THE COMPANY

We are a holding company with subsidiaries engaged in the manufacture and sale of home products, office products, golf products and spirits and wine.

Our principal executive offices are currently located at 300 Tower Parkway, Lincolnshire, Illinois 60069, and our telephone number is (847) 484-4400.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

In recent years, we have been engaged in a strategy of seeking to enhance the operations of our principal operating companies. Pursuant to this strategy, on April 12, 2002, our home products business acquired The Omega Group, a growing, privately-held manufacturer of high-quality kitchen and cabinetry. Primarily a supplier of custom, semi-custom and frameless semi-custom cabinetry to kitchen and bath dealers, The Omega Group will enhance the ability of our kitchen and bath business, MasterBrand Cabinets, Inc., to compete in the highly fragmented dealer channel, the industry's largest channel of distribution. On May 31, 2001, our spirits and wine business completed transactions with V&S Vin & Spirit AB ("V&S"), maker of Absolut Vodka, creating a joint venture, named Future Brands LLC (the "LLC"), to distribute both companies' spirits and wine brands in the United States. V&S paid $270 million to gain access to our spirits and wine business' U.S. distribution network and to acquire a 49% interest in the LLC, and paid $375 million to purchase a 10% equity interest in our spirits and wine subsidiary, Jim Beam Brands Worldwide, Inc. ("JBBW"), in the form of convertible preferred stock. V&S also received a 3-year option to increase its equity stake in JBBW by up to an additional 9.9%. V&S may require us to purchase the JBBW preferred stock in whole or in part at any time after May 31, 2004 or upon a change in control of JBBW, Jim Beam Brands Co., or certain other events.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-8 POS

In 1999, JBBW formed an international sales and distribution joint venture, Maxxium Worldwide B.V. ("Maxxium"), with Remy-Cointreau and Highland Distillers, to distribute and sell spirits in key markets outside the United States. JBBW agreed to contribute assets related to its international distribution network and periodic cash payments with a total estimated value of $110 million in return for a one-third interest in the venture. JBBW's investment of $110 million is contingent upon achievement of certain contractual performance measures, which were not met in 2001. During 1999 and 2000, JBBW made cash investments of approximately $30 million and $25 million in Maxxium. The investments of JBBW in Maxxium were recorded at the book value of assets contributed plus cash invested.

Also in 1999, our subsidiaries completed two acquisitions, one in the home products business and another in the office products business, for an aggregate cost of $103.6 million in cash, including fees and expenses.

We have also disposed of subsidiaries having significant revenues but engaged in businesses we considered to be nonstrategic to our long-term operations. In 1997, we completed the spin-off of Gallaher Group Plc ("Gallaher Group") to our stockholders. Subsidiaries of Gallaher Group compete in the international tobacco business.

In addition, a number of other nonstrategic businesses and product lines have been sold. In 2001, our spirits and wine business sold its U.K.-based Scotch whisky business for $200 million in cash. The sale of the business consisted of Invergordon private-label and bulk Scotch operations and several regional brands in the U.K. In 1998, one of our home products subsidiaries sold assets relating to the manufacture of door locks and related hardware.

We continue to pursue our strategy to enhance the operations of our principal operating companies. We actively explore possible acquisitions in fields related to our principal operating companies. We also cannot exclude the possibility of acquisitions in other fields or further dispositions. On October 9, 2000, we announced that we were exploring strategic options for our office products business. We decided, in April 2001, not to divest our office products business due to weakness in the overall economy particularly impacting the office products industry. We are currently repositioning and restructuring the business to improve both financial results and the long-term value of the business. Under this plan, our office products business is realigning and streamlining its worldwide operations, intensifying its focus on growing profitable core product categories, divesting or discontinuing non-strategic and low-return product categories and reducing overhead expenses and excess capacity.

We review on an ongoing basis the portfolio of brands owned by our operating companies and evaluate our options for increasing shareholder value. Although no assurance can be given as to whether or when any acquisitions or dispositions will be consummated, if agreement with respect to any acquisitions were to be reached, we might finance such acquisitions by issuing additional debt or equity securities. The possible additional debt from any acquisitions, if consummated, would increase our debt-to-equity ratio and such debt or equity securities might, at least in the near term, have a dilutive effect on earnings per share. We also continue to consider other corporate strategies intended to enhance stockholder value, including share repurchases. We cannot predict whether or when any such strategies might be implemented or what the financial effect thereof might be upon our debt or equity securities.

Another aspect of our strategy to enhance the operations of our principal operating companies has been to continuously evaluate the productivity of their product lines and existing asset base and actively seek to identify opportunities to improve our and our subsidiaries cost structure. This strategy led us to record restructuring and other non-recurring charges totaling $98.1 million in 2001. In 2000, we recorded $73 million in pre-tax restructuring and other nonrecurring charges across all segments of our business other than spirits and wine. In 1999, we recorded $196 million in pre-tax restructuring and other nonrecurring charges across all segments of our business. Additionally, in 1997, we recorded $298.2 million in pre-tax restructuring and other nonrecurring charges across all of its principal operating companies.
