HollyFrontier
Weekly Communiqué #04 Merger Update
April 8, 2011

Having introduced the HollyFrontier Integration Team of Senior Managers, this week we would like to focus on three new topics:

1. 5 Types of Mergers and how we have begun applying their differences to several of our decisions.
2. Responses to the first five Employee FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions).
3. Information about where you can submit your questions or suggestions to our Integration Team.

Types of Mergers

From an integration perspective, there are basically five different types of mergers:

- | | |
|------------------|----------------------|
| 1. $A + B = A$ | Assimilation |
| 2. $A + B = B$ | Reverse Assimilation |
| 3. $A + B = A/B$ | Limited Integration |
| 4. $A + B = AB$ | Best of Both |
| 5. $A + B = C$ | Transformational |

We consider all five of these at many levels of granularity and use the one that works best for each decision we face.

We have made the following decisions so far:

The IT infrastructure will be assimilated into Holly's. We made this decision based on a thorough review of both infrastructures and what is required once we merge. $A + B = A$ (assimilation).

Assimilation will also occur on the financial front, as we will be using Holly's SAP platform for our ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning). When used well, SAP is a robust and excellent tool that increases efficiencies and provides valuable information. $A + B = A$ (assimilation).

With regard to benefits, we have committed to reviewing both health and welfare programs to see if we can combine them in some way that will be a win-win for the employees of HollyFrontier. This said, we have now made the decision to continue the separate Holly and Frontier plans as they exist today through the end of 2011. Between now and then, we will continue to analyze the plans and prepare for annual enrollment for 2012. This decision could be $A + B = AB$ (best of both) or $A + B = C$ (transformational). More to come on this.

In next week's Communiqué (#05), we will itemize more decisions and communicate which merger approach is being applied to each. We want to carefully, purposefully and precisely leverage the very best of each organization's functions, systems, programs and processes (or create better ones), thereby maximizing HollyFrontier rather than simply mashing together existing elements. The intent, of course, is to multiply our capabilities by leveraging one another's best practices. After all, mergers and progress cannot occur without CHANGE, so it is paramount that we all remain flexible and open to new and better ways of doing things.

At the time the merger closes, we desire to be operating uniformly across the entire company, but this ambition will only be possible with your help and contributions. It is also important to remember that our policies, procedures and processes will continually evolve. Please help us make the best decisions the first time by asking questions along the way and providing input.

Employee FAQs

Employee FAQs

1. Will our health and welfare plans change when the close occurs?

Integration Team Response
We intend to continue Holly and Frontier plans until the end of 2011 with no changes. We will have plans in place for redesigns in 2012.

2. I have friends who work at Cheyenne. May I contact them?

Yes, but if you would not share the information with another competitor, you should not discuss it in a social call to a friend at Frontier. For example, you should not discuss current or future prices, costs, marketing plans, service decisions or other information that might be sensitive.

3. Why are we merging?

Where can I get more information about this merger and the business case for it?

Please see these documents:

February 22, 2011 Press Release

February 22, 2011 Powerpoint Presentation

4. Will there be more layoffs after closing?

We will know the answer to this (and communicate it fully in coming weeks) when we have completed the HollyFrontier org charts. We are currently working through the charts.

5. Can you explain the compensation process? For example, will my pay change upon closing?

We are currently reviewing both organizations compensation systems and intend to announce a single structure in the weeks ahead. At this time, we know that we want a structure that is grade-based and responsibility-driven.

Submitting Questions or Suggestions to our Integration Team

For those of you who have questions, suggestions or concerns about the Integration process or have heard rumors and would like to surface these for a response, you may either submit them to your local HR Department which will, in turn, share them with us or you may email the HollyFrontier Integration Team at hollyfrontier_merger_questions@hollycorp.com.

On the fun front, the HollyFrontier Corporation Logo Contest rages on but will conclude on Friday, April 29. The designer of our future logo wins an iPad 2, so keep those ideas and sketches coming to your local HR Department for consideration. We will remind you of this opportunity only a few more times, as the deadline is drawing near.

As described, next week (#05) we will continue sharing and explaining more decisions and communicating which merger approach is being applied to them. In subsequent Communiqués (#06-08), we intend to articulate the HollyFrontier Vision-Mission-Values, describe the Compensation Process, and announce Organizational Structures. In May, some of the Communiqués may occur by video (rather than in writing) so they can include a few brief interviews with leaders. In the summer, we intend to continue these dialogues in person by hosting a few on-site Q&A sessions with our respective managers.

Stay tuned; much more is forthcoming next Friday, April 15th, 2011.

On behalf of the broader HollyFrontier Integration Team,

Dave Lamp
