Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 7, 2007, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Group 1 Automotive, Inc. (the "Company") approved the performance-based compensation measures that will govern the vesting of 30,000 shares of restricted stock (the "Performance Shares"), which were awarded to Earl J. Hesterberg, our Chief Executive Officer, on November 16, 2006. The Performance Shares were issued under the Group 1 Automotive Stock Incentive Plan and restrictions on those shares will lapse in 25% increments beginning on January 1, 2008.

The performance measures set by the Committee consist of:

- gross margin target,
- percentage of same store revenue growth compared to the Company's public automotive consolidator peer group, and
- reduction in selling, general and administrative expenses.

The Compensation Committee will review the performance of the Company and Mr. Hesterberg at the end of each fiscal year during the performance period to determine whether the targets have been achieved. The Compensation Committee, in its sole and exclusive discretion, may modify the number of shares and/or the performance criteria relative to the Performance Shares based on its review of factors affecting the Company's performance.
