Employment Agreements

On August 8, 2008, the compensation committee of Lender Processing Services, Inc. (the Company) approved and the Company entered into employment agreements with each of Jeffrey S. Carbiener, Francis K. Chan, Daniel T. Scheuble and Eric D. Swenson. Messrs. Carbiener, Chan, Scheuble and Swenson are named executive officers of the Company. Each executive's employment agreement provides for a three-year term expiring on December 31, 2011, and contains a provision for automatic annual extensions following the initial three-year period and continuing thereafter unless either party provides timely notice that the term should not be extended. In connection with its approval of the employment agreements, the Company's compensation committee approved a new annual base salary and annual cash bonus target under the Company's annual incentive plan for each of Messrs. Carbiener, Chan, Scheuble and Swenson, as further described below.

Mr. Carbiener's employment agreement provides that he will serve as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, and will receive a minimum annual base salary of $850,000. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Carbiener's annual cash bonus target under the Company's annual incentive plan will be 150% of his base salary, with higher or lower amounts payable depending on performance relative to targeted results.

Mr. Chan's employment agreement provides that he will serve as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and will receive a minimum annual base salary of $350,000. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Chan's annual cash bonus target under the Company's annual incentive plan will be 100% of his base salary, with higher or lower amounts payable depending on performance relative to targeted results.

Mr. Scheuble's and Mr. Swenson's employment agreements provide that each of them will serve as an Executive Vice President and Co-Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and that Mr. Scheuble and Mr. Swenson will receive minimum annual base salaries of $490,000 and $540,000, respectively. Under their employment agreements, Mr. Scheuble's and Mr. Swenson's annual cash bonus targets under the Company's annual incentive plan will be 125% of their respective base salaries, with higher or lower amounts payable depending on performance relative to targeted results.

Under the employment agreements, each executive is entitled to supplemental disability insurance sufficient to provide at least 2/3 of his pre-disability base salary, and the executive and his eligible dependents are entitled to medical and other insurance coverage the Company provides to its other top executives as a group. Each executive is also entitled to customary executive benefits under their employment agreements, including participation in the Company's equity incentive plans, and are subject to customary post-employment restrictive covenants.

If, during the term of the employment agreement, (i) an executive's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than cause, death or disability, or (ii) an executive terminates his employment for good reason, the executive will be entitled to receive the following compensation and benefits:

any earned but unpaid base salary and any expense reimbursement payments owed and any earned but unpaid annual bonus payments relating to the prior year;

a pro rated target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; a lump-sum payment equal to 300%, except in the case of Mr. Chan who is entitled to receive 200%, of the sum of the executive's (1) annual base salary and (2) the highest annual bonus paid to the executive within the three years preceding his termination or, if higher, the target bonus opportunity in the year in which the termination of employment occurs; immediate vesting and/or payment of all equity awards, except those awards which are based upon satisfaction of performance criteria which shall vest only in accordance with their express terms; and for as long as the executive pays the full monthly premiums for COBRA coverage, continued receipt of health and dental insurance benefits for a period of 3 years, reduced by comparable benefits he may receive from another employer, together with a lump sum cash payment equal to 36 monthly medical and dental COBRA premiums based on the executive's level of coverage on the date of termination.

For purposes of the employment agreements, a termination of employment by the executive for good reason includes, among others, a termination based on the occurrence within six months immediately preceding or within two years immediately following a change in control of:

a material adverse change in the executive's status, authority or responsibility;

a change in the person to whom the executive reports that results in a material adverse change to the executive's service relationship or the conditions under which he performs his duties;

a material adverse change in the position to whom the executive reports or a material diminution in the authority, duties or responsibilities of that position;

a material diminution in the budget over which the executive has managing authority; or
