ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

In February 2007, the GS Investors purchased an aggregate of 14,055,851 shares of Series A redeemable convertible preferred stock of Benefitfocus.com, Inc. at a purchase price per share of $7.52, for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $105.7 million. On September 13, 2013, as a result of a corporate restructuring, Benefitfocus.com, Inc. became a wholly-owned operating subsidiary of Benefitfocus and the GS Investors became holders of Convertible Series A Preferred Stock of Benefitfocus (the "Series A Preferred Stock"). On September 23, 2013, which was the closing date of Benefitfocus' initial public offering of the Shares (the "IPO"), all of the shares of the Series A Preferred Stock held by the GS Investors were automatically converted on a one-for-one basis into Shares. Following the IPO, the GS Investors sold a portion of their Shares pursuant to an underwriting agreement, dated September 17, 2013 and an underwriting agreement dated July 16, 2014.

The funds used by the GS Investors to purchase the Series A Preferred Stock were obtained from capital contributions made by their respective partners.

The funds for Shares acquired in ordinary course trading activities by Goldman Sachs or another wholly-owned broker or dealer subsidiary of GS Group and reported as beneficially owned in this Schedule 13D came from the working capital of Goldman Sachs or such other subsidiary. The funds for such Shares which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons held in client accounts with respect to which Goldman Sachs or another wholly-owned subsidiary of GS Group or their employees have investment discretion came from client funds. The Reporting Persons disclaim beneficial ownership of Shares held in such accounts.

None of the persons listed on Schedules I, II-A, II-B, or II-C hereto contributed any funds or other consideration towards the acquisition of the Shares except insofar as they may have partnership or member interests in any of the Reporting Persons and have made capital contributions to any of the Reporting Persons, as the case may be.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The GS Investors have acquired the Shares reported herein for investment purposes, and such purchases have been made in the GS Investors' ordinary course of business.

The Reporting Persons may further sell, purchase, hold, vote, trade, dispose or otherwise deal in the Shares at times, and in such manner, as they deem advisable to benefit from changes in the market prices of such Shares, changes in Benefitfocus' operations, business strategy or prospects, or from the sale or merger of Benefitfocus. To evaluate such alternatives, the Reporting Persons will routinely monitor Benefitfocus operations, prospects, business development, management, competitive and strategic matters, capital structure, and prevailing market conditions, as well as alternative investment opportunities, liquidity requirements of the Reporting Persons and other investment considerations. Consistent with its investment evaluation criteria, the Reporting Persons may discuss such matters with management or directors of Benefitfocus, other shareholders, industry analysts, existing or potential strategic partners or competitors, investment and financing professionals, sources of credit and other investors. Such factors and discussions may materially affect, and result in, the Reporting Persons' modifying their ownership of the Shares, proposing changes in Benefitfocus' operations, governance or capitalization, or in proposing one or more of the other actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

The Reporting Persons reserve the right to formulate other plans and/or make other proposals, and take such actions with respect to their investment in Benefitfocus, including any or all of the actions set forth in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, or acquire additional Shares or dispose of all the Shares beneficially owned by them, in the public market or privately negotiated transactions. Each of the Reporting Persons disclaims the existence of a “group” with any of Oak, Holland, Jenkins or Mercer and disclaims beneficial ownership of any of the Shares beneficially owned by such persons.

(c) Except as otherwise described herein, no transactions in the Shares were effected by the Reporting Persons or, to the knowledge of any of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons listed on Schedules I, II-A, II-B, or II-C hereto, during the period from January 4, 2015 to March 5, 2015.

(e) Not applicable.

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

Each of the GS Investors is a party to a Second Amended and Restated Voting Agreement by and among Benefitfocus, the GS Investors, Oak, Holland, and Jenkins (the “Voting Agreement”). The Voting Agreement provides that, with respect to election of directors to the board of Benefitfocus, each party thereto agrees to vote his, her, or its shares in favor of: (i) two individuals nominated by GS Parallel, for as long as GS Group and its affiliates hold 10% or more of the fully diluted equity interest in Benefitfocus, (ii) one individual nominated by Oak for as long as Oak and its affiliates hold 5% or more of the fully diluted equity interest in Benefitfocus, and (iii) for each of Holland and Jenkins as long as each holds shares equal to or in excess of 50% of the number of shares each beneficially held upon entering into the Voting Agreement. Additionally, the Voting Agreement provides that each party thereto agrees not to vote for the removal of the foregoing directors unless such removal is directed or approved by the party that nominated such director. The Voting Agreement also provides that so long as a nominee of GS Group or its affiliate serves as one of Benefitfocus’ directors and to the extent permitted by the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market, that director has a right to serve on Benefitfocus’ nominating and corporate governance and compensation committees; this right will terminate until the earlier of (i) Benefitfocus ceases to be a “controlled company” under the NASDAQ Stock Market listing rules or (ii) an affiliate of GS Group ceases to be, either alone or as part of a group, a stockholder of Benefitfocus whose beneficial ownership of Benefitfocus' voting stock results in Benefitfocus being a "controlled company," whichever event occurs first. The Voting Agreement will terminate on September 23, 2018, and will terminate as to any party at such time as such party no longer has a right to nominate a director pursuant to the Voting Agreement. The foregoing summary of the Voting Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Voting Agreement.

As disclosed in the Benefitfocus 10-K, on February 24, 2015, Benefitfocus entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the "SPA") pursuant to which it sold 2,817,526 Shares to Mercer, one of its customers, for $26.50 per Share or an aggregate of approximately $74.7 million. At the same time, Benefitfocus also issued Mercer a warrant (the "Warrant") to purchase up to an additional 580,813 Shares for $26.50 per Share at any time during the 30-month term of the Warrant. The SPA, among other things, includes certain standstill provisions (the "Standstill Provisions"), which generally prohibit Mercer from owning more than 17.5% of the Shares outstanding or issuable pursuant to the Warrant

In connection with the Mercer Transaction, on February 24, 2015 each of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland and Jenkins granted a right of first offer for Shares owned by each to Mercer pursuant to a Right of First Offer Agreement, dated as of February 24, 2015 (the "ROFO Agreement"), by and among the GS Investors, Oak, Holland, Jenkins, the Company and Mercer. The ROFO Agreement provides, among other things, that, except in limited circumstances, each of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland, and Jenkins are required to offer to Mercer the right to purchase any Shares or other equity securities of Benefitfocus that the GS Investors or such other stockholders propose to issue or sell, at a price the GS Investors or such other stockholders, as applicable, specify (each, a "ROFO"), and if Mercer declines to purchase such Shares or other securities at such price, the GS Investors or such other stockholders may issue or sell such securities to one or more third parties at a price no less than the price offered to Mercer. The ROFO is subject to the limitation on acquisitions of additional Shares by Mercer under the Standstill Provisions described above and each of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland and Jenkins are not required to offer Shares to Mercer pursuant to a ROFO (i) to the extent the acquisition of Shares pursuant to the ROFO would result in a violation of the Standstill Provisions or (ii) if the Standstill Provisions are terminated or suspended pursuant to the SPA or otherwise, to the extent that the acquisition thereof by Mercer would have resulted in a violation of the Standstill in the absence of such termination or suspension. The ROFO is also subject to certain other exceptions, including only applying to 50% of Shares or other securities proposed to be sold by the GS Investors or any other stockholder in a registered offering or certain other similar forms of sales.

Each of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland and Jenkins is permitted to transfer his or its Shares without Mercer being able to exercise a ROFO in the following circumstances: (i) transfers to its stockholders, members, limited or other partners or other equity holders, (ii) in the case of Oak or the GS Investors, transfers to an Affiliated Fund, (iii) pledges of his or its Shares that creates a mere security interest in the pledged Shares, (iv) in the case of natural persons, transfers made for bona fide estate planning purposes, (v) pursuant to a merger, tender offer for any and all Shares or other similar business combination transaction involving Benefitfocus, or (vi) in the case of Holland or Jenkins, pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"); provided, however, that in the case of clauses (i) (other than (x) with respect to Oak or (y) with respect to the GS Investors, any transfer that such GS Investor reasonably determines is necessary or advisable to reduce, eliminate, modify or mitigate an adverse effect on such GS Fund or any of its affiliates, so long as such GS Investor intends to transfer assets, or has transferred assets, other than, or in addition to, Shares in a similar manner in order to reduce, eliminate, modify or mitigate such adverse effect), (ii), (iii) (solely with respect to non-recourse pledges) and (iv) only, such GS Investor or Oak delivers prior written notice to Mercer of such transfer or pledge, and such Shares of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland or Jenkins will at all times remain subject to the terms and restrictions of the ROFO Agreement and the transferee thereof agrees to be bound by such terms and restrictions; and provided, further, that in the case of any transfer pursuant to clauses (i), (ii) or (iv) only, that such transfer is made pursuant to a transaction in which there is no consideration actually paid for such transfer.

The ROFO Agreement terminates, subject to certain exceptions, upon the earlier of (i) the termination of the Alliance Agreement between an affiliate of Mercer and the Company, (ii) the first date on which Mercer and its affiliates beneficially own less than (A) 75% of the Shares acquired by Mercer pursuant to the SPA or (B) 5% of the outstanding Shares, in each case in this clause (ii), for a period of at least 45 consecutive calendar days, (iii) any breach by Mercer of the Standstill Provisions and (iv) if Mercer exercises a ROFO, but fails to consummate such purchase under certain circumstances. The foregoing summary of the ROFO and the ROFO Agreement is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the ROFO Agreement. In addition, each of the GS Investors, Oak, Holland and Jenkins is not required to offer Shares to Mercer pursuant to a ROFO if the Standstill Provisions are terminated or suspended pursuant to the SPA or otherwise, to the extent that the acquisition thereof by Mercer would have resulted in a violation of the Standstill in the absence of such termination or suspension.

In addition, each of Benefitfocus, the GS Investors, Oak, Holland and Jenkins are parties to the Second Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, dated as of September 18, 2013 (the "Rights Agreement"). In connection with the Mercer Transaction, Mercer became a party to the Rights Agreement pursuant to the First Amendment to the Rights Agreement, made as of February 24, 2015 (the "Amendment"). The Rights Agreement, as modified by the Amendment, provides, among other things, that the GS Investors, Oak, Holland, Jenkins and Mercer, will have registration rights and piggyback registration rights. The holders of at least two-thirds, or 66 2/3%, of the then outstanding shares subject to such registration rights have the right to demand that Benefitfocus register such shares under the Securities Act with respect to shares having an aggregate offering price of at least $5,000,000, and subject to other limitations. In addition, the parties to the Rights Agreement, as modified by the Amendment, are entitled to piggyback registration rights with respect to the registration under the Securities Act of Shares. In the event that Benefitfocus proposes to register any Shares under the Securities Act either for its account or for the account of other security holders, the holders of Shares having piggyback registration rights are entitled to receive notice of such registration and to include shares in any such registration, subject to limitations. Further, since Benefitfocus is currently eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3, the holders of at least 5% of the shares subject to these registration rights may require Benefitfocus to file registration statements under the Securities Act on Form S-3 with respect to shares of common stock having an aggregate offering price, net of selling expenses, of at least $5,000,000. To the extent that Benefitfocus qualifies as a well-known seasoned issuer, or WKSI, at the time a requisite number of holders demand the registration of shares subject to these registration rights, Benefitfocus will file an automatic shelf registration statement covering the shares for which registration is demanded if so requested by the holders of such shares. These registration rights are subject to conditions and limitations, among them the right of the underwriters of an offering to limit the number of Shares held by such security holders to be included in such registration. Benefitfocus is generally required to bear all of the expenses of such registrations, including reasonable fees of a single counsel acting on behalf of all selling holders, except underwriting discounts, selling commissions, and stock transfer taxes applicable to the sale. The foregoing summary of the Rights Agreement, as modified by the Amendment, is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Rights Agreement and the Amendment.

Goldman Sachs or another subsidiary of GS Group (collectively, "GS") may, from time to time, in the ordinary course of business, including as a broker, dealer, bank or investment advisor, be party to, enter into or unwind certain cash settled equity derivatives or similar contractual arrangements which provide indirect economic exposure to, but do not give GS direct or indirect voting, investment or dispositive power over, securities of the Issuer and which may be significant in amount. The profit, loss and/or return on such contracts may be wholly or partially dependent on the market value of the securities of the Issuer, the relative value of securities of the Issuer in comparison to one or more other financial instruments, indexes or securities, a basket or group of securities in which the securities of the Issuer may be included, or a combination of any of the foregoing. Accordingly, GS disclaims any beneficial ownership in the securities that may be referenced in such contracts.

SCHEDULE III

On July 15, 2010, Goldman, Sachs & Co. (“Goldman Sachs”) agreed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) to settle the SEC’s pending case against Goldman Sachs relating to disclosures in the ABACUS 2007-AC1 CDO offering. Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of a final judgment by the court, which approved the settlement, providing for the payment of penalties and disgorgement totaling $550 million, Goldman Sachs’s implementation of certain remedial measures focused on offerings of mortgage-related securities and an injunction against violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) in the offer or sale of any security. The conduct of Goldman Sachs alleged in the SEC’s complaint involved an offering of a synthetic collateralized debt obligation, which referenced a portfolio of synthetic residential mortgage backed securities, by Goldman Sachs or its affiliates to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exemption from registration under the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A and to non-U.S. persons in reliance on the safe harbor from registration provided by Regulation S. Specifically, the complaint alleged that the offering materials, in describing the Portfolio Selection Agent for the portfolio of synthetic residential mortgage-backed securities, should have disclosed that the hedge fund assuming the short side of the transaction had played a role in the selection process. In its consent to the judgment, Goldman Sachs acknowledged that it was a mistake not to disclose the role of the hedge fund.

The SEC has alleged that the huddles program of Goldman Sachs - a practice where Goldman Sachs equity research analysts allegedly provided their best trading ideas to Goldman Sachs traders and a select group of Goldman Sachs top clients - created a serious and substantial risk that analysts would share material nonpublic information concerning their published research with Asymmetric Service Initiative (“ASI”) clients and firm traders. The SEC alleged that Goldman Sachs willfully violated Section 15(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), by failing to establish, maintain, and enforce adequate policies and procedures to prevent such misuse in light of the risks arising from the huddles and ASI. Without admitting or denying such violations, Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings Pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order on April 12, 2012 (the “ASI Order”) by the SEC pursuant to which Goldman Sachs (i) shall cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 15(g) of the Exchange Act; (ii) is censured; (iii) paid a total civil money penalty of $22 million on April 19, 2012, $11 million of which was paid to the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority in a related proceeding, and $11 million of which was paid to the SEC, and (iv) shall comply with certain other undertakings, including a comprehensive review, including recommendations, of the policies, procedures and practices maintained and implemented by Goldman Sachs pursuant to Section 15

(g) of the Exchange Act that relate to the findings of the ASI Order.

Starting in July 2008, Neil M.M. Morrison (“Morrison”) was employed by Goldman Sachs to solicit municipal underwriting business from, among others, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Treasurer’s Office. From November 2008 to October 2010, Morrison was also substantially engaged in the political campaigns, including the November 2010 Massachusetts gubernatorial campaign, for Timothy P. Cahill (“Cahill”), the then-Treasurer of Massachusetts. Morrison worked on Cahill’s campaign during work hours using firm resources. Morrison also made a secret, undisclosed cash campaign contribution to Cahill. Within two years of Morrison’s contribution, Goldman Sachs engaged in municipal securities business with issuers associated with Cahill as Treasurer and as a candidate for Governor. The SEC alleged that Goldman Sachs’s engagement in municipal securities business with these issuers violated Section 15B(c)(1) of the Exchange Act and MSRB Rule G-37(b), and that Goldman Sachs’s failure to maintain records of and to report in regulatory filings the contributions and campaign work, and to take steps to ensure that the attributed contributions, or campaign work or the conflicts of interest raised by them were disclosed in bond offering documents, violated MSRB Rules G-8, G-9, G-17, G-27 and G-37. Without admitting or denying such violations (except as to the SEC's jurisdiction over it and the subject matter of the proceedings), Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of an Order Instituting Administrative and Cease-and-Desist Proceedings, Pursuant to Sections 15(b), 15B(c)(2) and 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and a Cease-and-Desist Order on September 27, 2012 (the "Morrison Order"). Goldman Sachs agreed to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 15B(c)(1) of the Exchange Act, MSRB Rule G-37(b), MSRB Rule G-17, MSRB Rule G-27, MSRB Rule G-37(e), MSRB Rule G-8 and MSRB Rule G-9. Goldman Sachs is censured and was required to pay disgorgement of $7,558,942 and prejudgment interest of $670,033. Of the $7,558,942 in disgorgement, $2,120,547 will be deemed satisfied by Goldman Sachs's payment of $1,512,902 to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and $607,645 to the Massachusetts Water Pollution Abatement Trust in a related action by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The remaining $5,438,395 and prejudgment interest of $670,033 was required to be paid to the SEC for remittance to the United States Treasury. Finally, the Morrison Order required Goldman Sachs to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of $3,750,000 to the SEC, of which $1,875,000 will be transferred to the MSRB in accordance with Section 15B(c)(9)(A) of the Exchange Act, and of which the remaining $1,875,000 will be transferred to the United States Treasury. The disgorgement, prejudgment interest and civil money penalty were all paid in full by submission of a wire to the SEC on October 3, 2012, and by submission of checks to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Massachusetts Water Pollution Abatement Trust on October 4, 2012.
