On December 22, 2015, Universal Health Services, Inc. (the Company) and certain of its subsidiaries amended their existing accounts receivable securitization facility (the Receivables Facility) with a group of conduit lenders, liquidity banks, and PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, which provides for borrowings outstanding from time to time by certain of the Company's subsidiaries in exchange for undivided security interests in their respective accounts receivable.

The parties to the Receivables Facility entered into the Fourth Amendment (the Amendment) to the Amended and Restated Credit and Security Agreement, dated as of October 27, 2010, pursuant to which, among other things, (i) the term of the Receivables Facility was extended through December 21, 2018, (ii) the borrowing limit under the Receivables Facility was increased from $360 million to $400 million, and (iii) certain additional types of accounts receivable were added to the borrowing base. In addition, the program fee, facility fee and certain other fees were increased in connection with the Amendment. Substantially all other provisions of the Receivables Facility remain unchanged.
