There is no family relationship between Mr. Arnone and any director, executive officer, or person nominated or chosen by the Registrant to become a director or executive officer.

From September 20, 2010 until his appointment as COO, Mr. Arnone had been employed by the Registrant as its Executive Vice President, Worldwide Operations. Before that time, from time to time during June 2008 to September 2010 Mr. Arnone provided independent consulting services to the Registrant. Previously, he had been Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of Fuel Tech from February 2006 through May 2008; and Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer from December 2003 to February 2006.

As of the appointment date, the elements of Mr. Arnone's existing compensation from the Registrant remain unchanged, which include: an annual base salary of $345,000; participation in the Fuel Tech 2013 Executive Officer Incentive Plan ("EOIP") short term incentive cash bonus plan; participation in the 2013 Executive Performance RSU Grant Award Program; participation in the benefit and welfare programs offered by the Registrant to its officers from time to time; and, if Mr. Arnone's employment should be terminated involuntarily without cause within one year of a Change of Control (as such term is defined in the Registrant's standard form of employment agreement), salary and certain benefits continuation for a period of up to one year following such termination.

Other than as stated above, there is no arrangement or understanding as to Mr. Arnone's employment between Mr. Arnone and the Registrant, or its directors and officers. Mr. Arnone previously entered into the Registrant's standard form of employment agreement which established his employment as employment at will, and provides for the protection of the Registrant's intellectual and other property and for the assignment of inventions to the Registrant.
