

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Raymond James Financial, Inc. (the “Company”) was held on February 16, 2017. Proxies for the meeting were solicited by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and there was no solicitation in opposition to the Board’s solicitations. At this meeting, the shareholders were requested to: (1) elect eleven members of the Board of Directors, (2) approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation of our named executive officers as disclosed in the proxy statement, (3) approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the frequency of advisory votes on executive compensation, and (4) ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2017, all of which matters were described in the proxy statement. The following actions were taken by the Company’s shareholders with respect to each of the foregoing items:

1. Election of Directors. All eleven (11) nominees for director were elected by a majority of the votes cast. With respect to each nominee, there were 17,001,187 broker non-votes. The table below sets forth the voting results for each director.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On February 17, 2017, the Company issued a press release announcing, among other things, that the Board had declared a quarterly dividend of $0.22 per share for each outstanding share of common stock of the Company. The dividend is payable on April 17, 2017 to shareholders of record on April 3, 2017.

The Company also stated in its press release that, as previously planned and announced, Executive Chairman Tom James relinquished his title as Chairman of the Board effective at the shareholder meeting and that Mr. James became Chairman Emeritus, retaining a seat on the Board, with CEO Paul Reilly adding the responsibilities of Chairman to his role. In addition, the Company announced the results of two advisory votes. Shareholders voted to approve the compensation of the Company's named executive officers for fiscal 2016 and to hold future advisory votes on the compensation of the Company's named executive officers every year. The Company stated in the press release that it would take the advisory votes under consideration and make a determination regarding the frequency of future shareholder votes on executive compensation no later than July 14, 2017. Finally, the Company announced that shareholders voted to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
