WHAT MARKETS IS ANDREW IN? WHAT PRODUCTS/SERVICES DO THEY SELL?

The antenna and Cable market represents 56% of Andrew's revenue. Base stations represents 24% with wireless innovations, network solutions and satellite communications making up the remainder of their revenue.

WHY IS THIS A COMPELLING MERGER?

1. The proposed merger creates a $3.3 billion dollar sales leader in wireline and wireless network connectivity.
2. Combines ADC's leading wireline connectivity solutions with Andrew's leading wireless solutions to create a clear global leader.
3. We expect to more than double our annual revenue and increase earnings substantially.
4. Presents significant growth opportunities through cross selling and enhanced geographic reach.
5. Customers will benefit from a broader suite of products and services.
6. Synergies will enable us to operate more efficiently and cost effectively.
7. Employees will benefit from new opportunities that step from being a true global partner.

 - b. President & CEO: Bob Switz
 - c. Board of Directors: 12 members (8 current ADC directors, 4 current Andrew directors)
 - d. Key management team members from both companies will comprise the management team of the combined company.
8. Proposed merger expected to close within the next four to six months.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR EMPLOYEES??

Will there be facility, functional and employee consolidations?

ADC and Andrew plan to assess how we might bring significant synergies and create financial scale for our customers and shareholders. In order to improve efficiencies, consolidation of redundant functions, activities and facilities will occur. We also plan on leveraging Research and Development across a broader platform. In addition, it is anticipated that we will realize reduced administrative expenses through the integration process of the merger. Optimizing supply chain, sourcing and procurement opportunities for combined purchasing volumes also presents an opportunity for increased synergies.

That being said, there are significant opportunities for growth due to the proposed merger.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

1. We will establish groups to develop integration plans. Both ADC and Andrew employees will be involved.
2. We will gather questions and provide answers we can give within the legal boundaries of the proposed merger.
3. ADC's executive team is committed to sharing updates in an honest and open platform.
4. The transaction will need to be approved by both Boards of Directors and remains subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals.

WHAT CAN EMPLOYEES DO DURING THIS PERIOD BETWEEN ANNOUNCEMENT AND DAY OF CLOSE?

During this time, it is important that we all remain vigilant in our support of our customers and meet our customer demands. We still have a business to run and it is extremely important that we maintain focus on the business during the next few months. Don't allow yourself to get distracted.

Some employees will be assigned integration activities and we need you to support their movement to these activities and provide additional back up assistance on their previous assignments.

Teamwork will be essential. Stay focused on the business so we can successfully execute on our third and fourth quarter goals.

WHAT CAN T EMPLOYEES DO DURING THIS PERIOD BETWEEN ANNOUNCEMENT AND DAY OF CLOSE?

The law requires that we continue to operate separately in the ordinary course of business. This means we remain a competitor of Andrew until the transaction closes. Do not contact Andrew employees. Do not discuss with our customers any business dealings they have with Andrew.

WHAT CAN EMPLOYEES DO TO MAKE THIS PROPOSED MERGER A SUCCESS?

1. Remain extremely vigilant in the support we provide to our customers during this time between announcement and close of the proposed merger.
2. Don't get distracted. Teamwork will be essential.
3. STAY FOCUSED on the business so we can successfully execute on our Q3 & Q4 goals and meet the needs and demands of our customers.
4. One more time...FOCUS, FOCUS, FOCUS on the business at hand.

WHERE CAN EMPLOYEES GO FOR MORE INFORMATION?

1. We will build an informational site on Broadway containing the announcements, presentations, updates, etc. Watch for an email announcing the new site.
2. We will send out updates as we make progress on the proposed merger.
3. You may check out Andrew's website at xxx.com.
4. You may email Ask.ADC@adc.com with any questions.
5. You may check with your manager or leader.
