (Lorain National Bank), a national bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of LNB Bancorp, will merge with and into Northwest Bank, a Pennsylvania-chartered savings bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Northwest Bancshares, with Northwest Bank being the surviving bank.

Q: WHEN WILL THE MERGER BE COMPLETED?

A: We expect the Merger will be completed when all of the conditions to completion contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and the approval of the Merger Agreement by LNB Bancorp shareholders at the LNB Bancorp special meeting. We currently expect to complete the Merger during the third quarter of 2015. However, because fulfillment of some of the conditions to completion of the Merger, such as the receipt of required regulatory approvals, is not entirely within our control, we cannot predict the actual timing.

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF THE MERGER IS NOT COMPLETED?

A: If the Merger is not completed, LNB Bancorp shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of common stock in connection with the Merger. Instead, LNB Bancorp will remain an independent company and its common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NASDAQ Global Market. Under specified circumstances, LNB Bancorp may be required to pay to Northwest Bancshares a fee with respect to the termination of the Merger Agreement. Northwest Bancshares may also be required to pay LNB Bancorp a fee with respect to the termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances. For more information, please review the sections entitled Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Terminating the Merger Agreement and Termination Fee beginning on page 80.

Q: WHAT VOTE BY LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS IS REQUIRED TO APPROVE THE PROPOSALS?

A: Assuming a quorum is present at the LNB Bancorp special meeting, approval of the Merger Proposal will require the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as shares voted against the Merger Proposal.

Approval of the LNB Bancorp Merger-Related Executive Compensation will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Abstentions will have the same effect as shares voted against the Merger-Related Executive Compensation, but broker non-votes will not affect whether the proposal is approved.

Approval of the Adjournment Proposal will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Abstentions will have the same effect as shares voted against the Adjournment Proposal, but broker non-votes will not affect whether the proposal is approved.

As of the record date for the special meeting, directors and executive officers of LNB Bancorp, together with their affiliates, had sole or shared voting power over approximately 7.42% of the LNB Bancorp common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and certain executive officers of LNB Bancorp, who own in the aggregate 716,929 shares of common stock of LNB Bancorp, have entered into voting agreements with Northwest Bancshares to vote their respective shares of LNB Bancorp common stock FOR the Merger Proposal.

Q: HOW MAY LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS VOTE THEIR SHARES FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING PROPOSALS PRESENTED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS?

A: Shareholders may vote by completing, signing, dating and returning the proxy card in the enclosed prepaid return envelope or by following the telephone or Internet voting instructions on the proxy card as soon as possible or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. This will enable your shares to be represented and voted at the special meeting. If your stock is held in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow to have your shares voted. Your broker, bank or other nominee may allow you to deliver your voting instructions via the telephone or the Internet. Please review the proxy card or instruction form provided by your broker, bank or other nominee that accompanies this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Q: WILL A BROKER OR BANK HOLDING SHARES IN STREET NAME FOR AN LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDER AUTOMATICALLY VOTE THOSE SHARES FOR THE SHAREHOLDER AT THE LNB BANCORP SPECIAL MEETING?

A: No. A broker or bank WILL NOT be able to vote your shares with respect to the Merger Agreement and the Merger without first receiving instructions from you on how to vote. If your shares are held in street name, you will receive separate voting instructions with your proxy materials. It is therefore important that you provide timely instruction to your broker or bank to ensure that all shares of LNB Bancorp common stock that you own are voted at the special meeting. The failure of a shareholder whose shares of LNB common stock are held in street name to give voting instructions to the broker or bank will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal.

Q: WILL LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS BE ABLE TO VOTE THEIR SHARES AT THE SPECIAL MEETING IN PERSON?

A: Yes. Submitting a proxy will not affect the right of any shareholder to vote in person at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in street name and wish to attend the special meeting, you must ask your broker or bank how to vote those shares in person at the special meeting.

Q: MAY AN LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDER CHANGE OR REVOKE HIS OR HER VOTE AFTER SUBMITTING A PROXY?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, you can change your vote by:

providing written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of LNB Bancorp, which must be provided to the Corporate Secretary by the time the special meeting begins;

submitting a new proxy card (any earlier proxies will be revoked automatically); or attending the special meeting and voting in person. Any earlier proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke your proxy.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow your broker's directions to change your vote.

Q: WHAT SHOULD A SHAREHOLDER DO IF HE OR SHE RECEIVES MORE THAN ONE SET OF VOTING MATERIALS?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares of common stock in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. In addition, if you are a holder of record and your shares of common stock are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive or otherwise follow the voting instructions set forth in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus in the sections entitled "Special Meeting of LNB Bancorp, Inc. Shareholders."

Q: IF A SHAREHOLDER DOES NOT VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL, IS HE OR SHE ENTITLED TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS?

A: Yes. If you are an LNB Bancorp shareholder as of April 22, 2015, the record date for the special meeting, and you do not vote your shares in favor of the Merger Proposal and you do not return an unmarked proxy card, you will have the right under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law ("OGCL") to demand the fair cash value for your LNB Bancorp common shares. The right to make this demand is known as "dissenters' rights." To exercise your dissenters' rights, you must deliver to LNB Bancorp a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of your shares of common stock before the vote on the Merger Proposal is taken at the special meeting. The demand for payment must include your address, the number and class of LNB Bancorp common shares owned by you, and the amount you claim to be the fair cash value of your LNB Bancorp shares of common stock, and should be mailed to: LNB Bancorp, Inc., Attention: Robert F. Heinrich, Corporate Secretary, 457 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio 44052. LNB Bancorp shareholders who wish to exercise their dissenters' rights must: (i) either vote against the Merger Proposal or not return the proxy card, and (ii) deliver written demand for payment prior to the LNB Bancorp shareholder vote. For additional information regarding dissenters' rights, see "Dissenters' Rights" and the complete text of the applicable sections of the OGCL attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Appendix B.

Q: WHAT DOES LNB BANCORP'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMEND WITH RESPECT TO THE THREE PROPOSALS?

A:

LNB Bancorp's board of directors has unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are in the best interests of LNB Bancorp and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that LNB Bancorp shareholders vote FOR the Merger Proposal. In addition, LNB Bancorp's board of directors unanimously recommends that LNB Bancorp shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger-Related Executive Compensation and FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: ARE THERE RISKS THAT I SHOULD CONSIDER IN DECIDING WHETHER TO VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE MERGER-RELATED PROPOSALS?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14.

Q: WHY ARE LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS BEING ASKED TO APPROVE, ON AN ADVISORY, NON-BINDING BASIS, CERTAIN MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION?

A: The federal securities laws require LNB Bancorp to seek a non-binding advisory vote with respect to certain payments that may be made to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers under certain existing agreements in connection with the Merger.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS DO NOT APPROVE CERTAIN MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A: The vote with respect to the Merger-Related Executive Compensation is an advisory vote and will not be binding on LNB Bancorp. Therefore, if the Merger Agreement is approved by LNB Bancorp's shareholders, the Merger-Related Executive Compensation could still be paid to the LNB Bancorp named executive officers, if and to the extent, required or allowed under applicable law even if LNB Bancorp's shareholders do not approve the Merger-Related Executive Compensation.

Q: WILL THE MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION BE PAID IF THE MERGER IS NOT CONSUMMATED?

A: No. Payment of the Merger-Related Executive Compensation is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger.

Q: SHOULD LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS SEND IN THEIR STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A: No. LNB Bancorp shareholders SHOULD NOT send in any stock certificates now. If the Merger is approved, transmittal materials, with instructions for their completion, will be provided to LNB Bancorp shareholders under separate cover and the stock certificates should be sent at that time.

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF I SELL MY SHARES OF LNB BANCORP COMMON STOCK BEFORE THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A: The record date for LNB Bancorp shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting is earlier than both the date of the special meeting and the completion of the Merger. If you transfer your shares of LNB Bancorp common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to vote at the special meeting but will transfer the right to receive the merger consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares.

Q: WHAT DO LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS NEED TO DO NOW?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, we are requesting you vote by mail, by telephone, by Internet or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. If you choose to vote by mail, you should complete, sign, date and promptly return the enclosed proxy card. The proxy card will instruct the persons named on the proxy card to vote your LNB Bancorp shares at the special meeting as you direct. If you sign and send in a proxy card and do not indicate how you wish to vote, the proxy will be voted FOR each of the special meeting proposals. Alternatively, you can follow the telephone or Internet voting instructions on your proxy card.

Q: IF I AM AN LNB BANCORP SHAREHOLDER, WHO CAN HELP ANSWER MY QUESTIONS?

A: If you have any questions about the Merger or the special meeting, or if you need additional copies of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact LNB Bancorp's proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free at (800) 322-2885 or collect at (212) 929-5500.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to vote on a proposal to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and the Merger between LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares, which we refer to as the Merger Proposal. asked to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal or to approve the Merger-Related Executive Compensation.

Only LNB Bancorp shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 22, 2015 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the LNB Bancorp special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Approval of the Merger-Related Executive Compensation proposal will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, without regard to abstentions. Approval of the adjournment proposal will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, without regard to abstentions. As of April 22, 2015, the record date for the special meeting, there were 9,657,715 shares of LNB Bancorp common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. The directors and executive officers of LNB Bancorp, as a group, beneficially owned 716,929 shares of LNB Bancorp common stock, not including shares that may be acquired upon the exercise of stock options, representing approximately 7.42% of the outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp common stock as of the record date. Each of the directors and certain executive officers of LNB Bancorp, who own in the aggregate 716,929 shares of common stock of LNB Bancorp, have entered into voting agreements with Northwest Bancshares to vote their respective shares of LNB Bancorp common stock FOR the Merger Proposal at the special meeting.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (page 36)

The merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares is governed by the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, LNB Bancorp will be merged with and into Northwest Bancshares, with Northwest Bancshares as the surviving entity. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement, which is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

What LNB Bancorp, Inc. Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 61)

Under the Merger Agreement, each share of LNB Bancorp common stock will be exchanged for either 1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock plus cash in lieu of fractional shares or $18.70 in cash, subject to 50% of the total merger consideration consisting of Northwest Bancshares common stock and the remainder consisting of cash. On December 15, 2014, which is the last trading day preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, Northwest Bancshares common stock price was $12.35, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $18.04 per share. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $18.37 per share. As of _____, 2015, the most reasonably practicable date prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Northwest Bancshares common stock price was $ _____, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $ _____. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $ _____ per share.

For more information, see Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Consideration to be Received in the Merger.

The following table shows the closing price per share of Northwest Bancshares common stock and the equivalent price per share of LNB Bancorp common stock, giving effect to the Merger, on December 15, 2014, which is the last day on which shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock traded preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, and on _____, 2015, the most recent practicable date prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. The equivalent price per share of LNB Bancorp common stock was computed by multiplying the price of a share of Northwest Bancshares common stock by the 1.461 exchange ratio. Recommendation of LNB Bancorp, Inc. Board of Directors (page 46)

The LNB Bancorp board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger. The LNB Bancorp board believes that the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, is in the best interests of, LNB Bancorp and its shareholders, and therefore unanimously recommends that LNB Bancorp shareholders vote FOR the Merger Proposal. In reaching this decision, LNB Bancorp's board of directors considered a variety of factors, which are described in the section captioned Proposal 1 Description of the Merger LNB Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors .

In addition, the LNB Bancorp board of directors unanimously recommends that LNB Bancorp shareholders vote FOR the advisory, non-binding proposal to approve the Merger-Related Executive Compensation and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal or to approve the Merger-Related Executive Compensation.

Opinion of LNB Bancorp, Inc.'s Financial Advisor (page 46)

In connection with the Merger, the LNB Bancorp board of directors received an opinion, dated December 15, 2014, of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O'Neill), who acted as financial advisor to LNB Bancorp, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, of the merger consideration in the proposed Merger to be received by the holders of LNB Bancorp common stock. We encourage you to read the full text of Sandler O'Neill's written opinion, which is included as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger (page 65)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger cannot be completed unless it is first approved by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC), the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities (the Department), and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve). Northwest Bancshares has filed the required applications. As of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Northwest Bancshares has received approvals from the FDIC and the Department. While Northwest Bancshares does not know of any reason why it would not obtain the remaining approval in a timely manner, Northwest Bancshares cannot be certain when or if it will receive all regulatory approvals.

Table of Contents

Conditions to Completing the Merger (page 72)

The completion of the Merger is subject to the fulfillment of a number of conditions, including:

approval of the Merger Agreement by LNB Bancorp shareholders;

the absence of any order, decree, injunction, statute, rule or regulation that enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger;

receipt of all required regulatory approvals and the expiration of all statutory waiting periods;

effectiveness of the registration statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part; authorization for listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market of the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be issued in the Merger;

subject to the materiality standard provided in the Merger Agreement, the continued accuracy of representations and warranties made on the date of the Merger Agreement; performance in all material respects by each of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp of its respective obligations under the Merger Agreement, unless waived by the other party; and receipt by Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp of an opinion from their respective legal counsel to the effect that the Merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Terminating the Merger Agreement (page 80)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated by mutual consent of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp at any time prior to the completion of the Merger. Additionally, subject to conditions and circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, either Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement if, among other things, any of the following occur:

there is a material breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, which breach cannot be cured prior to the closing date, or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to such party of such breach;

the Merger has not been consummated by September 30, 2015, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that time was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement provided in the Merger Agreement, and further provided that this date shall be extended to December 31, 2015 if the inability to complete the Merger is solely due to delay in receiving required regulatory approvals;

LNB Bancorp shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement at the LNB Bancorp special meeting; or a required regulatory approval is denied or a governmental authority prohibits the consummation of the Merger.

Northwest Bancshares also may terminate the Merger Agreement if LNB Bancorp materially breaches its agreements regarding the solicitation of other acquisition proposals and the submission of the Merger Agreement to shareholders, or if the board of directors of LNB Bancorp does not recommend approval of the Merger Agreement in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or withdraws, qualifies or modifies its recommendation in a manner adverse to Northwest Bancshares. LNB Bancorp may also terminate the Merger Agreement if it receives a superior proposal from a third party that the LNB Bancorp board of directors determines, after consultation with its legal and financial advisors, it must accept in the exercise of its fiduciary duties to the LNB Bancorp shareholders, and LNB Bancorp has otherwise complied with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fee (page 80)

Under certain circumstances described in the Merger Agreement, in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement, LNB Bancorp will owe Northwest Bancshares a $7.3 million termination fee. Northwest Bancshares will owe LNB Bancorp a $3.65 million termination fee if the Merger Agreement is terminated because a required regulatory approval is denied solely due to regulatory concerns related to Northwest Bancshares and its subsidiaries. See Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Termination Fee on page 80 for a list of the circumstances under which a termination fee is payable.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours (page 66)

Officers and directors of LNB Bancorp have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests that give them interests in the Merger that are somewhat different from, or in addition to, their interests as LNB Bancorp shareholders. These interests and agreements include:

one member of the LNB Bancorp board of directors will be appointed to the Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank boards of directors;

Northwest Bancshares will establish an advisory board consisting of each of the LNB Bancorp directors, and such advisory directors will serve for an initial term of one year;

the acceleration of vesting of all outstanding stock options issued by LNB Bancorp, and all such stock options will be exchanged for an amount of cash equal to the positive difference between $18.70 and the exercise price per share of such LNB Bancorp stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such LNB Bancorp stock option;

the acceleration of vesting of outstanding restricted stock awards issued by LNB Bancorp, which the holder will be entitled to exchange for the merger consideration (less any shares withheld to satisfy the tax withholding obligations);

payments of retention bonuses to certain executive officers of LNB Bancorp; severance or other payments to certain executive officers under their employment agreements (assuming such agreements have not expired pursuant to their terms prior to the closing);

continued employment that has been offered by Northwest Bank to LNB Bancorp's President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as an acceleration and payment of benefits in a supplemental executive retirement agreement between LNB Bancorp and its President and Chief Executive Officer upon a termination of the agreement at the effective time of the Merger; and rights of LNB Bancorp officers and directors to continued indemnification coverage and continued coverage under directors and officers liability insurance policies.

The LNB Bancorp board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and recommending to the LNB Bancorp shareholders that they approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. The aggregate amount that each director and executive officer is expected to receive in connection with the Merger, and based on the assumptions therein, is set forth in Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Merger-Related Executive Compensation for LNB Bancorp's Named Executive Officers on page 69.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 62)

The Merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Comparison of Rights of Shareholders (page 85)

When the Merger is completed, LNB Bancorp shareholders who receive shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock will become Northwest Bancshares stockholders and their rights will be governed by Maryland law and by Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation and bylaws. The rights of LNB shareholders will change as a result of the Merger due to differences in Northwest Bancshares' and LNB governing documents, as well as differences between Maryland and Ohio law. See Comparison of Rights of Shareholders for a summary of the material differences between the respective rights of LNB Bancorp shareholders and Northwest Bancshares stockholders.

Dissenters' Rights (page 35)

Under Ohio law, LNB Bancorp shareholders who do not vote in favor of the Merger Proposal and deliver a written demand for payment for the fair cash value of their LNB Bancorp shares of common stock prior to the LNB Bancorp special meeting, will be entitled, if and when the Merger is completed, to receive the fair cash value of their shares of common stock. The right to make this demand is known as dissenters' rights. LNB Bancorp shareholders' right to receive the fair cash value of their shares of common stock, however, is contingent upon strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85 of the OGCL. An LNB Bancorp shareholder's failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights, so long as such shareholder does not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement or return an unmarked proxy card.

For additional information regarding dissenters' rights, see Dissenters' Rights and the complete text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Appendix B. If LNB Bancorp shareholders should have any questions regarding dissenters' rights, such shareholders should consult with their own legal advisers. See Dissenters' Rights on page 35.

Material Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 62)

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp have each received a legal opinion that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, the federal tax consequences of the Merger to a shareholder of LNB Bancorp will depend primarily on whether a shareholder exchanges his or her LNB Bancorp common stock solely for Northwest Bancshares common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares solely for Northwest Bancshares common stock should not recognize a gain or loss except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Northwest Bancshares common stock. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares solely for cash should recognize a gain or loss on the exchange. LNB Bancorp shareholders who exchange their shares for a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash should recognize a gain, but not any loss, on the exchange. The actual federal income tax consequences to LNB Bancorp shareholders of electing to receive cash, Northwest Bancshares common stock or a combination of cash and stock will not be ascertainable at the time LNB Bancorp shareholders make their election because it will not be known at that time how, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

This tax treatment may not apply to all LNB Bancorp shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to LNB Bancorp shareholders can be complicated. LNB Bancorp shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the Merger's tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder.

To review the tax consequences of the Merger to LNB Bancorp shareholders in greater detail, please see the section Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Material Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Risk Factors (page 14)

You should consider all the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. In particular, you should consider the factors described under Risk Factors.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section titled Caution About Forward-Looking Statements, you should consider carefully the risk factors described below in deciding how to vote. You should also read and consider the risk factors associated with the business of Northwest Bancshares because these risk factors may affect the operations and financial results of the combined company. These risk factors may be found in Northwest Bancshares Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Because the price of Northwest Bancshares common stock will fluctuate, LNB Bancorp shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration.

Upon completion of the Merger, each share of LNB Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock or $18.70 in cash. There will be no adjustment to the exchange ratio (except for adjustments to reflect the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or other similar transaction with respect to LNB Bancorp common stock), and LNB Bancorp does not have a right to terminate the Merger Agreement based upon changes in the market price of Northwest Bancshares common stock. Accordingly, the dollar value of Northwest Bancshares common stock that LNB Bancorp shareholders who receive stock will receive upon completion of the Merger will depend upon the market value of Northwest Bancshares common stock at the time of completion of the Merger, which may be lower or higher than the closing price of Northwest Bancshares common stock on the last full trading day preceding public announcement that Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp entered into the Merger Agreement, the last full trading day prior to the date this Proxy Statement/Prospectus was mailed or the date of the LNB Bancorp special meeting. The market values of Northwest Bancshares common stock and LNB Bancorp common stock have varied since Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp entered into the Merger Agreement and will continue to vary in the future due to changes in the business, operations or prospects of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp, market assessments of the Merger, regulatory considerations, market and economic considerations, and other factors, most of which are beyond LNB Bancorp's control. Accordingly, at the time of the LNB Bancorp special meeting, LNB Bancorp shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock consideration they would be entitled to receive upon completion of the Merger if they receive Northwest Bancshares common stock. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock and for shares of LNB Bancorp common stock. See Market Price and Dividend Information on page 32 for ranges of historic market prices of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares common stock.

LNB Bancorp will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on LNB Bancorp. These uncertainties may impair LNB Bancorp's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Merger is completed, and could cause customers and others who deal with LNB Bancorp to seek to change existing business relationships with LNB Bancorp. LNB Bancorp employee retention and recruitment may be particularly challenging prior to the effective time of the Merger, as employees and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company.

The pursuit of the Merger and the preparation for the integration may place a significant burden on management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could affect LNB Bancorp's financial results. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires that LNB Bancorp operate in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business and restricts LNB Bancorp from taking certain actions prior to the effective time of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement without Northwest Bancshares' consent in writing. These restrictions may prevent LNB Bancorp from pursuing attractive business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Merger.

LNB Bancorp shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect.

The consideration to be received by LNB Bancorp shareholders in the Merger is subject to the requirement that 50% of the outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp common stock be exchanged for Northwest Bancshares common stock and the remaining 50% be exchanged for cash. The Merger Agreement contains proration and allocation methods to achieve this desired result. If you elect all cash and the available cash is oversubscribed, then you will receive a portion of the merger consideration in Northwest Bancshares common stock. If you elect all stock and the available stock is oversubscribed, then you will receive a portion of the merger consideration in cash.

Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the stock price and future business and financial results of LNB Bancorp.

LNB Bancorp has already incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger. If the Merger is not completed, the ongoing business of LNB Bancorp may be adversely affected and LNB Bancorp will be subject to several risks, including the following:

If the Merger Agreement is terminated under specified circumstances, LNB Bancorp will be required to pay Northwest Bancshares a $7.3 million termination fee;

LNB Bancorp will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory and printing fees;

under the Merger Agreement, LNB Bancorp is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its operating results; and matters relating to the Merger may require substantial commitments of time and resources by LNB Bancorp management, which could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that may have been beneficial to LNB Bancorp as an independent company.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed, LNB Bancorp may experience negative reactions from the financial markets and from its customers and employees. LNB Bancorp also could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger or to enforcement proceedings to perform their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is not completed, some or all of the risks described above may materialize and may materially affect LNB Bancorp's business, financial results and stock price.

Northwest Bancshares may be unable to successfully integrate LNB Bancorp's operations or otherwise realize the expected benefits from the Merger, which would adversely affect Northwest Bancshares' results of operations and financial condition.

The Merger involves the integration of two companies that have previously operated independently. The difficulties of combining the operations of the two companies include:

integrating personnel with diverse business backgrounds;

converting customers to new systems;

combining different corporate cultures; and retaining key employees.

The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of the business and the loss of key personnel. The integration of the two companies will require the experience and expertise of certain key employees of LNB Bancorp who are expected to be retained by Northwest Bancshares. Northwest Bancshares may not be successful in retaining these employees for the time period necessary to successfully integrate LNB Bancorp's operations with those of Northwest Bancshares. The diversion of management's attention and any delay or difficulty encountered in connection with the Merger and the integration of the two companies' operations could have an adverse effect on the business and results of operations of Northwest Bancshares following the Merger.

The success of the Merger will depend, in part, on Northwest Bancshares' ability to realize the anticipated benefits and cost savings from combining the business of LNB Bancorp with Northwest Bancshares. If Northwest Bancshares is unable to successfully integrate LNB Bancorp, the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the Merger may not be realized fully or may take longer to realize than expected. For example, Northwest Bancshares may fail to realize the anticipated increase in earnings and cost savings anticipated to be derived from the Merger. In addition, as with regard to any merger, a significant decline in asset valuations or cash flows may also cause Northwest Bancshares not to realize expected benefits.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire LNB Bancorp.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, LNB Bancorp is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, knowingly encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiry or proposal that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than Northwest Bancshares. In addition, LNB Bancorp has agreed to pay a $7.3 million termination fee to Northwest Bancshares in specified circumstances. These provisions could discourage other companies that may have an interest in acquiring LNB Bancorp from considering or proposing such an acquisition even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to LNB Bancorp's shareholders than Northwest Bancshares has offered in the Merger. The payment of the termination fee could also have a material adverse effect on LNB Bancorp's financial condition.

Certain of LNB Bancorp's officers and directors have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of LNB Bancorp shareholders generally.

You should be aware that the directors and officers of LNB Bancorp have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of LNB Bancorp shareholders generally. These include: one current LNB Bancorp board member joining the Northwest Bancshares board of directors upon completion of the Merger; all current LNB Bancorp board members will be appointed to a Northwest Bancshares advisory board to serve for an initial term of one year; payments of retention bonuses to certain executive officers of LNB Bancorp; continued employment that has been offered by Northwest Bank to LNB Bancorp's President and Chief Executive Officer, as well as an acceleration and payment of benefits in a supplemental executive retirement agreement between LNB Bancorp and its President and Chief Executive Officer upon a termination of the agreement at the effective time of the Merger; severance or other payments that certain officers may receive under existing employment or change-in-control agreements (assuming such agreements have not expired pursuant to their terms prior to the closing); the acceleration of unvested stock options and restricted stock awards; and provisions in the Merger Agreement relating to indemnification of directors and officers and insurance for directors and officers of LNB Bancorp for events occurring before the Merger. For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours.

LNB Bancorp shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management of the combined organization.

LNB Bancorp shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the LNB Bancorp board of directors and on various other matters affecting LNB Bancorp. Upon the completion of the Merger, each LNB Bancorp shareholder will become a stockholder of Northwest Bancshares with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is significantly smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of LNB Bancorp. It is expected that the former shareholders of LNB Bancorp as a group will receive shares in the Merger constituting approximately % of the outstanding shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock immediately after the Merger, representing less than a majority of the ownership and voting power of Northwest Bancshares. As a result, LNB Bancorp shareholders will have significantly less influence on the management and policies of Northwest Bancshares than they now have on the management and policies of LNB Bancorp.

The shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be received by LNB Bancorp shareholders receiving the stock consideration as a result of the Merger will have different rights from shares of LNB Bancorp common stock.

Following completion of the Merger, LNB Bancorp shareholders who receive the stock consideration will no longer be shareholders of LNB Bancorp but will instead be stockholders of Northwest Bancshares. There will be important differences between the current rights of LNB Bancorp shareholders and the rights of Northwest Bancshares stockholders that may be important to LNB Bancorp shareholders. See Comparison of Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 85 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Northwest Bancshares common stock and LNB Bancorp common stock.

The fairness opinion received by LNB Bancorp's board of directors from LNB Bancorp's financial advisor does not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Sandler O'Neill, LNB Bancorp's financial advisor in connection with the Merger, delivered to the board of directors of LNB Bancorp an opinion dated December 15, 2014. The opinion does not speak as of the time the Merger will be completed or any date other than the date of such opinion. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes may materially alter or affect the relative values of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp.

There is no assurance when or even if the Merger will be completed.

Completion of the Merger is subject to satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions. See Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Conditions to Completing the Merger on page 72. There can be no assurance that Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp will be able to satisfy the closing conditions or that closing conditions beyond their control will be satisfied or waived.

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp can agree at any time to terminate the Merger Agreement, even if LNB Bancorp shareholders have already voted to approve the Merger Agreement. Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp can also terminate the Merger Agreement under other specified circumstances.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the Merger may be completed, various approvals and consents must be obtained from regulatory entities. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger. Any such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the Merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Northwest Bancshares following the Merger.

Either Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not been completed by September 30, 2015, unless the failure of the Merger to be completed has resulted from the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement, provided that the termination date will be automatically extended to December 31, 2015 if the inability to complete the Merger is solely due to a delay in receiving regulatory approvals.

Goodwill incurred in the Merger may negatively affect Northwest Bancshares' financial condition.

To the extent that the merger consideration, consisting of cash plus the number of shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock issued or to be issued in the Merger, exceeds the fair value of the net assets, including identifiable intangibles of LNB Bancorp, that amount will be reported as goodwill by Northwest Bancshares. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill will not be amortized but will be evaluated for impairment annually. A failure to realize expected benefits of the Merger could adversely impact the carrying value of the goodwill recognized in the Merger, and in turn negatively affect Northwest Bancshares' financial condition.

The price of Northwest Bancshares common stock might decrease after the Merger.

Upon completion of the Merger, holders of LNB Bancorp common stock who receive stock consideration will become stockholders of Northwest Bancshares. Northwest Bancshares common stock could decline in value after the Merger. For example, during the twelve-month period ending on [REDACTED], 2015 (the most recent practicable date before the printing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus), the closing price of Northwest Bancshares common stock varied from a low of $ [REDACTED] to a high of $ [REDACTED] and ended that period at $ [REDACTED]. The market value of Northwest Bancshares common stock fluctuates based upon general market conditions, Northwest Bancshares' business and prospects and other factors. Further, the market price of Northwest Bancshares common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the common stock of Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp. The businesses of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations and market prices of common stock of each of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares. For a discussion of the businesses of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 99.

Table of ContentsSUMMARY SELECTED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED DATA

The following table shows selected financial information on a pro forma combined basis giving effect to the Merger (which is known as pro forma information) as if the Merger had become effective as of the date presented, in the case of the balance sheet information, and at the beginning of the period presented, in the case of the income statement information. The pro forma information reflects the acquisition method of accounting.

RELATING TO THE LNB BANCORP MERGER

The following unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting, giving effect to the proposed Merger. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statement of financial condition combines the historical financial information of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp as of December 31, 2014 and assumes that the Merger was completed on that date. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated statements of operations combine the historical financial information of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp and give effect to the Merger as if it had been completed as of January 1, 2014. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations or financial condition had the Merger been completed on the dates described above, nor is it necessarily indicative of the results of operations in future periods or the future financial position of the combined entities. Certain reclassifications have been made to LNB Bancorp's historical financial information in order to conform to Northwest Bancshares' presentation of financial information.

The actual value of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be recorded as consideration in the Merger will be based on the closing price of Northwest Bancshares common stock at the time of the merger completion date. The proposed Merger is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2015, but there can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed as anticipated. For purposes of the pro forma financial information, the fair value of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger was based on Northwest Bancshares' closing price of $12.53 as of December 31, 2014.

The pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments, including adjustments to record assets and liabilities of LNB Bancorp at its fair value, and represents the pro forma estimates by Northwest Bancshares based on available fair value information as of the date of the Merger Agreement.

The pro forma adjustments included herein are subject to change depending on changes in interest rates and the components of assets and liabilities, and as additional information becomes available and additional analyses are performed. The final allocation of the purchase price for the Merger will be determined after it is completed and after completion of thorough analyses to determine the fair value of LNB Bancorp's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of the date the Merger is completed. Increases or decreases in the estimated fair values of the net assets as compared with the information shown in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information may change the amount of the purchase price allocated to goodwill and other assets and liabilities and may impact Northwest Bancshares' statement of operations due to adjustments in yield and/or amortization of the adjusted assets or liabilities. Any changes to LNB Bancorp's shareholders' equity, including results of operations from December 31, 2014 through the date the Merger is completed, will also change the purchase price allocation, which may include the recording of a lower or higher amount of goodwill. The final adjustments may be materially different from the unaudited pro forma adjustments presented herein.

Northwest Bancshares anticipates that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses. These cost savings are not included in these pro forma statements and there can be no assurance that expected cost savings will be realized. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the benefits of expected cost savings or opportunities to earn additional revenue and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined during the period.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp, which are incorporated in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus by reference.

LNB Bancorp will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions. Additionally, directors, officers and employees of LNB Bancorp may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS

Shareholders of LNB Bancorp are entitled to certain dissenters rights pursuant to Sections 1701.84(A) and 1701.85 of the OGCL. Section 1701.85 generally provides that shareholders of LNB Bancorp will not be entitled to such rights without strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85, and failure to take any one of the required steps may result in the termination or waiver of such rights. Specifically, any LNB Bancorp shareholder who is a record holder of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock on April 22, 2015, the record date for the special meeting and whose shares are not voted in favor of the adoption of the Merger Proposal may be entitled to be paid the fair cash value of such shares of common stock after the effective time of the Merger. To be entitled to such payment, a shareholder must deliver to LNB Bancorp a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares held by such shareholder, before the vote on the Merger Proposal is taken, the shareholder must not vote in favor of the Merger Proposal, and the shareholder must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85. An LNB Bancorp shareholder's failure to vote against the Merger Proposal will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters rights. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number and class of shares held by him, her or it on the record date, and the amount claimed as the fair cash value of such shares of common stock. See the text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus for specific information on the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters rights.

If LNB Bancorp so requests, dissenting shareholders must submit their share certificates to LNB Bancorp within 15 days of such request, for endorsement on such certificates by LNB Bancorp that a demand for appraisal has been made. Failure to comply with such request will terminate the dissenting shareholders rights. Such certificates will be promptly returned to the dissenting shareholders by LNB Bancorp. If LNB Bancorp and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the fair cash value of LNB Bancorp's common shares, either may, within three months after service of demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Lorain County, Ohio, for a determination of the fair cash value of such dissenting shareholder's shares of common stock. The fair cash value of a share of LNB Bancorp common stock to which a dissenting shareholder is entitled to under Section 1701.85 will be determined as of the day prior to the vote of the LNB Bancorp shareholders. If the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock are listed on a national securities exchange, such as the NASDAQ, immediately before the effective time of the Merger, the fair cash value will be the closing sale price of LNB Bancorp's shares of common stock as of the close of trading on the day before the vote of the LNB Bancorp shareholders. Investment banker opinions to company boards of directors regarding the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a transaction such as the Merger are not opinions regarding, and do not address, fair cash value under Section 1701.85.

If an LNB Bancorp shareholder exercises his or her dissenters rights under Section 1701.85, all other rights with respect to such shareholder's shares of LNB Bancorp common stock will be suspended until LNB Bancorp purchases the shares, or the right to receive the fair cash value is otherwise terminated. Such rights will be reinstated should the right to receive the fair cash value be terminated other than by the purchase of the shares.

The foregoing description of the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights available to holders of LNB Bancorp's common shares pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the OGCL may not be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 1701.85 attached as Appendix B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

PROPOSAL 1 DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER

The following summary of the Merger Agreement is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. You should read the Merger Agreement completely and carefully as it, rather than this description, is the legal document that governs the Merger.

General

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares, with Northwest Bancshares as the surviving entity. Following the merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares, Northwest Bancshares will merge Lorain National Bank with and into Northwest Bank, with Northwest Bank as the surviving bank.

Background of the Merger

LNB Bancorp's board of directors regularly evaluates and assesses LNB Bancorp's strategy and opportunities to strengthen its business, achieve profitable growth and enhance value for its shareholders through various strategic initiatives, alternatives and transactions. In doing so, the LNB Bancorp board of directors gives consideration to developments in the banking industry, including the regulatory environment, conditions in the geographic areas that LNB Bancorp operates, competitive considerations, LNB Bancorp's capital structure and needs and other factors. LNB Bancorp's board of directors regularly reviews LNB Bancorp's performance, risks, opportunities, stock valuation and strategy, and discusses such matters at board meetings. Furthermore, on at least an annual basis for the last several years, LNB Bancorp's board of directors has received a market update from its financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, providing, among other things, an overview and outlook of the general banking industry and an update and outlook on the mergers and acquisitions (M&A) environment, both generally and as it related to LNB Bancorp.

On August 11, 2014, PL Capital, LLC (PL Capital) and certain affiliated entities (collectively, the PL Capital Group) filed a Schedule 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission indicating that it owned, in the aggregate, 5.2% of LNB Bancorp's common stock based upon LNB Bancorp's outstanding shares as of August 8, 2014. In this filing, PL Capital Group stated that its intent was to monitor the performance of LNB Bancorp and the actions of LNB Bancorp's management and board, and where needed, to assert its shareholder rights. On August 20, 2014, PL Capital Group filed an amendment to its Schedule 13D with the Securities and Exchange Commission indicating that it had acquired additional shares and owned 9.3% of LNB Bancorp's common stock based upon LNB Bancorp's outstanding shares as of August 8, 2014.

On August 14, 2014, PL Capital's principals had a telephone conversation with LNB Bancorp's Chief Executive Officer, Daniel Klimas, in which they discussed, among other things, PL Capital Group's Schedule 13D filing, its background and investment philosophy, and its views on the state of the banking industry and the bank M&A market. During this conversation, Mr. Klimas was asked to advise LNB Bancorp's board of directors that it was PL Capital Group's view that LNB Bancorp should actively pursue the sale of the company by seeking a merger with a larger, well positioned strategic partner. Mr. Klimas agreed to inform the board of PL Capital Group's view. On August 15, 2014, Mr. Klimas sent an email to LNB Bancorp's board of directors in which he summarized his conversation with PL Capital Group.

On August 26, 2014, the LNB Bancorp board of directors held a regular board meeting at which the directors, among other things, discussed Mr. Klimas' conversation with PL Capital Group's principals, and PL Capital Group's ownership in LNB Bancorp and its views regarding the banking industry and LNB Bancorp.

On September 24, 2014, the LNB Bancorp board of directors held its regular annual strategic planning meeting at which it evaluated and considered various strategic growth opportunities for LNB Bancorp, including organic growth, growth by acquisition, a merger of equals and selling or merging LNB Bancorp to or with another party. Mr. Klimas and James Nicholson, LNB Bancorp's Chief Financial Officer, provided a presentation of management's projections for LNB Bancorp's potential financial performance based on execution of LNB Bancorp's current business strategy. Mr. Klimas and Mr. Nicholson also discussed various potential strategic growth initiatives that could be pursued by LNB Bancorp as alternatives to its existing strategy, and the risks associated with those initiatives.

Representatives of Sandler O'Neill attended the meeting and provided a presentation relating to a banking industry update and overview, an M&A update and outlook, a summary overview of LNB Bancorp relative to its peers, including bank valuations, a net present value analysis, LNB Bancorp's prospects in the M&A market, including potential advantages, disadvantages and risks associated with completing an acquisition of another company or being merged with another company, identifying potential merger partners, including an affordability analysis, a summary valuation analysis of LNB Bancorp, comparable company analysis and a precedent M&A transaction analysis. Representatives of LNB Bancorp's legal counsel, Calfee, Halter & Griswold LLP (Calfee), provided a review of the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors when considering a sale or merger of a company and, together with representatives of Sandler O'Neill, provided an overview of the process involved with selling or merging a company.

Based on its evaluation of the merits of LNB Bancorp's current business plan, the available strategic growth initiatives and related risks, the challenges presented by the current business environment, and the conditions and activity in the M&A market, the LNB Bancorp board determined that a window of opportunity may exist with respect to exploring the potential merger of LNB Bancorp and delivering enhanced shareholder value, as compared to other available alternatives. In reaching this decision, the board also took into account the views expressed by PL Capital to Mr. Klimas concerning the advisability of a sale of the company at the present time. At the conclusion of the meeting, the LNB Bancorp board of directors authorized the engagement of Sandler O'Neill, on behalf of LNB Bancorp, to explore strategic alternatives, including a potential sale of LNB Bancorp through a merger with a strategic partner.

Following the September 24, 2014 board meeting, LNB Bancorp, Sandler O'Neill and Calfee commenced preparation of due diligence materials for the process of exploring a potential merger of LNB Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill also began to conduct initial inquiries with respect to the ability of potential merger partners to execute such a transaction.

During the weeks of September 29, 2014 and October 6, 2014, Sandler O'Neill identified and contacted 10 potential merger partners to determine their level of interest in a possible strategic partnership with LNB Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill identified the 10 parties based on its market knowledge of potential acquirers with either a presence in Northeast Ohio, or a perceived interest in establishing a presence in Northeast Ohio, that likely had the resources to pursue a potential merger with LNB and the ability to execute and complete such a transaction. Seven of these parties indicated an interest, and customary non-disclosure agreements were negotiated and executed with each of these potential merger parties. On October 8, 2014, a virtual data room containing information about LNB Bancorp was opened and access was granted to each of these seven parties.

During the week of October 6, 2014, Northwest Bancshares initiated contact with LNB Bancorp by making an unsolicited approach to Sandler O'Neill indicating its interest in exploring a potential merger with LNB Bancorp. After Sandler O'Neill conducted an initial inquiry with respect to the ability of Northwest Bancshares to execute an acquisition, Northwest Bancshares executed a customary non-disclosure agreement and Northwest Bancshares was granted access to LNB Bancorp's virtual data room on October 16, 2014. Northwest Bancshares and the seven other parties that executed a non-disclosure agreement with LNB Bancorp and were granted access to LNB Bancorp's virtual data room are referred to in this section as Interested Partners.

During the weeks of October 6, 2014, October 13, 2014 and October 20, 2014, the Interested Partners conducted their initial due diligence on LNB Bancorp and the virtual data room was continually updated based on the information and data requests of the Interested Partners. During this time, five of the Interested Partners requested, and LNB Bancorp management held, targeted due diligence calls with each of those Interested Partners. By October 24, 2014, which marked the end of the initial due diligence period, five of the Interested Partners, including Northwest Bancshares, submitted preliminary written, non-binding indications of interest with respect to a potential acquisition of LNB Bancorp.

On October 28, 2014, a meeting of the board of directors of LNB Bancorp was held at which representatives of Sandler O'Neill updated the board on its activities in connection with exploring a sale of the company since the September 24, 2014 board meeting. The presentation included a review and summary of the terms of each of the indications of interest provided by the Interested Partners, including, among other things, each party's proposed pricing and valuation, form of consideration and stock option treatment, the value of the party's future dividends, as well as a discussion of recent performance metrics in the debt and equity markets and a pro forma merger analysis for each party. The board of directors extensively discussed the preliminary, non-binding indications of interest, the presentation by Sandler O'Neill, the different characteristics and capabilities of each of the parties and the potential impact that each such interested party could have on various LNB Bancorp constituencies. At this point, the LNB Bancorp board instructed Sandler O'Neill to contact each of the five remaining Interested Partners to seek updated, more-detailed indications of interest, including enhanced pricing and valuation ranges, by October 30, 2014.

On October 28th, 29th and 30th, 2014, Sandler O'Neill had multiple conversations with the five remaining Interested Partners regarding their indications of interest, including discussions regarding the assumptions used by the parties in generating their pricing, valuation and exchange ratio for shares. Sandler O'Neill received revised indications of interest from each such party.

On October 31, 2014, the LNB Bancorp board of directors held a special meeting to review the revised non-binding indications of interests from the five Interested Partners. A representative of Sandler O'Neill attended the meeting and provided a summary of the revised indications of interest, including an explanation of the changes in each party's pricing and valuation ranges and the exchange ratio implied by such ranges. The five revised indications of interest contained pricing and valuation ranges that implied consideration per share ranging from $15.86 to $18.00. The presentation also included a review of the stock price performance of each of the five Interested Partners since the initial indications of interest were submitted and since the initial pro forma analysis based on stock prices as of September 16, 2014 were presented to the LNB Bancorp board, and included a verbal summary of recently announced bank M&A activity in the region. LNB Bancorp's board discussed the potential value that each competing proposal could provide to LNB Bancorp's shareholders, the capacity of the various parties to potentially increase their proposed pricing and valuation following additional due diligence, perceptions regarding the respective parties' commitment to the sale process and the potential execution risks associated with each party's proposal, and the impact of the various alternative transactions on LNB Bancorp's employees, customers, and communities. Upon conclusion of this discussion, the board of directors selected three Interested Partners to continue in the process of exploring a potential merger with LNB Bancorp (the Final Potential Partners) and directed Sandler O'Neill to invite the Final Potential Partners to conduct an additional round of comprehensive due diligence for the purpose of subsequently providing LNB Bancorp with a more specific offer with respect to an acquisition transaction.

During the weeks of November 3, 2014, November 10, 2014 and November 17, 2014, the three Final Potential Partners conducted confirmatory due diligence and the virtual data room was continually updated based on the information and data requests of the Final Potential Partners. Also during this time, each of the Final Potential Partners conducted separate on-site credit due diligence with respect to LNB Bancorp, coupled with multiple conference calls with all three Final Potential Partners and LNB Bancorp management on many additional due diligence topics.

On November 12, 2014, Mr. Klimas, Mr. Nicholson and several other members of the executive management team of LNB Bancorp met with the Chief Executive Officer, President and executive management team of Final Potential Partner #1 to discuss various aspects of LNB Bancorp's business operations including, but not limited to, retail banking, finance, executive management, commercial banking and credit quality, human resources, information technology, and legal, internal audit, regulatory and compliance matters.

On November 13, 2014, Mr. Klimas, Mr. Nicholson and representatives of Sandler O'Neill had conversations with William J. Wagner, the Chief Executive Officer of Northwest Bancshares, and representatives of Northwest Bancshares' financial advisor regarding the business operations, capabilities and culture of Northwest Bancshares, and coordination of Northwest Bancshares' on-site due diligence with respect to LNB Bancorp.

On November 17, 2014, Mr. Klimas discussed the potential acquisition with the Chief Executive Officer of Final Potential Partner #2.

On November 17, 2014, Mr. Klimas and Mr. Nicholson met with the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Revenue Officer of Northwest Bancshares, which was the third Final Potential Partner, to discuss the respective business operations of each party and the potential acquisition. Also on November 17, 2014, Mr. Klimas and Chairman of the Board James Herrick met with the Chief Executive Officer of Northwest Bancshares and discussed the potential acquisition and the respective business operations, capabilities and culture of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares.

On November 18, 2014, a meeting of the board of directors of LNB Bancorp was held at which Mr. Klimas provided the LNB Bancorp board with insight into the likely impact that each Final Potential Partner would have on LNB Bancorp's employees, depositors, customers and other community constituencies following a potential acquisition of LNB Bancorp, as well as an update on the discussions that LNB Bancorp management had with each of the Final Potential Partners and the scope of their due diligence review. During the course of this broader discussion, Mr. Klimas explained that Northwest Bancshares indicated that it intended to establish a new Ohio regional franchise through its acquisition of LNB Bancorp, while Final Potential Partners #1 and #2 intended to consolidate LNB Bancorp into their respective existing Ohio operations. Mr. Klimas noted that Northwest Bancshares, in establishing a new Ohio franchise, expected to retain much of LNB Bancorp's existing operations and offer continued employment to many of LNB Bancorp's employees, including to Mr. Klimas and some other management employees. Mr. Klimas further noted that Final Potential Partner #1 indicated that it expected to offer post-acquisition employment opportunities to some of LNB Bancorp's employees, and a post-acquisition consulting arrangement with Mr. Klimas. He then explained that Final Potential Partner #2 had not indicated whether post-acquisition employment opportunities would be available to LNB Bancorp's employees. A representative of Sandler O'Neill provided insight into the execution risk related to a proposed transaction with each of the Final Potential Partners and discussed with the board the potential affordability of an increased pricing range for each of the Final Potential Partners. The board then reviewed again with representatives of Calfee the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors when considering a sale or merger of a company.

On November 20, 2014, Mr. Klimas and the Chief Executive Officer of Northwest Bancshares had a discussion regarding the roles and responsibilities of the various employees of LNB Bancorp in connection with Northwest Bancshares' pricing and valuation analysis with respect to LNB Bancorp.

Between November 18, 2014 and November 24, 2014, Sandler O'Neill participated in numerous discussions with each of the Final Potential Partners regarding the potential terms by which each party would propose to acquire LNB Bancorp, and on November 21, 2014, Sandler O'Neill received a revised non-binding indication of interest from each of the three Final Potential Partners.

On November 24, 2014, the LNB Bancorp board of directors held a meeting to review and consider, in detail, the revised non-binding indications of interest received from the Final Potential Partners and other matters related to a potential merger of LNB Bancorp. Among other things, the following occurred at the meeting:

Representatives of Sandler O'Neill provided a detailed overview of each Final Potential Partner's revised non-binding indication of interest, including, among other items, each Final Potential Partner's stock price (including a review of the performance of each stock since the initial indications of interest were submitted on October 24, 2014, and since the initial pro forma analysis presented to the LNB Bancorp board of directors based on stock prices as of September 16, 2014), proposed purchase price per share, implied transaction value, proposed form of consideration, implied exchange ratio, implied valuation multiples, structure of acquisition, post-transaction employee matters and benefit plans, anticipated contingencies and closing conditions and the proposed timing for negotiation and execution of a definitive merger agreement. In its presentation, Sandler O'Neill noted that:

Final Potential Partner #1's proposed exchange ratio was 1.460, and proposed merger consideration was $18.63 per share. Final Potential Partner #1's proposed mix of consideration was 100% stock.

Final Potential Partner #2's proposed exchange ratio was 1.675, and proposed merger consideration was $16.98 per share. Final Potential Partner #2 indicated that it was flexible as to the mix of consideration.

Northwest Bancshares' proposed exchange ratio was 1.395, and proposed merger consideration was $17.75 per share. Northwest Bancshares' proposed mix of consideration was 50% stock and 50% cash.

Sandler O'Neill provided a detailed summary pro forma financial analysis of each revised non-binding indication of interest, in each case, based on the mix of stock and cash consideration indicated in each Final Potential Partner's indication of interest. Among other things, the analysis addressed the implied exchange ratio, potential cost savings, pro forma ownership, potential tangible book value per share accretion/dilution and earn back period, potential earnings per share accretion/dilution, potential dividend accretion/dilution, per share net present value of five-year projected dividends and estimated transaction internal rate of return.

Sandler O'Neill provided a detailed stand-alone and control premium valuation analysis of LNB Bancorp. This included a comparison of the valuation to other data points, including the range of valuations in the indications of interest, as well as comparisons against Midwest and nationwide M&A precedent transactions, LNB Bancorp's stand-alone net present value and LNB Bancorp's peer trading levels.

Sandler O'Neill provided an overview of additional information about each of the Final Potential Partners, which included, among other things, capitalization data, trading data, valuation data, comparative stock performance, comparable company analysis, public market overview (including dividend and payout ratio history and institutional ownership), research analyst summaries and M&A history.

The LNB Bancorp board of directors extensively discussed the revised non-binding indications of interest and the presentation by Sandler O'Neill. After considering the pricing and valuations offered by each Final Potential Partner, as well as the likely impact of an acquisition by each of the Final Potential Partners on LNB Bancorp's shareholders and other constituencies, the LNB Bancorp board determined that the indications of interest submitted by Final Potential Partner #1 and Northwest Bancshares represented the most promising offers for a merger transaction.

The LNB Bancorp board discussed the attributes of Final Potential Partner #1 and Northwest Bancshares, including the nature of each party's stock and their respective post-transaction plans for the LNB Bancorp franchise. The LNB Bancorp board also discussed the importance of price and valuation in considering each party's offer, and discussed the relative importance of other factors inherent in each proposal, including the value of future dividends, the volatility of each party's stock and the potential for significant changes in the value of the merger consideration between the signing of an agreement and the completion of the transaction, the long-term value of an investment in each party's stock, the capabilities of each party, and the potential impact on LNB Bancorp's employees, customers and communities. In addition, the LNB Bancorp board discussed the costs and benefits related to the different mixes of consideration offered by Final Potential Partner #1 and Northwest Bancshares, including the tax consequences to shareholders, the reduced volatility provided by cash consideration, the liquidity of each party's stock and the financial and accounting impact to the combined company.

The LNB Bancorp board then instructed Sandler O'Neill to contact Final Potential Partner #1 and Northwest Bancshares to request that each party submit its final and best offer on pricing and valuation. Final Potential Partner #1 and Northwest Bancshares subsequently submitted revised offers to Sandler O'Neill. Northwest Bancshares revised its proposed exchange ratio to 1.4141, which increased its proposed merger consideration to $17.90 per share. Northwest Bancshares' proposed mix of consideration was 50% stock and 50% cash. Final Potential Partner #1 also revised its exchange ratio, which increased its proposed merger consideration to $19.00 per share, with merger consideration of 100% stock. In response to questions from the directors, Sandler O'Neill advised the board that Final Potential Partner #1 strongly favored a 100% stock transaction and had indicated to Sandler O'Neill that it could provide up to 10% of the merger consideration in cash, but did not have the capacity to provide a significant cash component of merger consideration. Sandler O'Neill further advised the LNB Bancorp board that Final Potential Partner #1 had previously indicated to Sandler O'Neill that it was not willing to include any collars or similar price protection mechanisms with respect to its stock as part of its proposal.

The LNB Bancorp board discussed the relative attractiveness of both revised offers. After discussion, the directors agreed that the substantial cash component contained in Northwest Bancshares' proposal and the lower historical volatility in its stock price were attractive features in comparison to the terms of Final Potential Partner #1's proposal, in part due to the mitigation of the potential downside risk of stock price fluctuations prior to closing. In addition, the directors agreed that a transaction with Northwest Bancshares would likely have a more favorable impact on LNB Bancorp's employees, customers and communities than a transaction with Final Potential Partner #1. However, the directors determined that they were unwilling to proceed with such a transaction unless Northwest Bancshares was able to provide a transaction with a value to its shareholders substantially equivalent to that represented by Final Potential Partner #1's proposal. After discussing with Sandler O'Neill issues relating to Northwest Bancshares' capacity to increase its offer and the impact of such an increase on the market's perception of the transaction, the board instructed Sandler O'Neill to advise Northwest Bancshares that the board would be inclined to accept Northwest Bancshares' offer, but only if Northwest Bancshares increased its exchange ratio to 1.461, fixed the cash component of the consideration at $18.70 per share, and maintained a consideration mix of 50% stock and 50% cash. Mr. Klimas and Sandler O'Neill communicated the LNB Bancorp board position to Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bancshares subsequently revised its proposal to increase its exchange ratio to 1.461, which increased its proposed merger consideration to $18.70 per share, and agreed to fix the cash component of the consideration at that price. The proposed mix of consideration remained 50% stock and 50% cash.

At the conclusion of the November 24, 2014 LNB Bancorp board of directors meeting, the board of directors unanimously authorized LNB Bancorp to continue the process and negotiate exclusively with Northwest Bancshares, approved the terms of Northwest Bancshares' final, non-binding indication of interest, authorized management of LNB Bancorp and its advisors to negotiate a definitive merger agreement with Northwest Bancshares and approved and authorized merger consideration of 50% stock and 50% cash. Following the meeting, Sandler O'Neill informed Northwest Bancshares that LNB Bancorp had determined to proceed exclusively with it to negotiate a definitive merger agreement and informed Final Potential Partner #1 and Final Potential Partner #2 that LNB Bancorp had determined not to proceed any further with them at that time.

During the time period beginning on November 24, 2014 and ending on December 14, 2014, Calfee and Northwest Bancshares' legal counsel, Luse Gorman, PC, with the participation of management from each party, Sandler O'Neill and Northwest Bancshares' financial advisor, Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., proceeded to negotiate the Merger Agreement. Multiple drafts of the Merger Agreement were exchanged between Calfee and Luse Gorman and several negotiating sessions occurred. Also, during this time period, each party prepared, circulated and finalized its disclosure schedules listing certain exceptions to the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement. During this time, LNB Bancorp, Sandler O'Neill and Calfee also conducted additional reverse due diligence with respect to Northwest Bancshares, including a diligence call with Northwest Bancshares management on December 3, 2014.

On December 2, 2014, Mr. Klimas, Mr. Nicholson and other members of LNB Bancorp's management team visited Northwest Bancshares headquarters and met with several members of the Northwest Bancshares management team to conduct further reverse due diligence on Northwest Bancshares.

On December 11, 2014, Mr. Klimas and the Chief Executive Officer of Northwest Bancshares discussed the potential content and timing of communications to the public and to LNB Bancorp employees regarding the proposed Merger Agreement.

On December 15, 2015, LNB Bancorp's board of directors held a meeting to consider and act upon the proposed Merger Agreement and review and consider Sandler O'Neill's fairness analysis and opinion. Among other things, the following occurred at the meeting:

A representative of Calfee advised that a proposed Merger Agreement with Northwest Bancshares, pursuant to which LNB Bancorp would be merged with and into Northwest Bancshares, had been successfully negotiated and would be presented for consideration by the board of directors at the meeting. Calfee reviewed, in detail, the proposed Merger Agreement and answered questions asked by the directors. Calfee also reviewed the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors when considering a sale or merger of a company, as well as the results of the due diligence inquiry into Northwest Bancshares.

A representative of Sandler O'Neill presented Sandler O'Neill's fairness analysis. This review included, among other things, terms of the proposed merger, including the purchase price per share and form of merger consideration, valuation multiples of the proposed Merger compared to comparable transactions, pro forma branch network, franchise overview of LNB Bancorp, franchise overview of Northwest Bancshares, pro forma analysis and transaction analysis.

Sandler O'Neill delivered its oral opinion that, as of December 15, 2014 and based on current assumptions, the merger consideration is fair to holders of LNB Bancorp common stock from a financial point of view. The board of directors discussed the Merger Agreement and the fairness analysis and fairness opinion. At the conclusion of the meeting, the board of directors unanimously:

determined that the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the merger consideration were fair to LNB Bancorp and LNB Bancorp shareholders and that entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement was in the best interest of LNB Bancorp and LNB Bancorp shareholders, based on the evaluation and consideration of all reports and information available to the board of directors as of the date of the meeting and all factors that the board of directors deemed relevant, including, without limitation, the fairness opinion;

authorized and approved the Merger and all other transactions contemplated by the definitive merger agreement;

approved and adopted the Merger Agreement;

authorized officers of LNB Bancorp to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement; and recommended that LNB Bancorp shareholders vote for approval of the Merger Agreement.

On December 15, 2014, LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares executed and delivered the Merger Agreement and respective disclosure schedules and issued a joint press release announcing execution of the Merger Agreement and the terms of the Merger after trading markets had closed for the day.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of LNB Bancorp in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of LNB Bancorp as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of LNB Bancorp common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of LNB Bancorp to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for LNB Bancorp or the effect of any other transaction in which LNB Bancorp might engage. The second set of mergers and acquisitions included 42 transactions announced from January 1, 2013 through December 9, 2014 in which the targets were nationwide commercial bank and thrifts having an announced transaction value between $50 and $400 million and target last twelve months return on average assets between 0.3% and 0.8%. Sandler O'Neill deemed these transactions to be similar to the proposed LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares combination. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the following multiples: transaction price to book value, transaction price to tangible book value, transaction price to last twelve months earnings per share, transaction price to next twelve months earnings per share, core deposit premium and one-day market premium. Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Merger, assuming the following: (1) the Merger is completed in the second quarter of 2015; (2) merger consideration of 50% cash / 50% stock, subject to shareholder election, with $18.70 for those receiving cash and a fixed exchange ratio of 1.461x for those receiving stock; (3) all of LNB Bancorp's outstanding and unexercised options will be cashed out by Northwest Bancshares at closing; (4) purchase accounting marks including $17.6 million gross credit mark, $8.0 million interest rate mark amortized over four years, $2.2 million AOCI mark amortized over 4.5 years, $1.8 million time deposits mark accreted over 2.0 years, $0.5 million borrowings mark accreted over 3.0 years, and a one-time gain of $1.4 million on VISA shares (approximate value based on 17,068 VISA shares held by LNB Bancorp, at $0 book value, and an assumed conversion ratio of 0.4121x); (5) cost savings of LNB Bancorp's projected operating expenses of 32% of LNB Bancorp's noninterest expense annually, of which 75% will be realized in 2015 and 100% in 2016 and thereafter; (6) approximately $16.4 million in pre-tax transaction costs and expenses; (7) LNB Bancorp's performance was calculated in accordance with internal financial estimates for LNB Bancorp for the years ending December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2017 as provided by senior management of LNB Bancorp and an estimated long-term annual growth rate for the years thereafter as discussed with the senior management of LNB Bancorp; (8) Northwest Bancshares' performance was calculated with publicly available median analyst earnings estimate for Northwest Bancshares for the years ending December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2016, and various estimated annual growth rates for the years thereafter; and (9) certain other assumptions pertaining to costs and expenses associated with the transaction, intangible amortization, opportunity cost of cash and other items. The analyses indicated that, for the full years 2015 and 2016, the Merger (excluding transaction expenses) would be accretive to Northwest Bancshares' projected earnings per share and would be accretive to tangible book value per share by 2020. The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Compensation and Other Relationships with LNB Bancorp. Sandler O'Neill has acted as financial advisor to the LNB Bancorp board of directors and senior management of LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries in connection with the Merger. The LNB Bancorp board of directors and senior management of LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a retainer fee of $50,000, a transaction fee based on aggregate consideration received, of which $250,000 was paid upon signing of the Merger Agreement, a fairness opinion fee of $150,000 which was paid upon delivery of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, all of which will be credited to the transaction fee, and approximately $1.8 million, which is contingent upon completion of the Merger. LNB Bancorp has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement and to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for certain of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Within the past two years, Sandler O'Neill provided general investment banking services to LNB Bancorp, as well as in connection with LNB Bancorp's private placement of common shares in December 2013 and its related repurchase and redemption of its outstanding Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B, in January 2014, for which Sandler O'Neill was paid aggregate fees of $110,000.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, 50% of LNB Bancorp's common stock will be converted into Northwest Bancshares common stock and the remaining 50% will be exchanged for cash. LNB Bancorp's shareholders will have the option to elect to receive either 1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares' common stock or $18.70 in cash for each LNB Bancorp common share, subject to proration to ensure that in the aggregate 50% of LNB Bancorp's common shares will be converted into Northwest Bancshares common stock. On December 15, 2014, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed Merger, Northwest Bancshares' common stock price was $12.35, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $18.04 per share. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $18.37 per share. As of _____, 2015, the most reasonably practicable date prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Northwest Bancshares' common stock price was $ _____, which, after giving effect to the 1.461 exchange ratio, has an implied value of approximately $. Based on this price with respect to the stock consideration, and the cash consideration of $18.70 per share, upon completion of the Merger, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives cash for 50% of his or her shares of common stock and receives stock for 50% of his or her shares of common stock would receive total merger consideration with an implied value of approximately $ per share.

If Northwest Bancshares effects or sets a record date for a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification or similar transaction with respect to its shares of common stock prior to the effective time of the Merger, then the exchange ratio will be adjusted proportionately.

LNB Bancorp shareholders will not receive fractional shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock. Instead, LNB Bancorp shareholders will receive a cash payment for any fractional shares in an amount equal to the product of (i) the fraction of a share of Northwest Bancshares common stock to which such shareholder is entitled multiplied by (ii) the average closing price of Northwest Bancshares common stock during the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger.

Treatment of LNB Bancorp, Inc. Stock Options

At the effective time of the Merger, each option to purchase shares of LNB Bancorp common stock will vest in full, will cease to represent an option to purchase LNB Bancorp common stock and will be converted automatically into the right to receive cash equal to the amount by which $18.70 exceeds the option exercise price.

Treatment of LNB Bancorp, Inc. Restricted Stock

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding LNB Bancorp restricted share will become fully vested and convert into the right to receive either 1.461 shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock or $18.70 in cash in the same manner as other shares of LNB Bancorp common stock.

Surrender of Stock Certificates

LNB Bancorp shareholders will receive instructions from the transfer agent on where to surrender their LNB Bancorp stock certificates after the Merger is completed. LNB Bancorp shareholders should not forward their LNB Bancorp stock certificates with their proxy cards.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

In accordance with current accounting guidance, the Merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method. The result of this is that the recorded assets and liabilities of Northwest Bancshares will be carried forward at their recorded amounts, the historical operating results will be unchanged for the prior periods being reported on and the assets and liabilities of LNB Bancorp will be adjusted to fair value at the date of the Merger. In addition, all identified intangible assets will be recorded at fair value and included as part of the net assets acquired. To the extent that the purchase price, consisting of cash plus the number of shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be issued to LNB Bancorp shareholders and option holders at fair value, exceeds the fair value of the net assets including identifiable intangibles of LNB Bancorp at the merger date, that amount will be reported as goodwill. In accordance with current accounting guidance, goodwill will not be amortized but will be evaluated for impairment annually. Identified intangibles will be amortized over their estimated lives. Further, the acquisition method of accounting results in the operating results of LNB Bancorp being included in the operating results of Northwest Bancshares beginning from the date of completion of the Merger.

Material Tax Consequences of the Merger

General. The following summary discusses the material anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger applicable to a holder of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock who surrenders all of the shareholder's common stock for shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock and/or cash in the Merger. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Regulations, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this document and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion is limited to U.S. residents and citizens who hold their shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. This discussion does not cover all U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger and related transactions that may be relevant to holders of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock. This discussion also does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular person or the tax consequences that may be relevant to persons subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (including, among others, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, banks, insurance companies, financial institutions or persons who hold their shares of LNB Bancorp common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons that are, or hold their shares of LNB Bancorp common stock through, partnerships or other pass-through entities, or persons who acquired their shares of LNB Bancorp common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation). In addition, this discussion does not address any aspects of state, local, non-U.S. taxation or U.S. federal taxation other than income taxation. No ruling has been requested from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. No assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth below.

LNB Bancorp shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, as well as the effects of state, local, non-U.S. tax laws and U.S. tax laws other than income tax laws.

Opinion Conditions. It is a condition to the obligations of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp that each receive an opinion of counsel to the effect that the Merger will constitute a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp both expect to be able to obtain the tax opinions if, as expected:

each of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp are able to deliver customary representations to their respective tax counsel; and there is no adverse change in U.S. federal income tax law.

The opinions of each party's tax counsel will not be binding on the IRS or any court.

In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, Luse Gorman, PC, counsel to Northwest Bancshares, has delivered its opinion to Northwest Bancshares, dated as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and Calfee, counsel to LNB Bancorp, has delivered its opinion to LNB Bancorp, dated as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Such opinions have been rendered on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion and factual representations contained in certificates of officers of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp, all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the Merger.

If any of the representations delivered by Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp to counsel or assumptions upon which the opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. The determination by tax counsel as to whether the proposed Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code will depend upon the facts and law existing at the effective time of the proposed Merger. The federal income tax consequences of the Merger to an LNB Bancorp shareholder will depend primarily on whether a shareholder exchanges the shareholder's LNB Bancorp common stock solely for Northwest Bancshares common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash, as more fully described below.

Exchange Solely for Northwest Bancshares Common Stock. No gain or loss will be recognized by an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives solely shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock (except for cash received in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below) in exchange for all of his or her shares of LNB Bancorp common stock. The tax basis of the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock received by an LNB Bancorp shareholder in such exchange will be equal (except for the basis attributable to any fractional shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock, as discussed below) to the basis of the LNB Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the Northwest Bancshares common stock. The holding period of the Northwest Bancshares common stock received will include the holding period of shares of LNB Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the Northwest Bancshares common stock, provided that such shares were held as capital assets of the LNB Bancorp shareholder at the effective time of the Merger.

Exchange Solely for Cash. An LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives solely cash in exchange for all of his or her shares of LNB Bancorp common stock (and is not treated as constructively owning Northwest Bancshares common stock after the Merger under the circumstances referred to below under Possible Dividend Treatment) will recognize a gain or loss, for federal income tax purposes, equal to the difference between the cash received and such shareholder's tax basis in the LNB Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the cash. Such gain or loss will be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares were held as capital assets of the LNB Bancorp shareholder at the effective time of the Merger. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the LNB Bancorp shareholder's holding period is more than one year at the effective time of the Merger. The Internal Revenue Code contains limitations on the extent to which a taxpayer may deduct capital losses from ordinary income.

Exchange for Northwest Bancshares Common Stock and Cash. An LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives a combination of Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash in exchange for his or her LNB Bancorp common stock will not be permitted to recognize any loss for federal income tax purposes. Such a shareholder will recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received or (2) the amount of gain realized in the transaction. The amount of gain an LNB Bancorp shareholder realizes will equal the amount by which (a) the cash plus the fair market value of Northwest Bancshares common stock received at the effective time of the Merger exceeds (b) the shareholder's basis in the LNB Bancorp common stock to be surrendered in the exchange for the cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock. Any recognized gain could be taxed as a capital gain or a dividend, as described below. The tax basis of the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock received by such LNB Bancorp shareholder will be the same as the basis of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock, adjusted as provided in Section 358(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for the gain recognized and/or cash received in exchange for LNB Bancorp common stock. If an LNB Bancorp shareholder purchased or acquired LNB Bancorp common stock on different dates or at different prices, then, solely for purposes of determining the basis of the Northwest Bancshares common stock received in the Merger, such shareholder may designate which share of Northwest Bancshares common stock is received in exchange for each particular share of LNB Bancorp common stock. The holding period for shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock received by such LNB Bancorp shareholder will include such shareholder's holding period for the LNB Bancorp common stock surrendered in exchange for the Northwest Bancshares common stock, provided that such shares were held as capital assets of the shareholder at the effective time of the Merger.

An LNB Bancorp shareholder's federal income tax consequences will also depend on whether his or her shares of LNB Bancorp common stock were purchased at different times at different prices. If they were, the LNB Bancorp shareholder could realize gain with respect to some of the shares of LNB Bancorp common stock and loss with respect to other shares. Such LNB Bancorp shareholder would have to recognize such gain to the extent such shareholder receives cash with respect to those shares in which the shareholder's adjusted tax basis is less than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the Merger of the Northwest

Bancshares common stock received, but could not recognize loss with respect to those shares in which the LNB Bancorp shareholder's adjusted tax basis is greater than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the Merger of the Northwest Bancshares common stock received. Any disallowed loss would be included in the adjusted basis of the Northwest Bancshares common stock. Such an LNB Bancorp shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor respecting the tax consequences of the Merger to that shareholder.

Possible Dividend Treatment. In certain circumstances, an LNB Bancorp shareholder who receives solely cash or a combination of cash and Northwest Bancshares common stock in the Merger may receive dividend income, rather than capital gain, treatment on all or a portion of the gain recognized by that shareholder if the receipt of cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend. The determination of whether a cash payment has such effect is based on a comparison of the LNB Bancorp shareholder's proportionate interest in Northwest Bancshares after the Merger with the proportionate interest the shareholder would have had if the shareholder had received solely Northwest Bancshares common stock in the Merger. This could happen because of the shareholder's purchase (or the purchase by a family member) of additional Northwest Bancshares common stock or a repurchase of shares by Northwest Bancshares. For purposes of this comparison, the LNB Bancorp shareholder may be deemed to constructively own shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock held by certain members of the shareholder's family or certain entities in which the shareholder has an ownership or beneficial interest and certain stock options may be aggregated with the shareholder's shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock. The amount of the cash payment that may be treated as a dividend is limited to the shareholder's ratable share of the accumulated earnings and profits of LNB Bancorp at the effective time of the Merger. Any gain that is not treated as a dividend will be taxed as a capital gain, provided that the shareholder's shares were held as capital assets at the effective time of the Merger. Because the determination of whether a cash payment will be treated as having the effect of a dividend depends primarily upon the facts and circumstances of each LNB Bancorp shareholder, shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any cash received in the Merger.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. An LNB Bancorp shareholder who holds LNB Bancorp common stock as a capital asset and who receives in the Merger, in exchange for such stock, solely Northwest Bancshares common stock and cash in lieu of a fractional share interest in Northwest Bancshares common stock will be treated as having received such cash in full payment for such fractional share of stock.

Backup Withholding. Unless an exemption applies under the backup withholding rules of Section 3406 of the Internal Revenue Code, the exchange agent shall be required to withhold, and will withhold, 28% of any cash payments to which an LNB Bancorp shareholder is entitled pursuant to the Merger, unless the LNB Bancorp shareholder signs the substitute IRS Form W-9 enclosed with the letter of transmittal sent by the exchange agent. Unless an applicable exemption exists and is proved in a manner satisfactory to the exchange agent, this completed form provides the information, including the LNB Bancorp shareholder's taxpayer identification number, and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding.

Tax Treatment of the Entities. No gain or loss will be recognized by Northwest Bancshares or LNB Bancorp as a result of the Merger.

Regulatory Matters Relating to the Merger

Completion of the Merger is subject to the receipt of all required approvals and consents from regulatory authorities. The Merger is subject to approval by the FDIC, the Department and the Federal Reserve. Northwest Bancshares has filed the required applications and notifications. As of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Northwest Bancshares has received approvals from the FDIC and the Department. While Northwest Bancshares does not know of any reason why it would not obtain the remaining approval in a timely manner, Northwest Bancshares cannot be certain when or if it will receive all regulatory approvals.

Bank Merger. The bank merger is subject to the approval of the FDIC under the Bank Merger Act and the Department under applicable Pennsylvania law. In granting its approval under the Bank Merger Act, the FDIC must consider the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and resulting institutions, the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, competitive factors, any risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system and the effectiveness of the institutions involved in combating money laundering activities. The Department follows criteria similar to those used by the FDIC.

Holding Company Merger. The merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares, with Northwest Bancshares as the surviving savings and loan holding company, requires the approval or non-objection of the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve will consider factors such as financial and managerial resources, future prospects, the convenience and needs of the community and competitive factors.

Anti-Competitive Matters. In addition, a period of 15 to 30 days must expire following approval by the FDIC before completion of the Merger is allowed, within which period the United States Department of Justice may file objections to the Merger under the federal antitrust laws. While Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp believe that the likelihood of objection to the Merger by the Department of Justice is remote, there can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not initiate proceedings to block the Merger, or that the Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will not challenge the Merger, or if any proceeding is instituted or challenge is made, what the result of such challenge or proceeding would be.

The Merger cannot proceed in the absence of the requisite regulatory approvals. See Conditions to Completing the Merger and Terminating the Merger Agreement. There can be no assurance that the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, and if obtained, there can be no assurance as to the date of any approval. There also can be no assurance that any regulatory approvals will not contain a condition or requirement that causes the approvals to fail to satisfy one or more conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement and described under Conditions to Completing the Merger. In recent similar transactions, the Federal Reserve has taken a longer time to render a decision on applications than the typical time period for approval set forth in the Federal Reserve's regulations.

The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include, for example, review of the Merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the merger consideration. Furthermore, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation with respect to the Merger.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of LNB Bancorp that you vote to approve the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of LNB Bancorp's officers and directors have employment and other compensation agreements or economic interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, your interests as LNB Bancorp shareholders generally. The LNB Bancorp board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending to the shareholders that the Merger Agreement and the Merger be approved.

Share Ownership. On the record date for the LNB Bancorp special meeting, LNB Bancorp's directors and officers beneficially owned, in the aggregate, 716,929 shares of LNB Bancorp's common stock (not including shares that may be acquired upon the exercise of stock options), representing approximately 7.42% of the outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp common stock.

Stock Options. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, outstanding and unexercised options to purchase shares of LNB Bancorp common stock granted under the LNB Bancorp Amended and Restated 2006 Stock Incentive Plan and certain options to purchase LNB Bancorp common stock granted outside of the LNB Bancorp Amended and Restated 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, whether or not vested or exercisable, will become fully vested as a result of the Merger, and will be exchanged for an amount of cash equal to the positive difference between $18.70 and the exercise price per share of such LNB Bancorp stock option multiplied by the number of shares subject to such LNB Bancorp stock option. The number of LNB Bancorp stock options with such a positive difference held by the executive officers and non-employee directors of LNB Bancorp as of the record date for the special meeting are as follows:

Executive/Director of LNB Bancorp	LNB Bancorp Stock Options (#)	Weighted-Average Exercise Price ($)
Daniel E. Klimas	148,333	12.75
James H. Nicholson	7,500	12.12
Michael Bickerton	12,000	11.03
Frank A. Soltis	21,917	11.34
Kevin W. Nelson	18,924	10.72
Gary J. Elek (1)
All non-employee directors as a group (10 persons)

(1) Mr. Elek stepped down from his position as Chief Financial Officer of LNB Bancorp effective as of July 28, 2014 and retired as an employee of LNB Bancorp effective January 31, 2015.

Acceleration of Vesting of Restricted Stock Awards. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, LNB Bancorp restricted stock awards that have not yet vested will become fully vested at the completion of the Merger. All restricted stock held by named executive officers at the time the Merger Agreement was entered into will be fully vested prior to the Merger effective time, except for 10,000 shares of restricted stock held by Michael Bickerton. Accordingly, no named executive officers or non-employee directors will hold shares of restricted stock at the effective time of the Merger, except for Mr. Bickerton. The vesting of Mr. Bickerton's 10,000 shares of restricted stock will accelerate at the Merger effective time. No non-employee directors will vest in shares of restricted stock as the result of the Merger.

LNB Bancorp and Lorain National Bank Employment Agreement and Change in Control Supplemental Executive Compensation Agreements. LNB Bancorp and Lorain National Bank are parties to an employment agreement with their President and Chief Executive Officer, Daniel E. Klimas, providing for the following severance payment and benefits that may be triggered in the event of termination of employment within 24 months following the Merger:

the payment of Mr. Klimas' highest base salary for a period of 24 months; any bonuses earned through the date of termination but not paid and a pro-rata portion of his bonus amount (defined as 50% of his base salary) based on the number of days employed in a year of 365 days and reduced by an executive bonus actually paid to Mr. Klimas for such fiscal year;

any accrued but unpaid vacation pay; the payment of Mr. Klimas' annual bonus for each remaining year of the employment agreement (but not less than 24 months) equal to not less than 50% of his base salary in effect on the date of termination; and the same level of medical, dental, accident, disability and life insurance benefits and continuing education payments for a period of 24 months.

In addition, LNB Bancorp is a party to change in control supplemental executive compensation agreements (change in control agreements) with the remaining named executive officers, including Messrs. Nicholson, Bickerton, Soltis, Nelson and Elek, and with nine other senior officers. Pursuant to the terms of the change in control agreements, in the event of the executive's involuntary termination without cause or voluntary resignation for good reason (as defined in the change in control agreements), occurring during the remaining term of the agreement, or within the 12 month period, following a change in control, Lorain National Bank will provide the executive with the following severance benefits, subject to regulatory limitations:

a lump sum payment equal to 125% of the executive's highest annual base salary, plus 125% of the executive's highest annual incentive bonus earned during the last three completed fiscal years immediately preceding the date of termination of employment (or in the case of Messrs. Nicholson and Elek, a lump sum payment equal to 200% of his highest annual base salary and 125% of his highest annual bonus earned during such period, and in the case of another senior officer, a payment equal only to 18 months of base salary); plus continued medical insurance benefits for a period ranging from 15 months to 24 months (depending on the amount of the severance payment) on substantially the same terms and condition as existed before the executive's termination, provided that one senior officer's change in control agreement did not provide for continuing medical benefits.

Each change in control agreement also provides that the severance benefits provided thereunder when aggregated with other benefits and payments to which each executive would be entitled as a result of a change in control will be reduced, to the extent necessary, to avoid an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp have agreed that the employment agreement for Mr. Klimas and the change in control severance agreements for the named executive officers and other senior officers will be terminated at the Merger effective time and all amounts owed thereunder will be paid in a lump sum, in cash, at the effective time, subject to the condition that no amount will be paid that would result in the payment of an excess parachute payment.

The estimated cash severance payments which would be made to Mr. Klimas under his employment agreement and to Messrs. Nicholson, Bickerton, Soltis and Nelson under their change in control agreements in connection with the Merger would be $1,200,000, $496,000, $375,000, $291,250 and $285,000 respectively, which includes the estimated reductions necessary to avoid penalties under Internal Revenue Code Section 280G. The estimated cash severance payments which would be made to Mr. Elek under his change in control agreement in connection with the Merger would be $0, as he voluntarily retired from his employment with LNB Bancorp as of January 31, 2015. The estimated cash severance payment to the other senior officers is, in the aggregate, approximately $1,757,500.

Continued Employment Offer to Certain LNB Bancorp Named Executive Officers. Northwest Bank has offered continued employment to Mr. Daniel E. Klimas to assume the title of Regional President and market leader for Northwest Bank's Ohio franchise. As Regional President and market leader of Northwest Bank's Ohio franchise, Mr. Klimas will earn a base salary of $250,000 and will be entitled to participate in all other Northwest Bank employee plans available to similarly situated officers.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreement. LNB Bancorp entered into a supplemental executive retirement agreement with Daniel E. Klimas in March 2013. Under the agreement, Mr. Klimas is entitled to a monthly supplemental retirement benefit of $13,217, that is payable for a period of seven years upon his termination following attainment of his normal retirement age of 65. The annual benefit is increased by a three percent cost of living adjustment after the first year of payment. In the event of his termination of employment before age 65, he is entitled to receive the retirement benefit, reduced by two percent for each full year by which the separation from service precedes the date of his normal retirement age. However, in the event Mr. Klimas is terminated within two years after a change in control (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Klimas will be entitled to a lump sum payment in the amount equal to the unpaid present value of the retirement benefits (without reduction), calculated assuming a three percent increase in payments each year after the first year. Following execution of the Merger Agreement, the parties agreed that Mr. Klimas supplemental executive retirement agreement will be terminated at the effective time and the payment thereunder will be accelerated and made in a lump sum at the effective time, without regard to his termination of employment.

Assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 2015, and Mr. Klimas received a payment at the effective time under his agreement, the estimated accrued benefit payable to Mr. Klimas under his supplemental executive retirement agreement would be $1,111,033.

Merger-Related Executive Compensation for LNB Bancorp's Named Executive Officers. The following table and related footnotes provide information about the compensation to be paid to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger (the Merger-Related Executive Compensation). The Merger-Related Executive Compensation shown in the table and described in the footnotes below is subject to an advisory (non-binding) vote of LNB Bancorp shareholders as more fully described in the section entitled "Proposal 2 Merger-Related Executive Compensation" beginning on page 97.

The table below sets forth the aggregate dollar value of the various elements of Merger-Related Executive Compensation that each named executive officer of LNB Bancorp would receive that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger, assuming the estimated effective time of the Merger was March 31, 2015.

As a result of the foregoing assumptions, the actual amounts received by a named executive officer may materially differ from the amounts set forth below.

Merger-Related Executive Compensation

- (1) The amount in this column represents the cash payments that will be made to Daniel E. Klimas in connection with the termination of his employment agreement with LNB Bancorp and Lorain National Bank and to each of Messrs. Nicholson, Bickerton, Soltis, Nelson and Elek in connection with the termination of their change in control supplemental executive compensation agreements with Lorain National Bank, subject to adjustment/cutback pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent necessary.
- (2) The amounts in this column represent, with respect to LNB Bancorp stock options, the total number of outstanding stock options held by such person which will be exchanged for the cash merger consideration multiplied by the difference between the per share cash merger consideration of $18.70 and the applicable per share exercise price of such stock options. All restricted stock held by the Named Executive Officers has fully vested prior to the effective time of the Merger and is not represented in this column, except for 10,000 shares of restricted stock held by Mr. Michael Bickerton. The total value of the accelerated vesting of Mr. Bickerton's outstanding restricted stock is based on a per share price of $17.43, which represents the average closing market price of the LNB Bancorp common stock over the first five business days following the public announcement of the Merger on December 15, 2014 as required by Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

- (3) The amount reflected in this column reflects the present value of the benefit that would be payable to Mr. Daniel E. Klimas on the termination of his supplemental executive retirement agreement and payment of the benefit to Mr. Klimas in a lump sum at the effective time of the Merger. Of this amount, $151,990 reflects the enhanced value that would be payable to Mr. Klimas if his employment terminated on the effective date of the Merger over the present value of his benefit if he voluntarily terminated his employment on such date absent the occurrence of the Merger.

- (4) The amounts in this column represent: (i) with respect to Mr. Klimas, the total amount of the continuing medical, dental, accident, disability and life insurance benefits and continuing education payments payable in the event of his termination of employment within 24 months after the Merger, and (ii) with respect to the other named executive officers, the total amount of the continuing medical insurance benefits payable in the event of a termination of employment within 12 months after the Merger.
- (5) Mr. Elek retired from employment with LNB Bancorp effective January 31, 2015 and will not be entitled to any additional compensation as the result of the Merger.

Appointment to Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank's Boards. One member of the board of directors of LNB Bancorp will be appointed to the boards of directors of Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank.

Advisory Board. In accordance with the Merger Agreement, Northwest Bank will invite all members of the LNB Bancorp board of directors as of the date of the Merger Agreement to serve as paid members of an advisory board of Northwest Bank (provided, however, that the LNB Bancorp director who is appointed to the Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank boards of directors will not also be paid for his service on the advisory board). The function of the advisory board will be to advise Northwest Bank with respect to deposit and lending activities in Lorain National Bank's former market area and to maintain and develop customer relationships. Northwest Bank intends to maintain the advisory board for a period of at least one year. Each member of the advisory board will receive annual cash compensation consistent with the customary compensation paid to members of Northwest Bank's other advisory boards, which is a retainer of $150 per calendar quarter plus $200 per advisory board meeting attended, typically with six meetings scheduled per year.

Indemnification. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Northwest Bancshares has agreed that, following the effective time of the Merger, it will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each present and former officer or director of LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries, including any individual who becomes an officer or director of LNB Bancorp or its subsidiaries prior to the closing of the Merger, against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorney's fees), liabilities, judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative, based in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of LNB Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries if such claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the closing of the Merger (including, without limitation, the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by LNB Bancorp under LNB Bancorp's articles of incorporation or bylaws, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, regardless of whether such claim is asserted or claimed before or after the effective time of the Merger.

Directors and Officers Insurance. Northwest Bancshares has further agreed, for a period of six years after the effective time of the Merger, to maintain, or to cause Northwest Bank to maintain, the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering the officers and directors of LNB Bancorp (provided, that Northwest Bancshares may substitute policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger. Northwest Bancshares is not required to spend, in the aggregate, more than 150% of the annual premiums currently paid by LNB Bancorp for its insurance coverage.

Employee Matters

Northwest Bancshares will review all compensation and benefit plans of LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries to determine whether to maintain, terminate or continue such plans. If reasonably requested by Northwest Bancshares in writing no later than ten days before the closing date, and upon satisfaction by Northwest Bancshares of certain conditions in the Merger Agreement, LNB Bancorp will take steps to freeze or terminate any such compensation and benefit plan (other than the LNB Bancorp pension plan), provided that such plan can be terminated within such time frame prior to the closing. In the event employee compensation and/or benefits as currently provided by LNB Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries are changed or terminated by Northwest Bancshares, in whole or in part, a continuing employee will be able to participate in any Northwest Bancshares employee plan of similar character either immediately at closing or on the first entry date following closing. Employees of LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank who become participants in any Northwest Bancshares compensation and benefit plan shall, for purposes of determining eligibility for, and for any applicable vesting periods of, such employee benefits (but not for purposes of accruing or computing benefits) be given credit for service as an employee of LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank prior to the closing of the Merger, except that they will be treated as new employees for purposes of the Northwest Bank employee stock ownership plan, the Northwest Bancshares pension plan, the Northwest Bank holiday bonus plan, the Northwest Bancshares management bonus plan and any Northwest Bancshares equity plan. Continuing LNB Bancorp and Lorain National Bank employees will receive credit for years of service with LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank for purposes of determining leave days under Northwest Bank's vacation, personal and sick leave policies, and/or for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, actively-at-work requirements and evidence of insurability requirements. In the event of the termination of an LNB Bancorp health plan or consolidation of such plan with a Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank health plan, Northwest Bancshares will make available to continuing employees and their eligible dependents employer-provided health care coverage on the same basis as it provides such coverage to Northwest Bancshares employees. Northwest Bancshares will use commercially reasonable efforts to waive limitations as to preexisting conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements under Northwest Bancshares' health and welfare plans for such continuing employees.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, if requested by Northwest Bancshares within 60 days prior to the Merger, LNB Bancorp will terminate the Lorain National Bank 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger. As soon as administratively practicable following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the IRS regarding the qualified status of the plans, upon their termination, the account balances of all participants and beneficiaries in the plans will either be distributed or transferred to an eligible tax-qualified retirement plan or individual retirement account, as directed by the participant or beneficiary.

Any employee of Lorain National Bank, other than an employee who is a party to an employment agreement, change in control agreement or other separation agreement that provides a benefit on a termination of employment, whose employment is terminated involuntarily (other than for cause) within six months following the completion of the Merger, will receive a lump sum severance payment from Northwest Bank equal to two weeks' pay at the rate then in effect, for each full year of employment with Lorain National Bank, subject to a minimum of four weeks and a maximum of 26 weeks, provided that such employee enters into a release of claims in a form satisfactory to Northwest Bancshares. Such Lorain National Bank employees will have the right to receive the same or substantially similar health coverage under the group health plans of Northwest Bank on the basis of the same employee contribution rate for the period for which the severance payments are made, and following such period, in accordance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Northwest Bancshares will establish a retention bonus pool of up to $375,000 in order to pay certain retention bonuses to selected employees of Lorain National Bank who remain employed with Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank for a period, as specified by Northwest Bancshares, of up to four months after the Merger closing date.

Operations of Northwest Bank after the Merger

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares, with Northwest Bancshares as the surviving entity. Following the merger of LNB Bancorp with and into Northwest Bancshares, Northwest Bancshares intends to merge Lorain National Bank with and into Northwest Bank, with Northwest Bank as the surviving bank. The executive officers of Northwest Bank will remain the same following the Merger, and one director of Lorain National Bank will be added to the Northwest Bank board of directors.

Resale of Shares of Northwest Bancshares Common Stock

All shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock issued to LNB Bancorp's shareholders in connection with the Merger will be freely transferable. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not cover any resales of the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be received by LNB Bancorp's shareholders upon completion of the Merger, and no person may use this Proxy Statement/Prospectus in connection with any resale.

Time of Completion

Unless the parties agree otherwise and unless the Merger Agreement has otherwise been terminated, the closing of the Merger will take place no later than 10 business days following the date on which all of the conditions to the Merger contained in the Merger Agreement are satisfied or waived. See Conditions to Completing the Merger. On the closing date, to merge LNB Bancorp into Northwest Bancshares, Northwest Bancshares will file Articles of Merger with the Maryland Secretary of State and a Certificate of Merger with the Ohio Secretary of State. The Merger will become effective at the time stated in the Articles of Merger and the Certificate of Merger.

It is currently expected that the Merger will be completed during the third quarter of 2015. However, because completion of the Merger is subject to regulatory approvals and other conditions, the parties cannot be certain of the actual timing of the completion of the Merger.

Conditions to Completing the Merger

Northwest Bancshares' and LNB Bancorp's obligations to consummate the Merger are conditioned on the following:

approval of the Merger Agreement by LNB Bancorp shareholders;

no party to the Merger Agreement shall be subject to any order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction, and no statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated, interpreted, applied or enforced by any governmental entity or bank regulator, that enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

receipt of all required regulatory approvals and the expiration of all statutory waiting periods;

the registration statement, of which this document forms a part, being declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the absence of any pending or threatened proceeding by the Securities and Exchange Commission to suspend the effectiveness of the registration statement and the receipt of all required state securities laws approvals; and the additional shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be issued in the Merger are approved for listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market upon notice of issuance.

In addition, Northwest Bancshares' obligations to consummate the Merger are conditioned on the following:

the representations and warranties of LNB Bancorp contained in the Merger Agreement shall be true and correct as of the closing date of the Merger (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date), subject to the materiality standards in the Merger Agreement, and Northwest Bancshares shall have received a written certificate from LNB Bancorp's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer to that effect;

LNB Bancorp shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with at or before the effective time of the Merger, and Northwest Bancshares shall have received a written certificate from LNB Bancorp's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer to that effect;

LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries shall have obtained any and all permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger, the failure of which to obtain would have a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) on either LNB Bancorp or Northwest Bancshares;

None of the regulatory approvals necessary to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement includes any condition or requirement that would result in a Burdensome Condition (as defined below); and Northwest Bancshares shall have received an opinion from its counsel, dated as of the closing date of the Merger, to the effect that the Merger constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a Burdensome Condition is defined as any prohibition, limitation, or other requirement that would: (a) prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Northwest Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries of all or any material portion of the business or assets of LNB Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries; (b) compel Northwest Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of LNB Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries; (c) impose a material compliance burden, penalty or obligation on Northwest Bancshares or any of its subsidiaries resulting from noncompliance by LNB Bancorp with its regulatory obligations; or (d) otherwise materially impair the value of LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries to Northwest Bancshares and its subsidiaries.

In addition, LNB Bancorp's obligations to consummate the Merger are conditioned on the following:

the representations and warranties of Northwest Bancshares contained in the Merger Agreement shall be true and correct as of the closing date of the Merger (except to the extent such representations and warranties speak as of an earlier date), subject to the materiality standard provided in the Merger Agreement, and LNB Bancorp shall have received a written certificate from Northwest Bancshares' Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer to that effect;

Northwest Bancshares shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with at or before the effective time of the Merger, and LNB Bancorp shall have received a written certificate from Northwest Bancshares' Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer to that effect;

LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries shall have obtained any and all permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger, the failure of which to obtain would have a Material Adverse Effect on Northwest Bancshares;

Northwest Bancshares shall have delivered the merger consideration to the exchange agent, and the exchange agent shall have provided to LNB Bancorp a certificate evidencing such delivery; and LNB Bancorp shall have received an opinion from its counsel, dated as of the closing date of the Merger, to the effect that the Merger constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp cannot guarantee that all of the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so.

Conduct of Business Before the Merger

LNB Bancorp has agreed that, until completion of the Merger and unless permitted by Northwest Bancshares, neither LNB Bancorp nor its subsidiaries will: conduct its business other than in the usual, regular and ordinary course of business;

fail to use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises;

Table of Contents

take any action that would materially adversely affect its ability to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement or its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

adversely affect or delay the ability of Northwest Bancshares of LNB Bancorp to obtain regulatory approvals contemplated by the Merger Agreement or materially increase the time necessary to obtain such approvals;

adjust, split, combine or reclassify its capital stock;

pay any cash dividend, stock dividends or make any other distribution on its capital stock, other than the declaration and payment of a regular quarterly cash dividend of no more than $0.03 per share or dividends paid from its subsidiaries to LNB Bancorp;

Additional Covenants of LNB Bancorp and Northwest Bancshares in the Merger Agreement

Agreement Not to Solicit Other Proposals. LNB Bancorp and its subsidiaries, and their officers, directors, employees, representatives, affiliates and other agents have agreed not to: (1) initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal by a third party; (2) participate in discussions or negotiations regarding an acquisition proposal; (3) release any person from provisions of, waive, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which LNB Bancorp is a party; or (4) enter into any agreement that constitutes an acquisition proposal.

An acquisition proposal is a proposal that could lead to the following transactions:

any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution, or other similar transaction involving LNB Bancorp or its subsidiaries and representing, in the aggregate, 25% or more of LNB Bancorp's consolidated assets;

any sale, lease or other disposition of assets of LNB Bancorp or its subsidiaries and representing, in the aggregate, 25% or more of LNB Bancorp's consolidated assets;

any issuance, sale, or disposition of securities representing 25% or more of the voting power of LNB Bancorp capital stock in the election of directors; and any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of LNB Bancorp.

Despite the agreement of LNB Bancorp not to solicit other acquisition proposals, LNB Bancorp may generally negotiate or have discussions with, or provide information to, a third party who makes a bona fide unsolicited written acquisition proposal prior to the LNB Bancorp shareholders meeting to vote on the Merger Agreement, provided that the LNB Bancorp board of directors determines in its good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and independent financial advisor, that the acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal, meaning that it is reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to the LNB Bancorp shareholders from a financial point of view than the Merger.

If LNB Bancorp receives an acquisition proposal or information request from a third party or enters into negotiations with a third party regarding a superior proposal, LNB Bancorp must promptly notify Northwest Bancshares (and in any event within 24 hours) of the receipt of the acquisition proposal or information request and provide Northwest Bancshares with information about the third party and its proposal or information request.

Certain Other Covenants. The Merger Agreement also contains other agreements relating to the conduct of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp before consummation of the Merger, including the following:

LNB Bancorp will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of Northwest Bancshares to inform Northwest Bancshares regarding LNB Bancorp's operations at such times as Northwest Bancshares may reasonably request; each party will meet with the other party on a regular basis to discuss and plan for the conversion of LNB Bancorp's data processing and related electronic information systems;

LNB Bancorp will permit Northwest Bancshares reasonable access to LNB Bancorp's property, books and records in which Northwest Bancshares may have a reasonable interest;

LNB Bancorp will promptly provide Northwest Bancshares with a copy of all documents LNB Bancorp files with its banking regulators;

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp will use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all third-party consents necessary to consummate the Merger;

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp will use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary consents and approvals of third parties necessary to complete the Merger and related transactions;

Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp will use all reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

Northwest Bancshares will file a registration statement, of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, with the Securities and Exchange Commission registering the shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock to be issued in the Merger to LNB Bancorp shareholders;

LNB Bancorp will take all actions necessary to convene a meeting of its shareholders to vote on the Merger Agreement and the Merger. LNB Bancorp's board of directors will recommend at its shareholders meeting that the shareholders vote to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger and will use commercially reasonable efforts to solicit shareholders' approval. However, the LNB Bancorp board of directors may fail to make such recommendation or change or withdraw its recommendation if LNB Bancorp's board of directors, after consultation with and consideration of the advice of its financial and legal advisors, determines, in good faith, that making such a recommendation would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

before completion of the Merger, Northwest Bancshares will notify The NASDAQ Global Select Market of the additional shares of Northwest Bancshares common stock that Northwest Bancshares will issue in exchange for shares of LNB Bancorp common stock; and LNB Bancorp will terminate its 401(k) plan immediately prior to the effective date.

Terminating the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time before the completion of the Merger, either before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by LNB Bancorp or Northwest Bancshares shareholders, as follows:

by the mutual written consent of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp;

by either party, if there has been a material breach of any of the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement by the other party, subject to the standard set forth in the Merger Agreement, which breach cannot be cured prior to the closing date, or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to such party of such breach;

by either party, if there has been a material failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement by the other party, which failure cannot be cured prior to the closing date or has not been cured upon 30 days written notice of such failure by the terminating party to the other party;

by either party, if the Merger has not been consummated by September 30, 2015, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that time was due to such party's material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement provided in the Merger Agreement, provided that this date shall be extended to December 31, 2015 if the inability to complete the Merger is solely due to delay in receiving required regulatory approvals;

by either party, if the shareholders of LNB Bancorp have voted at the LNB Bancorp shareholders meeting and the vote was not sufficient to approve the Merger Agreement or the Merger;

by either party, if a required regulatory approval, consent or waiver is denied or any governmental entity prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

by Northwest Bancshares if (a) LNB Bancorp has materially breached its obligations relating to an acquisition proposal by a third party or its obligations relating to the LNB Bancorp shareholders' meeting, (b) the LNB Bancorp board of directors submits the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval, or (c) prior to the LNB Bancorp shareholders meeting, the LNB Bancorp board of directors approves or recommends the approval of a superior proposal and withdraws, qualifies or modifies its recommendation to the LNB Bancorp shareholders to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger;

by Northwest Bancshares if LNB Bancorp has received a superior proposal and the board of directors of LNB Bancorp has entered into an agreement with respect to such proposal, terminated the Merger

Agreement, withdrawn its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, has failed to make such recommendation or has modified or qualified its recommendation in a manner adverse to Northwest Bancshares; or by LNB Bancorp if LNB Bancorp has received a superior proposal and the board of directors of LNB Bancorp has determined to accept such superior proposal.

Termination Fee

The Merger Agreement requires LNB Bancorp to pay Northwest Bancshares a fee of $7.3 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances that involve a competing offer. Specifically, LNB Bancorp must pay the termination fee if Northwest Bancshares terminates the Merger Agreement as a result of a breach by LNB Bancorp of its covenant regarding the solicitation of competing offers or its obligation to call a shareholders meeting or if LNB Bancorp's board of directors fails to recommend approval of the Merger or withdraws, qualifies, or revises its recommendation to approve the Merger.

LNB Bancorp also must pay the termination fee if (i) Northwest Bancshares terminates the Merger Agreement because LNB Bancorp has entered into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal,

Table of Contents

(ii) LNB Bancorp terminates the Merger Agreement because it has accepted a superior proposal or (iii) LNB Bancorp enters into a definitive merger agreement within one year of Northwest Bancshares terminating the Merger Agreement due to LNB Bancorp's willful breach of a representation, warranty or covenant or failure of LNB Bancorp's shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement, after LNB Bancorp's receipt of an acquisition proposal.

The Merger Agreement further requires Northwest Bancshares to pay LNB Bancorp a fee of $3.65 million if LNB Bancorp terminates the Merger Agreement because a required regulatory approval is denied solely due to regulatory concerns related to Northwest Bancshares and its subsidiaries.

Expenses

Each of Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp will pay its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger. In the event of a termination of the Merger Agreement because of a willful breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, the breaching party will remain liable for any and all damages, costs and expenses, including all reasonable attorney's fees sustained or incurred by the non-breaching party as a result thereof or in connection therewith or in connection with enforcing its rights under the Merger Agreement.

Changing the Terms of the Merger Agreement

Before the completion of the Merger, Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp may agree to waive, amend or modify any provision of the Merger Agreement. However, after the vote by LNB Bancorp shareholders, Northwest Bancshares and LNB Bancorp may not make any amendment or modification that would reduce the amount or alter the kind of consideration to be received by LNB Bancorp's shareholders under the terms of the Merger Agreement.

LNB Bancorp does not as a matter of course publicly disclose internal management forecasts or projections as to future financial performance due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. At the time the financial forecasts were prepared, they represented the best good faith estimates and judgments of the management team of LNB Bancorp that prepared the forecasts. These financial forecasts cannot be relied on as necessarily predictive of actual future operating results, and no assurance can be given regarding future events. The projections represent LNB Bancorp's independent forecasts. The financial forecasts were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants with respect to prospective financial information or published guidelines of the Securities and Exchange Commission regarding forward-looking statements and do not fully comply with GAAP. Neither LNB Bancorp nor Northwest Bancshares relied solely upon the projections disclosed above in determining whether to approve the Merger. LNB Bancorp engaged a financial advisor who utilized financial information for LNB Bancorp, as described in Description of the Merger Opinion of LNB Bancorp's Financial Advisors, which was different in some respects from the financial forecasts disclosed in the tables above, including the use of publicly available financial and other information, such as stock trading information. In light of the foregoing, and considering that the LNB Bancorp shareholders' meeting will be held several months after the financial forecasts were prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any financial forecasts, readers are cautioned not to rely on these financial forecasts as a predictor of future operating results or otherwise.

The estimates and assumptions underlying the financial forecasts of LNB Bancorp involve assumptions and judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions. These estimates and assumptions may not be realized and are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties, including those risk factors detailed in the sections entitled Risk Factors and Caution About Forward-Looking Statements, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of LNB Bancorp and will be beyond the control of the combined company after the Merger. Estimates or projections of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. In addition, the financial forecasts prepared by LNB Bancorp represent its own evaluation of its future financial performance on a stand-alone basis, and without reference to transaction-related costs or benefits. Accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those presented in the financial forecasts, and actual value or future results could be significantly more or less favorable than what is suggested by the forecasts. The inclusion of these financial forecasts should not be interpreted as an indication that LNB Bancorp or Northwest Bancshares considers this information to be necessarily predictive of actual future results, and this information should not be relied on for that purpose. Northwest Bancshares and its management did not participate in preparing, and do not express any view on, the LNB Bancorp financial forecasts set forth above, or the assumptions underlying such financial forecasts.

The prospective financial information of LNB Bancorp included in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, the management team of LNB Bancorp. Neither LNB Bancorp's auditors, nor any other independent registered public accounting firm, nor LNB Bancorp's or Northwest Bancshares' financial advisors have examined, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to these forecasts, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on this information or its achievability.

LNB Bancorp does not intend to disclose publicly any update or other revision to these forecasts to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events or changes in general economic or industry conditions, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error.

Table of ContentsDESCRIPTION OF NORTHWEST BANCSHARES, INC. CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary describes the material terms of Northwest Bancshares' capital stock and is subject to, and qualified by, Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation and bylaws and applicable Maryland law. See Where You Can Find More Information as to how to obtain a copy of Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation and bylaws.

General

Northwest Bancshares is currently authorized to issue 500,000,000 shares of common stock having a par value of $0.01 per share, and 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock having a par value of $0.01 per share. At April 22, 2015, 94,491,433 shares of common stock were outstanding. At that date, no preferred shares were outstanding.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. Holders of common stock of Northwest Bancshares have exclusive voting rights in Northwest Bancshares. They elect Northwest Bancshares' board of directors and act on other matters that are required to be presented to them under Maryland law or that are otherwise presented to them by the board of directors. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share and does not have any right to cumulate votes in the election of directors. However, any person who beneficially owns more than 10% of the then-outstanding shares of Northwest Bancshares' common stock is not entitled or permitted to vote any shares of common stock held in excess of the 10% limit. If Northwest Bancshares issues shares of preferred stock, holders of the preferred stock may also possess voting rights. Certain matters require the approval of 80% of Northwest Bancshares' outstanding common stock.

Dividends. Northwest Bancshares generally may pay dividends on its common stock if, after giving effect to such distribution, (i) it would be able to pay its indebtedness as the indebtedness comes due in the usual course of business or (ii) its total assets exceed the sum of its liabilities and the amount needed, if Northwest Bancshares were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of any holders of capital stock who have a preference in the event of dissolution. The holders of common stock of Northwest Bancshares are entitled to receive and share equally in dividends as may be declared by Northwest Bancshares' board of directors out of funds legally available therefor. If Northwest Bancshares issues shares of preferred stock, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the common stock with respect to dividends. The payment of dividends by Northwest Bancshares is also subject to limitations that are imposed by federal law, regulation and policy.

The Federal Reserve has issued a policy statement providing that dividends should be paid only out of current earnings and only if the holding company's prospective rate of earnings retention is consistent with its capital needs, asset quality and overall financial condition. Federal regulatory guidance also provides for prior regulatory consultation with respect to capital distributions in certain circumstances such as where the holding company's net income for the past four quarters, net of dividends previously paid over that period, is insufficient to fully fund the dividend or the holding company's overall rate or earnings retention is inconsistent with its capital needs and overall financial condition.

Liquidation. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Northwest Bancshares, the holders of its common stock would be entitled to receive, after payment or provision for payment of all its debts and liabilities (including payments with respect to its liquidation account), all of the assets of Northwest Bancshares available for distribution. If preferred stock is issued, the holders thereof may have a priority over the holders of the common stock in the event of liquidation or dissolution.

Preemptive Rights. Holders of the common stock of Northwest Bancshares are not entitled to preemptive rights with respect to any shares that may be issued. The common stock is not subject to redemption.

Preferred Stock

Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation authorizes its board of directors, without stockholder action, to issue preferred stock in one or more series and to establish the designations, dividend rates and rights, dissolution or liquidation rights, preferences, price and terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed, terms and conditions for conversion or exchange into any other class or series of the stock, voting rights and other terms. The issuance of preferred stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could, among other things, adversely affect the voting power of the holders of common stock and could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Northwest Bancshares.

Certain Articles of Incorporation and Bylaw Provisions Affecting Northwest Bancshares Common Stock

Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation and bylaws contain several provisions that may make Northwest Bancshares a less attractive target for an acquisition of control by anyone who does not have the support of Northwest Bancshares' board of directors. Such provisions include, among other things, the requirement of a supermajority vote of stockholders or directors to approve certain business combinations and other corporate actions, special procedural rules regarding nomination for election to the board of directors or the introduction of new business at meetings of stockholders, a staggered board of directors, and a vote limitation on shares owned in excess of 10% of Northwest Bancshares' outstanding shares. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to Northwest Bancshares' articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Restrictions on Ownership

Under the Change in Bank Control Act, no person may acquire control of a savings and loan holding company such as Northwest Bancshares unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days' prior written notice and has not disapproved the proposed acquisition, taking into consideration certain factors, including the financial and managerial resources of the acquirer and the competitive effects of the acquisition. Control, as defined under federal law, means ownership, control of or holding irrevocable proxies representing more than 25% of any class of voting stock, control in any manner of the election of a majority of Northwest Bancshares' directors, or a determination by the regulator that the acquiror has the power, directly or indirectly, to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of Northwest Bancshares. Acquisition of more than 10% of any class of a savings and loan holding company's voting stock constitutes a rebuttable determination of control under Federal Reserve Board regulations where, as is the case with Northwest Bancshares, the issuer has registered securities under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Any company that acquires such control becomes a savings and loan holding company subject to registration, examination and regulation by the Federal Reserve.

Under Maryland law, a corporation may not indemnify a director or officer if it is established that: (i) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding; and (1) was committed in bad faith or (2) was the result of active and

Under Maryland law, a corporation may not indemnify a director or officer who has been adjudged liable in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or in which the director or officer was adjudged liable to the corporation or on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received. A court may order indemnification if it determines that the director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, even though the director did not meet the prescribed standard of conduct, was adjudged liable to the corporation or was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received; however, indemnification for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation, or for a judgment of liability on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received, is limited to expenses. for expenses actually and reasonably incurred defending or settling (on the merits or otherwise) an action, suit or proceeding (including certain derivative suits) to the extent they have been successful on the merits or otherwise. A corporation may indemnify such persons for liability in such actions, suits or proceedings if the person acted in good faith and in a matter he or she believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Indemnification in these situations may be made only if ordered by a court or authorized in each specific case upon a determination by the majority of disinterested directors, independent legal counsel or the shareholders that the appropriate standard has been met. No indemnification shall be made in respect of a claim against such person by or in the right of the corporation if the person is judged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, except by court order.

PROPOSAL 2 MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

As required by the federal securities laws, LNB Bancorp is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory, non-binding vote on the compensation that may become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the completion of the Merger, as disclosed in the section of this document captioned Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours and the related table and narrative.

Your vote is requested. LNB Bancorp believes that the information regarding compensation that may become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the completion of the Merger is reasonable and demonstrates that LNB Bancorp's executive compensation program was designed appropriately and structured to ensure the retention of talented executives and a strong alignment with the long-term interests of LNB Bancorp shareholders. This vote is not intended to address any specific item of compensation, but rather the overall compensation that may become payable to LNB Bancorp's executive officers in connection with the Merger. This vote is separate and independent from the vote of shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger. LNB Bancorp asks that its shareholders vote FOR the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may become payable to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers in connection with the completion of the Merger, as disclosed in the section captioned Proposal 1 Description of the Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger that are Different from Yours and the related tables and narrative, is hereby approved.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to the Completion of this Merger. In addition, this vote is advisory and, therefore, it will not be binding on LNB Bancorp, nor will it overrule any prior decision of LNB Bancorp or require LNB Bancorp's board of directors (or any committee thereof) to take any action. However, LNB Bancorp's board of directors values the opinions of LNB Bancorp's shareholders, and to the extent that there is any significant vote against the named executive officer compensation as disclosed in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, LNB Bancorp's board of directors will consider shareholders' concerns and will evaluate whether any actions are necessary to address those concerns. LNB Bancorp's board of directors will consider the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast on the matter FOR the foregoing resolution as advisory approval of the compensation that may become payable to LNB Bancorp's named executive officers in connection with the completion of the Merger.

LNB BANCORP'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE ADVISORY, NON-BINDING PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION.

PROPOSAL 3 ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

If there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or to approve the Merger Agreement and the Merger at the time of the LNB Bancorp special meeting, the Merger Agreement cannot be approved unless the LNB Bancorp special meeting is adjourned to a later date or dates to permit further solicitation of proxies. To allow proxies that have been received by LNB Bancorp at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if deemed necessary, LNB Bancorp has submitted the question of adjournment to its shareholders as a separate matter for their consideration. The board of directors of LNB Bancorp unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the Adjournment Proposal. If it is deemed necessary to adjourn the special meeting, no notice of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to shareholders, other than an announcement at the meeting of the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned, as well as the means, if any, by which shareholders can be present and vote at the adjourned meeting through the use of communications equipment.

If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall forfeit such right to payment of the fair value under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL, each holder's Dissenting Shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest.

3.2.5. If the Stock Election Number is less than the Stock Conversion Number (the amount by which the Stock Conversion Number exceeds the Stock Election Number being referred to herein as the Shortfall Number), then all Stock Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Non-Election Shares and Cash Election Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

afford access, to any Person (other than Northwest Bancshares) any information or data with respect to LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal; (iii) release any Person from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which LNB Bancorp is a party; or (iv) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or approve or resolve to approve any Acquisition Proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Any violation of the foregoing restrictions by LNB Bancorp or any LNB Bancorp Representative, whether or not such Representative is so authorized and whether or not such LNB Bancorp Representative is purporting to act on behalf of LNB Bancorp or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by LNB Bancorp. LNB Bancorp and LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries shall, and shall cause each of the LNB Bancorp Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any and all existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any Persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Northwest Bancshares), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction shall mean (A) any transaction or series of transactions, including by way of merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, involving LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries and representing, in the aggregate, twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the assets of LNB Bancorp and the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the assets of LNB Bancorp and the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the total voting power of LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries in the election of directors; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the total voting power of LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries in the election of directors; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

6.10.2. Notwithstanding Section 6.10.1, LNB Bancorp may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 6.10.1 only if, (i) LNB Bancorp has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal prior to the LNB Bancorp Stockholders Meeting that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10; (ii) the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel and its independent financial advisor, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a Superior Proposal; (iii) LNB Bancorp has provided Northwest Bancshares with at least one (1) Business Day's prior notice of such determination; and (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, LNB Bancorp receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to LNB Bancorp than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement dated October 14, 2014. LNB Bancorp shall promptly provide to Northwest Bancshares any non-public information regarding LNB Bancorp or the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries provided to any other Person that was not previously provided to Northwest Bancshares, such additional information to be provided no later than twenty-four (24) hours from provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor (i) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of at least fifty percent (50%) of the issued and outstanding shares of LNB Bancorp Common Stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of LNB Bancorp and the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the shares of LNB Bancorp Common Stock that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to the LNB Bancorp Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered, the percentage of the outstanding LNB Bancorp Common Stock proposed to be acquired, and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond or in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining additional financing and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to the LNB Bancorp Stockholders than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal; provided that, for the purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, the references to twenty-five percent (25%) in the definition of Acquisition Proposal shall be fifty percent (50%).

6.10.3. LNB Bancorp shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify Northwest Bancshares in writing if any proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, LNB Bancorp or any LNB Bancorp Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the Person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such proposal, offer or information request and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (and, in the case of written materials relating to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications)). LNB Bancorp agrees that it shall keep Northwest Bancshares informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including any amendments or modifications to such proposal, offer or request).

6.10.4. Subject to Section 6.10.5, neither the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Northwest Bancshares in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), the LNB Bancorp Recommendation (as defined in Section 8.1), or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the LNB Bancorp Stockholders Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the LNB Bancorp Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the LNB Bancorp Recommendation); (ii) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) enter into (or cause LNB Bancorp or any of the LNB Bancorp Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (A) related to any Acquisition Transaction (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.10.2) or (B) requiring LNB Bancorp to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

6.10.5. Notwithstanding Section 6.10.4, at any time prior to the approval of the Merger at the LNB Bancorp Stockholders Meeting, the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors may approve or recommend to the stockholders of LNB Bancorp a Superior Proposal and withdraw, qualify or modify the LNB Bancorp Recommendation in connection therewith (an LNB Bancorp Subsequent Determination) after the third (3rd) Business Day following Northwest Bancshares' receipt of a notice (the Notice of Superior Proposal) from LNB Bancorp advising Northwest Bancshares that the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received (that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.10) constitutes a Superior Proposal (it being understood that LNB Bancorp shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal in respect of any revised Superior Proposal from such third party or its affiliates that LNB Bancorp proposes to accept and the subsequent notice period shall be two (2) business days) if, but only if, (i) the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor, that the failure to take such actions would be reasonably likely to violate its fiduciary duties to LNB Bancorp's stockholders under applicable law, and (ii) at the end of such three (3) Business Day period or the two (2) Business Day Period (as the case may be), after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been committed to in writing by Northwest Bancshares since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal (provided, however, that Northwest Bancshares shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement), the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors has again in good faith made the determination (A) in clause (i) of this Section 6.10.5, and (B) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the changing, qualifying or modifying of the LNB Bancorp Recommendation or the making of an LNB Bancorp Subsequent Determination by the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors shall not change the approval of the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors for purposes of causing any applicable moratorium, control share, fair price, takeover, interested stockholder or similar law to be inapplicable to this Agreement and the LNB Bancorp Voting Agreements and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the Merger.

6.11. Board of Directors and Committee Meetings.

Following the receipt of all Regulatory Approvals (without regard to any waiting periods associated therewith), LNB Bancorp shall permit representatives of Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank (no more than two) to attend any meeting of its Board of Directors or the Executive and Loan Committees thereof as an observer, subject to the Confidentiality Agreement, provided that LNB Bancorp shall not be required to permit the representative to remain present during any confidential discussion of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or any third party proposal to acquire control of LNB Bancorp or during any other matter (i) that the respective Board of Directors has reasonably determined to be confidential with respect to the participation of Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank, or (ii) that LNB Bancorp would not be required to disclose under Section 6.3.3 hereof.

6.12. LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan.

If requested by Northwest Bancshares in writing no later than sixty (60) days prior to the Effective Time, and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Time, LNB Bancorp shall cause to be adopted prior to the Effective Time resolutions of the board of directors of LNB Bancorp and any necessary amendments to terminate the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time or cease all contributions to the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan maintained or sponsored by LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank, and to prohibit the entry of new participants to the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan as of the day preceding the Closing Date. In the sole discretion of Northwest Bancshares, the 401(k) Plan may be merged into the Northwest Bancshares 401(k) Plan or terminated immediately prior to the Effective Time. The form and substance of such resolutions and any necessary amendments shall be subject to the review and approval of Northwest Bancshares, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. LNB Bancorp shall deliver to Northwest Bancshares an executed copy of such resolutions and any necessary amendments as soon as practicable following their adoption by the board of directors of LNB Bancorp and shall fully comply with such resolutions and any necessary amendments. If, in accordance with this Section 6.12, Northwest Bancshares requests in writing that LNB Bancorp freeze entry of new participants into the 401(k) Plan, (but does not immediately terminate or merge the 401(k) Plan), LNB Bancorp shall take such actions as Northwest Bancshares may reasonably require in furtherance of the assumption of the 401(k) Plan by Northwest Bancshares, including, but not limited to, adopting such amendments to the 401(k) Plan as may be necessary to effect such assumption. If Northwest Bancshares requests that LNB Bancorp terminate the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan, LNB Bancorp shall, prior to the Closing Date submit a request to the IRS for a favorable determination letter as to the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan's tax-qualified status under Code Section 401(a) on termination. After the Effective Time, Northwest Bancshares shall be responsible for any procedures necessary for winding down the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan, including, without limitation, preparing any further filings with the IRS, locating plan participants, distributing plan accounts and establishing individual retirement accounts to receive plan distributions, if necessary. In addition, as soon as practicable after the receipt of such favorable determination letter, Northwest Bancshares will allow Continuing Employees to rollover the assets of their accounts in the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan (including any loans and promissory notes) to the Northwest Bancshares 401(k) Plan and, if necessary, make any amendments to the Northwest Bancshares 401(k) Plan to effectuate such rollovers.

6.13. Intentionally Omitted.

6.14. Termination of LNB Bancorp Stock Appreciation Rights Plan.

Prior to the Effective Time, LNB Bancorp shall terminate the LNB Bancorp Stock Appreciation Rights Plan, effective as of the Effective Time. The outstanding LNB Bancorp Stock Appreciation Rights thereunder, all of which have an exercise price in excess of the Merger Consideration on a per share basis, shall be cancelled without consideration immediately prior to the Effective Time.

6.15. Trust Preferred Securities.

LNB Bancorp shall take all necessary steps to permit the outstanding Junior Subordinated Debentures issued by LNB Bancorp in conjunction with the sale of $16.3 million of LNB Trust Preferred Securities through the LNB Trusts to transfer to Northwest Bancshares at the Effective Time.

6.16. Rule 16b-3.

LNB Bancorp shall take all steps, as may be necessary or appropriate, to cause the transactions contemplated by Article III and any other dispositions of equity securities of LNB Bancorp (including derivative securities) or acquisitions of equity securities of Northwest Bancshares in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS OF NORTHWEST BANCSHARES

7.1. Conduct of Business.

During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except with the written consent of LNB Bancorp, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, Northwest Bancshares will, and it will cause each Northwest Bancshares Subsidiary to, use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises; and voluntarily take no action that would: (i) adversely affect the ability of the parties to obtain the Regulatory Approvals or materially increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals; (ii) materially adversely affect its ability to perform its covenants and agreements under this Agreement; or (iii) result in the representations and warranties contained in Article V of this Agreement not being true and correct on the date of this Agreement or at any future date on or prior to the Closing Date or in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX hereof not being satisfied.

7.2. Disclosure Supplements.

From time to time prior to the Effective Time, Northwest Bancshares will promptly supplement or amend the Northwest Bancshares Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such Northwest Bancshares Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such Northwest Bancshares Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered materially inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to such Northwest Bancshares Disclosure Schedule shall have any effect for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

7.3. Consents and Approvals of Third Parties.

Northwest Bancshares shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.4. All Reasonable Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, Northwest Bancshares agrees to use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Northwest Bancshares shall not, and shall not permit any Northwest Bancshares Subsidiary to, take any action or knowingly fail to take any reasonable action that would, or would be reasonably likely to, prevent, impede, or delay the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

7.5. Failure to Fulfill Conditions.

In the event that Northwest Bancshares determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will promptly notify LNB Bancorp.

7.6. Employee Benefits; Advisory Board.

7.6.1 Except as set forth in LNB Bancorp Disclosure Schedule or as otherwise provided in Section 6.12 or this Section 7.6.1 of this Agreement, as of or after the Effective Time, and at Northwest Bancshares' election and subject to the requirements of the Code, the LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plans may continue to be maintained separately, consolidated, frozen or terminated. If reasonably requested by Northwest Bancshares in writing not later than ten (10) days before the Closing Date and provided that Northwest Bancshares has indicated in writing that the conditions to its obligations set forth in Section 9.2 hereof have been satisfied or waived, LNB Bancorp shall take such steps within its power to effectuate a freeze or termination of any LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan as of the Effective Time (other than the LNB Bancorp Pension Plan), provided that the LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan can be frozen or terminated within such period under the terms of such plan and any applicable laws and regulations. In the event of a consolidation of any or all of such plans or in the event of termination of any LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan, except as otherwise set forth in this Section 7.6.1, employees of LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank who continue as employees of Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank after the Effective Time (Continuing Employees) shall be eligible to participate in any Northwest Bank employee plan of similar character immediately upon such consolidation or as of the first entry date coincident with or immediately following such termination. Continuing Employees shall receive credit for service with LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting but not for purposes of accruing or computing benefits under: (i) any similar existing Northwest Bancshares benefit plan except that Continuing Employees shall be treated as new employees under the Northwest Bancshares ESOP, the Northwest Bancshares Pension Plan, the Northwest Bank holiday bonus plan, Northwest Bank's management bonus plan and all other Northwest Bancshares Stock Benefit Plans, or (ii) any new Northwest Bancshares benefit plan in which Continuing Employees or their dependents would be eligible to enroll. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Continuing Employees shall receive credit for years of service with LNB Bancorp and any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary for purposes of determining leave days under Northwest Bank's vacation, personal and sick leave policies. Such service shall also apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, actively-at-work requirements and evidence of insurability requirements. Continuing Employees shall have no rights in Northwest Bank's terminated post-retirement health benefit plan. This Agreement shall not be construed to limit the ability of Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank to terminate the employment of any LNB Bancorp employee or the employee of any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary or to review any LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan from time to time and to make such changes (including terminating any such plan) as they deem appropriate.

7.6.2 Northwest Bancshares shall honor the contractual terms of all employment, consulting, change in control, and severance agreements and LNB Bancorp Non-Qualified Agreements, if any, listed on LNB Bancorp Disclosure Schedule 4.13.14, except to the extent any such agreement is superseded or terminated as of, or following, the Effective Time of the Bank Merger, or as otherwise set forth herein. Northwest Bancshares shall provide to the individuals listed in LNB Bancorp Disclosure Schedule 7.6.2 who remain employees of LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank until the Effective Time, payment of the amounts that would be payable under such employees employment or change in control or severance agreement as if such individual's employment was terminated at the Effective Time, even if such individual remains employed by Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank following the Effective Time; provided, however that to the extent that any such payment, when aggregated with any other payments contingent on a change in control of LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank would constitute a parachute payment (as such term is defined in Section 280G of the Code), such payments and/or benefits will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid penalties under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code. The estimated amounts payable under such employment and change in control agreements are set forth in the LNB Bancorp Disclosure Schedule 4.13.14. Northwest Bancshares shall consider whether to offer any Continuing Employee an employment or change in control agreement or to offer an employee whose employment is terminated in connection with the Merger a consulting agreement or to request that an employee enter into a non-compete agreement for appropriate consideration.

7.6.3 Any employee of LNB Bancorp or any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary who did not have an employment agreement, change in control agreement or severance agreement and who is not eligible for and entitled to a severance benefit under any other severance plan or program maintained by or with LNB Bancorp or its Subsidiaries, who is not offered employment with Northwest Bancshares or one of its Subsidiaries or whose employment is terminated by Northwest Bancshares or one of its Subsidiaries (other than for cause); including because such employee is not offered employment or is terminated as a result of customary background screening by Northwest Bank at or within six (6) months of the Closing Date, shall receive (i) a cash payment equal to two weeks of such employee's current base salary (or average hourly wage over a two (2) week period) for each year of service with LNB Bancorp, Lorain National Bank or any predecessor to LNB Bancorp or Lorain National Bank, with a minimum payment of four (4) weeks base pay and a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks base pay payable to each such employee, and (ii) be entitled to continue to receive the same or substantially similar medical insurance coverage to which such employee and his or her eligible dependents were enrolled as of the Closing Date (on the basis of the same employee contribution rate) for a period equal to the number of weeks pay to which such employee is entitled pursuant to clause (i) hereof, subject to the execution of a release of claims by such employee satisfactory to Northwest Bancshares. Notwithstanding the forgoing, at the written direction of Northwest Bancshares to LNB Bancorp prior to the Closing, LNB Bancorp shall pay such cash severance benefit to any LNB Bancorp employee or any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary employee whose employment is terminated at Closing. Nothing set forth herein shall be construed to limit the period of continued health care coverage that such employee would be entitled under COBRA.

7.6.4 In the event of any termination of any LNB Bancorp health plan or consolidation of any such plan with any Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank health plan, Northwest Bancshares shall make available to Continuing Employees and their eligible dependents employer-provided health coverage on the same basis as it provides such coverage to Northwest Bancshares employees. Unless a Continuing Employee affirmatively terminates coverage under an LNB Bancorp health plan prior to the time that such Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate in the Northwest Bancshares health plan, no coverage of any of the Continuing Employees or their dependents shall terminate under any of the LNB Bancorp health plans prior to the time such Continuing Employees and their dependents become eligible to participate in the health plans, programs and benefits common to all employees of Northwest Bancshares and their dependents. In the event of a termination or consolidation of any LNB Bancorp health plan, terminated LNB Bancorp employees and qualified beneficiaries will have the right to continued coverage under group health plans of Northwest Bancshares in accordance with COBRA.

7.6.5 Northwest Bancshares agrees to take all such actions related to the LNB Bancorp 401(k) Plan as stated in Section 6.12 of this Agreement.

7.6.6 Effective as of the Closing Date, Northwest Bancshares shall establish the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board, and those persons who serve on the LNB Bancorp Board of Directors (including the LNB Bancorp board member who shall serve on the Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank board, but who shall not be compensated for serving on the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board), shall be offered membership on the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board. Members of the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board shall serve for an initial term of one (1) year from the Effective Time of the Merger. The annual compensation of the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board (other than the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board member who becomes a member of the Northwest Bancshares and Northwest Bank board of directors, who shall serve on the LNB Bancorp Advisory Board without further compensation) shall not exceed the customary amount of compensation generally provided by Northwest Bancshares to members of its other similar advisory boards.

7.6.7 Retention Pool. Northwest Bancshares shall establish a retention pool of up to $375,000 providing for retention bonuses to be paid to Continuing Employees who remain employed with Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank after the Closing for a period specified by Northwest Bancshares or Northwest Bank, not to exceed four (4) months.

Table of Contents

7.6.8 Northwest Bancshares shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) waive all limitations as to preexisting conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to the Continuing Employees and their family members under the health and welfare plans of Northwest Bancshares and its Affiliates (each a Northwest Bancshares Welfare Plan) to the extent waived or otherwise satisfied under the applicable corresponding LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plan immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) provide each Continuing Employee and his or her eligible dependents with credit under the Northwest Bancshares Welfare Plans for any co-payments and deductibles paid under corresponding LNB Bancorp Compensation and Benefit Plans prior to the Closing Date in the calendar year in which the Closing Date occurs for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any Northwest Bancshares Welfare Plans in which the Continuing Employees are eligible to participate after the Closing Date.

7.7. Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.7.1. Northwest Bancshares shall maintain, or shall cause Northwest Bank to maintain, in effect for six years following the Effective Time, the current directors and officers liability insurance policies maintained by LNB Bancorp (provided, that Northwest Bancshares may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall Northwest Bancshares be required to expend pursuant to this Section 7.7.1, in the aggregate for such policy or policies, more than 150% of the annual cost currently expended by LNB Bancorp with respect to such insurance (the Maximum Amount); provided, further, that if the amount of the annual premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Northwest Bancshares shall maintain the most advantageous policies of directors and officers insurance obtainable for an annual premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In connection with the foregoing, LNB Bancorp agrees in order for Northwest Bancshares to fulfill its agreement to provide directors and officers liability insurance policies for six years to provide such insurer or substitute insurer with such representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims.

7.7.2. In addition to Section 7.7.1, after the Effective Time, Northwest Bancshares shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time, an officer or director of LNB Bancorp or an LNB Bancorp Subsidiary (the Indemnified Parties) against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of Northwest Bancshares, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative (each a Claim), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of LNB Bancorp or an LNB Bancorp Subsidiary if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring before the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time (the Indemnified Liabilities), to the fullest extent as would have been permitted by LNB Bancorp under LNB Bancorp's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. Northwest Bancshares shall pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (to the extent not prohibited by federal law) upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if the Indemnified Party shall be adjudicated or determined to be not entitled to indemnification in the manner set forth below. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 7.7.2 upon learning of any Claim, shall notify Northwest Bancshares (but the failure so to notify Northwest Bancshares shall not relieve Northwest Bancshares from any liability which it may have under this Section 7.7.2, except to the extent such failure materially prejudices Northwest Bancshares) and shall deliver to Northwest Bancshares the undertaking referred to in the previous sentence. In the event of any such Claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time) (1) Northwest Bancshares shall have the right to assume the defense thereof (in which event the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter) and upon such assumption Northwest Bancshares shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by any Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Northwest Bancshares elects not to assume such defense, or counsel for the Indemnified Parties reasonably advises the Indemnified Parties that there are or may be (whether or not any have yet actually arisen) issues which raise conflicts of interest between Northwest Bancshares and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to them, and Northwest Bancshares shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties, (2) except to the extent otherwise required due to conflicts of interest, Northwest Bancshares shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph to pay for only one firm or counsel for all Indemnified Parties and the reasonable fees and expenses of such law firm shall be paid promptly as statements are received unless there is a conflict of interest that necessitates more than one law firm, (3) Northwest Bancshares shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and (4) no Indemnified Party shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder with respect to a matter as to which (x) he shall have been adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of LNB Bancorp or any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary, or (y) in the event that a proceeding is compromised or settled so as to impose any liability or obligation upon an Indemnified Party, if there is a determination that with respect to said matter said Indemnified Party did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of LNB Bancorp or any LNB Bancorp Subsidiary. If Northwest Bancshares or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Northwest Bancshares shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.7.

7.7.3. The obligations of Northwest Bancshares provided under this Section 7.7 are intended to be enforceable against Northwest Bancshares directly by the Indemnified Parties and shall be binding on all respective successors and permitted assigns of Northwest Bancshares.

Table of Contents

Northwest Bancshares shall pay all reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees, as incurred and in advance of the final disposition of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation by any Indemnified Party in successfully enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 7.7 to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law; provided, however such payment of costs shall be immediately reimbursed to Northwest Bancshares by such Indemnified Party if the Indemnified Party is not successful enforcing the indemnity or other obligations provided for in this Section 7.7. The rights of each Indemnified Party hereunder shall be in addition to any other rights such Indemnified Party may have under applicable law.

7.8. Stock Listing.

Northwest Bancshares agrees to list on the Nasdaq (or such other national securities exchange on which the shares of the Northwest Bancshares Common Stock shall be listed as of the Closing Date), subject to official notice of issuance, the shares of Northwest Bancshares Common Stock to be issued in the Merger.

7.9. Stock and Cash Reserve.

Northwest Bancshares agrees at all times from the date of this Agreement until the Merger Consideration has been paid in full to reserve a sufficient number of shares of Northwest Bancshares Common Stock and to maintain sufficient liquid accounts to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

7.10. No Acquisitions.

Northwest Bancshares agrees that from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, it will not, and it will cause each of Northwest Bancshares Subsidiaries not to, enter into an agreement to acquire another depository institution, without the prior written consent of LNB Bancorp.

7.11. Trust Preferred Securities.

APPENDIX B

Dissenters' Rights Under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law

1701.85 Dissenting shareholders' compliance with section's fair cash value of shares.

(A)(1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.

(2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal.

(3) Not later than 20 days before the date of the meeting at which the proposal will be submitted to the shareholders, the corporation may notify the corporation's shareholders that relief under this section is available. The notice shall include or be accompanied by all of the following:

(a) A copy of this section;

(b) A statement that the proposal can give rise to rights under this section if the proposal is approved by the required vote of the shareholders;

(c) A statement that the shareholder will be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section only if the shareholder delivers to the corporation a written demand with the information provided for in division (A)(4) of this section before the vote on the proposal will be taken at the meeting of the shareholders and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the proposal.

(4) If the corporation delivers notice to its shareholders as provided in division (A)(3) of this section, a shareholder electing to be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section shall deliver to the corporation before the vote on the proposal is taken a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the shareholder seeks relief. The demand for payment shall include the shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(5) If the corporation does not notify the corporation's shareholders pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section, not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.

(6) If a signatory, designated and approved by the dissenting shareholder, executes the demand, then at any time after receiving the demand, the corporation may make a written request that the dissenting shareholder provide evidence of the signatory's authority. The shareholder shall provide the evidence within a reasonable time but not sooner than 20 days after the dissenting shareholder has received the corporation's written request for evidence.

(7) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(3) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(5) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within 20 days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(4) of this section.

(8) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.

(9) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within 15 days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within 20 days after the lapse of the 15-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505 of the Revised Code.

If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within 30 days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C)(1) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, both of the following shall be excluded:

(a) Any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders;

(b) Any premium associated with control of the corporation, or any discount for lack of marketability or minority status.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the fair cash value of a share that was listed on a national securities exchange at any of the following times shall be the closing sale price on the national securities exchange as of the applicable date provided in division (C)(1) of this section:

(a) Immediately before the effective time of a merger or consolidation;

(b) Immediately before the filing of an amendment to the articles of incorporation as described in division (A) of section 1701.74 of the Revised Code;

(c) Immediately before the time of the vote described in division (A)(1)(b) of section 1701.76 of the Revised Code.

(D)(1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

B-3

Table of Contents

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

Board of Directors

LNB Bancorp, Inc.

457 Broadway

Lorain, OH 44052

Gentlemen:

LNB Bancorp, Inc. (LNB) and Northwest Bancshares, Inc. (Northwest) propose to enter into an agreement and plan of merger (the Agreement) pursuant to which LNB will merge with and into Northwest (the Merger). Pursuant to the terms of the merger, upon the effective date of the Merger, each share of LNB common stock, excluding certain shares as specified in the Agreement and subject to the election procedures described in the Agreement, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall become and be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof: (i) 1.461 shares of Northwest common stock (the Stock Consideration) or (ii) $18.70 in cash (the Cash Consideration and together with Stock Consideration, the Merger Consideration). The other terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement, and capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of LNB common stock.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement as circulated on December 12, 2014; (ii) certain financial statements and other historical financial information of LNB that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain financial statements and other historical financial information of Northwest that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal financial estimates for LNB for the years ending December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2017 as provided by senior management of LNB and estimated long-term annual growth rates for the years thereafter as discussed with the senior management of LNB; (v) publicly available median analyst earnings estimates for Northwest for the years ending December 31, 2014 through December 31 2016, and various estimated annual growth rates for the years thereafter; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Northwest based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies as determined by the senior management of Northwest; (vii) a comparison of certain financial and other information, including stock trading information, for LNB and Northwest with similar publicly available information for certain other banking institutions, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) the terms and structures of other recent mergers and acquisition transactions in the banking sector; (ix) the current market environment generally and in the banking sector in particular; and (x) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of LNB the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of LNB and held similar discussions with the senior management of Northwest regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Northwest.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by LNB and Northwest or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of preparing this letter. We have further relied on the assurances of the management of LNB and Northwest that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of LNB or Northwest or any of their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of LNB and Northwest or the combined entity after the Merger and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to LNB or Northwest. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both LNB and Northwest are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections as provided by the senior management of LNB and publicly available median earnings per share estimates and an estimated long-term growth rate as discussed with senior management of Northwest, respectively. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its analyses certain projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies which were prepared by and/or reviewed with representatives and senior management of Northwest. With respect to those projections, estimates and judgments, the respective managements of LNB and Northwest confirmed to us that those projections, estimates and judgments reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of LNB and Northwest, respectively, and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. We have assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of LNB and Northwest since the date of the most recent financial data made available to us. We have also assumed in all respects material to our analysis that LNB and Northwest would remain as a going concern for all periods relevant to our analyses. We express no opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated in connection therewith.

Our analyses and the views expressed herein are necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect our views. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this letter or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof.

We have acted as LNB's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and a significant portion of our fees are contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We also will receive a fee from LNB for providing this opinion. LNB has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to LNB and Northwest and their affiliates. We may also actively trade the debt securities of LNB and Northwest or their affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

This letter is directed to the Board of Directors of LNB in connection with its consideration of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of LNB as to how such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to holders of LNB common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of LNB to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for LNB or the effect of any other transaction in which LNB might engage. This opinion shall not be reproduced or used for any other purposes, without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent, provided, however, that Sandler O'Neill hereby provides its consent for this opinion, in its entirety, and any descriptions of this opinion, to be included in any required regulatory filings and any registration statement, proxy statement or other filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, made in connection with the Merger. This Opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by LNB's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholders of LNB.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to the holders of LNB common stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Articles 10 and 11 of the Articles of Incorporation of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. (the Corporation) set forth circumstances under which directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation may be insured or indemnified against liability which they incur in their capacities as such:

ARTICLE 10. Indemnification, etc. of Directors and Officers.

A. Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify (1) its current and former directors and officers, whether serving the Corporation or at its request any other entity, to the fullest extent required or permitted by the MGCL now or hereafter in force, including the advancement of expenses under the procedures and to the fullest extent permitted by law, and (2) other employees and agents to such extent as shall be authorized by the Board of Directors and permitted by law; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section B of this Article 10 with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

B. Procedure. If a claim under Section A of this Article 10 is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty (60) days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty (20) days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall also be entitled to be reimbursed the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. It shall be a defense to any action for advancement of expenses that the Corporation has not received both (i) an undertaking as required by law to repay such advances in the event it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct has not been met and (ii) a written affirmation by the indemnitee of his good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Corporation has been met. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the MGCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the MGCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article 10 or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

C. Non-Exclusivity. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article 10 shall not be exclusive of any other right that any Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, these Articles, the Corporation's Bylaws, any agreement, any vote of stockholders or the Board of Directors, or otherwise.

II-1

Table of Contents

D. Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to insure itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such Person against such expense, liability or loss under the MGCL.

E. Miscellaneous. The Corporation shall not be liable for any payment under this Article 10 in connection with a claim made by any indemnitee to the extent such indemnitee has otherwise actually received payment under any insurance policy, agreement, or otherwise, of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in Sections A and B of this Article 10 shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

F. Limitations Imposed by Federal Law. Notwithstanding any other provision set forth in this Article 10, in no event shall any payments made by the Corporation pursuant to this Article 10 exceed the amount permissible under applicable federal law, including, without limitation, Section 18(k) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

Any repeal or modification of this Article 10 shall not in any way diminish any rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses of such director or officer or the obligations of the Corporation arising hereunder with respect to events occurring, or claims made, while this Article 10 is in force.

ARTICLE 11. Limitation of Liability. An officer or director of the Corporation, as such, shall not be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for money damages, except (A) to the extent that it is proved that the Person actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received; or (B) to the extent that a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Person is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the Person's action, or failure to act, was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding; or (C) to the extent otherwise provided by the MGCL. If the MGCL is amended to further eliminate or limit the personal liability of officers and directors, then the liability of officers and directors of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the MGCL, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the stockholders of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement; (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be a bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Act) may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of, and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
