Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 22, 2008, the Company established the MetLife, Inc. Director Indemnity Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan covers current directors of the Company and anyone who becomes a director of the Company prior to an amendment of the indemnification provisions of the Company s bylaws.

The Plan affirms that a director's rights to indemnification and expense advancement under the Company's bylaws are contract rights. The Company's bylaws provide, among other things, for the Company to indemnify, and advance expenses to, a person who is threatened with litigation or made party to a legal proceeding, by reason of serving as a director of the Company. The Plan also provides that advancement of expenses after the director's service ends shall be made on the same basis as if the director's service had continued. Any amendment or repeal of the rights provided under the Plan will not adversely affect any facts, occurrence, action or omission existing at or prior to the amendment or repeal. On the same date, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, a subsidiary of the Company, established an indemnity plan providing rights for its directors that are substantially similar to the rights provided under the Plan. The foregoing description of the Plan is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Plan, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
