Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 12, 2016, CECO Environmental Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into indemnification agreements (the Indemnification Agreement) with each of its directors and certain of its officers. The Indemnification Agreement provides, among other things, that the Company will indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law (and to any greater extent that Delaware law may in the future permit). The Indemnification Agreement provides procedures for the determination of a director's and/or officer's right to receive indemnification and the advancement of expenses. Subject to the express terms of the Indemnification Agreement, the Company's obligations under the Indemnification Agreement continue even after a covered party ceases to be a director and/or officer of the Company.

The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On May 12, 2016, the Company held its 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting). At the Annual Meeting, stockholders of the Company considered: 1) the election of the nine director nominees named in the proxy statement; 2) the ratification of the independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2016; and 3) an advisory vote to approve the named executive officer compensation. The voting results at the Annual Meeting with respect to each of the matters described above were as follows:

1. The nine director nominees named in the proxy statement and standing for election were elected based upon the following votes:
