AMR CORPORATION REPORTS NOVEMBER 2013 REVENUE AND TRAFFIC RESULTS

Consolidated Traffic Decreased 1.1 Percent

FORT WORTH, Texas - AMR Corporation today reported November 2013 consolidated revenue and traffic results for its principal subsidiary, American Airlines, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary, AMR Eagle Holding Corporation.

November's consolidated passenger revenue per available seat mile (PRASM) increased an estimated 1.0 percent versus the same period last year. The year-over-year PRASM comparison was impacted by approximately 3.3 percentage points from reduced revenues in November 2012 associated with weather-related and operational disruptions that impacted bookings last year.

Consolidated traffic decreased 1.1 percent on a 1.8 percent increase in capacity year-over-year, resulting in a consolidated load factor of 78.4 percent, 2.3 points lower than the same period last year.

Domestic traffic was 3.6 percent lower year-over-year on 0.5 percent less capacity, resulting in a domestic load factor of 80.2 percent, 2.6 points lower compared to the same period last year.

International load factor of 76.8 percent was 2.1 points lower year-over-year, as traffic increased 1.9 percent on 4.8 percent more capacity. The Latin entity recorded the highest load factor of 77.4 percent, a decrease of 1.0 points versus November 2012.

On a consolidated basis, the company boarded 8.4 million passengers in November.

The Company's Results Are Detailed Below:

AMR Preliminary Results Summary

November 2013 consolidated PRASM (cents/ASM)	12.77
November 2013 consolidated year-over-year PRASM change	1.0	%
November 2013 consolidated fuel price including effective hedges & taxes (dollars/gallon)	$3.00

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements and Information

This news release could be viewed as containing forward-looking statements or information. Actual results may differ materially from the results suggested by the statements and information contained herein for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, risks related to the pending merger, the company's ability to secure financing for all of its scheduled aircraft deliveries, the impact of the restructuring of the company and certain of its U.S. subsidiaries, the company's ability to refinance, extend or repay its near and intermediate term debt, the company's substantial level of indebtedness and related interest rates, the potential impact of volatile and rising fuel prices, impairments and restructuring charges, and the potential impact of labor unrest. Because of the company's restructuring, there can be no assurance as to the future value of the company's or any of its subsidiaries' securities, including the company's common stock. Accordingly, the company urges that caution be exercised with respect to existing and future investments in any of these securities (including the company's common stock) or other claims. Readers are referred to the documents filed by the company with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the company's Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2012, as amended by its Form 10-K/A filed April 16, 2013, which further identify the important risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this news release. The company disclaims any obligation to update any forward-looking statement or information.
