for the 2005 - 2007 Performance Period for the Long-Term Incentive Program ("LTIP"), pursuant to the Amended and Restated Ashland Inc. Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan").

For fiscal 2005, objectives for IC payments under the Incentive Plan were established by the P & C Committee as Ashland return on investment, cash flow, division operating income and division return on investment. Financial weightings of these objectives will vary depending upon an individual employee's role at Ashland.

The P & C Committee also established the following objectives and corresponding weighting for LTIP payments under the Incentive Plan for the 2005 - 2007 Performance Period:

- o Executive Officers: a target (i) three-year average Ashland return on investment (30%) and (ii) three-year weighted average return on investment of the wholly-owned divisions (70%).
- o Ashland employees (not specifically focused on one division): a target three-year weighted average return on investment of the wholly-owned divisions (100%).
- o Ashland employees (focused on a specific division): a target three-year weighted average return on investment of the wholly-owned division of between 60% - 80%; three-year division return on investment of between 20% - 40%.
